

LOCAL NEWS

Going to Redmond—

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coffell leave in the morning for Redmond and home via Crater Lake over the holiday.

To Idylwild—

J. C. Strawn and Vellemonie Morris are leaving in the morning for a brief vacation at Idylwild Park.

Going to Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickett leave tonight by motor for Portland where they will spend Labor Day and enjoy a visit with friends.

Going to Bandon—

Mr. and Mrs. Ivin Brunn and children leave in the morning for Bandon where they will have a cottage over the weekend.

Leaving Today for Coast—

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shields of this city leave today by auto for miles south of Port Orford to enjoy fishing and will be away a week.

To Arrive Tonight—

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gardner of Portland are expected here tonight and will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Caraway over the weekend.

Going to Portland—

Mrs. Alma Harness of the Marksbury store leaves tonight for Portland where she will visit with friends and select fall stock. She will return Wednesday.

Going to Coast—

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Karcher and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bloom and son, Leland, leave in the morning by auto for Lakeside, where they will be until after Labor Day.

Returning to Portland—

Mrs. Dean Vincent and three children, who have been house guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church for the past fortnight, are returning to their home in Portland Monday.

Going to Lakes—

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wickham, son Franklin, and daughter, Mrs. Joe Deets, of this city and Mrs. E. E. Bouck of Eugene leave tonight by auto for Crater and Diamond Lakes.

Leaving for Portland—

Mrs. Belle Van Dusen and son, F. G. Van Dusen, employed at the Montgomery Ward store, leave in the morning for Portland, where they will visit friends over Labor Day.

Going to Lake—

Miss Rhea Gates of this city, Mrs. Mabel Wilson Church and son, Wilson, and her nephew, Ralph Church leave Sunday on a trip to Crater Lake over the holiday.

Going to Medford—

Mrs. Itha Heard of Medford arrived here last night from a vacation trip to British Columbia, and spent today as the house guest of her cousin, Miss Edna Hodges. The two leave tonight for Medford, where Miss Hodges will be gone over to holiday.

Resigns Position—

Miss Lucille Koenig, for the past several months employed as office attendant at the offices of Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, has resigned her position, taking effect today, and will be employed by Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, where she will attend business college this winter.

To Visit With Brother—

Joe Butler of San Francisco is expected to arrive here Sunday night for a two weeks visit with his brother, W. D. Butler, manager of the F. W. Woolworth company store. Mr. Butler is employed by Chevre-Trotte and Eckert, jewelers in the bay city.

Miss Cochran Resigns Position—

Miss Mildred Cochran, for the past several years employed as bookkeeper and stenographer at the offices of Dr. Geo. E. Houck, has resigned her position. Mrs. Helen Peter has been engaged for the place, and takes over her duties today.

En Route to Milton—

Miss Dorothy Whitney, granddaughter of Mrs. Isabel Whitney of this city, passed through Roseburg yesterday afternoon en route to Milton, where she will teach this winter. Miss Whitney has been attending the summer session at Stanford University and visited here early in the summer en route south.

To Salem—

Miss Esther Grattinger, who has been the guest of friends in Coquille visited here yesterday on her way home to Salem.

Visiting in Eugene Few Days—

Miss Marjorie Stephenson of this city went to Eugene last evening and will spend the next few days there visiting with friends.

Going to Bandon Today—

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. John Burkhardt of this city leave today for Bandon where they will visit over Labor Day.

Gone to Bandon—

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Pettit and family and Lee Williams went yesterday to Bandon beach where they will enjoy an outing over the holiday.

Gone to Portland for Week—

Mrs. Hugh Kitchie, Sr., of Garden Valley left yesterday evening for Portland where she will spend a week as the guest of her daughter.

Returned to Eugene—

John Crawford, employee of the Southern Pacific company who has been here on business the past several days, returned last night to his home in Eugene.

Going to Medford Today—

Bryan Pettey is leaving today for Medford where he will spend Labor Day week-end, visiting as the guest of his brother, Bruce Pettey.

Gone to Portland—

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Nerbas and family left today by motor for Oregon City and Portland where they will enjoy a visit over the double holiday.

Visiting at Elliott Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Elliott of Portland arrived here last night from the north to spend the week-end as guests of Mr. Elliott's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Elliott.

Mrs. Bruton Improving—

The condition of Mrs. A. Bruton of this city who is at Mercy hospital, is reported today as being slightly improved. She underwent a major operation last Wednesday.

To Visit Sister—

Mrs. J. T. McMaster and daughter, Ruth, of Sweet Home, Oregon, arrived here yesterday afternoon to be guests of their sister and aunt, Mrs. John Wilson, who resides a few miles south of this city.

Coming to Visit Relatives—

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rucker and two daughters, Lucille and Gertrude, of Portland are to arrive here tonight and be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Elliott. Mrs. Elliott is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rucker.

Improving Two Stations—

Workmen are today engaged in repainting both the Union and Standard Oil stations on South Stephens street. The stations are being freshened and when finished will present a very attractive appearance.

Visit Roseburg Relatives—

Mrs. Henry Easton and daughter, Elaine, of Portland, who have been here visiting Miss Minnie Easton and other relatives the past two days, are returning home this morning. They have just returned from a trip to California.

Only Visitors at Mountain—

Rev. Joseph Knotts, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, and his son, Ross, are home following a 30 mile hike to Wolf Creek Ranger Station and Lookout mountain. They are the only visitors at the mountain so far this year, they stated.

Called to Idaho—

George E. Reynolds, 528 Military street has been called to Mason City, Idaho, by the death of his mother and father. Mr. Reynolds' mother died the first of the week and his father passed away at her funeral. The funerals have been postponed until the arrival of the son, who left Friday.

Visit Friend Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith and Mr. Angel of Los Angeles and Mrs. Julia P. Hammer of Portland stopped here yesterday to visit with M. M. Miller. The Los Angeles folk were en route to their home. Mrs. Hammer returned home to Portland in the afternoon after accompanying her friends this far.

Going to Tacoma—

G. M. Krell, local manager of the Western Auto Supply company, and his brother-in-law, Howard Salvage of Glendale, leave tonight for Tacoma to visit over the week-end at the home of Mr. Krell's parents, Mrs. Krell, who is now in Tacoma, will accompany her husband home.

Left for Pennsylvania—

Paul W. Sage, who has been spending the vast few days here with friends, left yesterday afternoon for Bradford, Pennsylvania. Mr. Sage was a recent arrival here from Phoenix, Arizona, where he was formerly state engineer. He was so impressed with Oregon that he decided to remain and several weeks ago accepted a position as supervising engineer on the new irrigation project near Ashland. He has resigned that position to go east to administer the estate of his father and as soon as the affairs are settled Mr. Sage plans to return to this state to reside.

(Continued from page two.)

Willard Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Falbe, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Six, Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church and Joseph A. Denn.

The Misses Ueland

Entertain for Sister

The Misses Alice and Emma Ueland entertained the past week with a jolly affair at Filders' for the special pleasure of their sister, Miss Cora Ueland, who was a visitor from the south. A group of their friends were bidden for Monday night to have picnic dinner with them at the attractive summer camp of the Uelands and informality was the keynote of the evening, with music being enjoyed about a large bon fire.

The list included Miss Cora Ueland, Mrs. W. K. Wright of Fresno, Mrs. A. M. Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Winberry, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay, the Misses Josephine Baumgartner of Salem, Bess Wharton, Jane Wharton and Frank Clemens and Lyman Skinner.

Mrs. Geo. H. Houck and Brother to Leave Next Week for East

Mrs. George H. Houck (Dr. Flora Campbell Houck) who has been here a few days with her husband's parents, Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck, with her brother, Ian Campbell, leaves September 8 for the east. Mrs. Houck and Mr. Campbell have been spending the summer in Eugene at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dugald Campbell.

Mrs. Houck will resume her work in the Boston Children's hospital, rejoining her husband, Dr. George H. Houck, who is at the Peter Bent Brigham hospital. Mr. Campbell will enter Harvard university this fall. He also visited here the first of the week.

Daughter Roseburg People Recent Bride

A summer wedding of interest to a number in Roseburg is that of Miss Gladys Davenport of Portland, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Miles of this city and Wm. Overman of Portland. The marriage was an event of Friday, August 10, at the Christian church in Kelso, Washington.

The bride spent two months here last winter visiting Mr. and Mrs. Miles and during that time formed a number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Overman visited here a few days last week on their way to Bakersfield, California, where they are to make their home.

Large Group Plan Holiday Trip to Coast

Among the interesting holiday trips planned for Labor Day week-end is that arranged by a group of Roseburg people, who will motor to Bandon over the Roosevelt highway to Crescent City and over the Redwood highway.

Included in the group will be Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline and Miss Martha Yeo, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bates of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huber and daughter, Miss Pauline Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Dean B. Huber, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Hughes and daughter, Miss Daphne Hughes.

Two Maids to Visit in California

Miss Beattie Redburn and Miss Lela Byrd are leaving this afternoon for the south. Miss Byrd will spend a week in San Francisco visiting with friends and Miss Redburn, after a brief stay in the bay city, will go on to southern California. In Los Angeles and Santa Monica she will visit with relatives for a fortnight.

Friends have been welcoming Miss Rita Cobb, formerly of Roseburg, who arrived recently from Portland to visit with friends and relatives.

Daughters of Union Veterans Entertain for President

The local unit of Daughters of Union Veterans held a very enjoyable meeting Monday evening in honor of the department president, Miss Marie Bennett of Portland. A large attendance of members were present and two new candidates were initiated, after which refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Hollywood Visitors Are Honor Guests at Informal Afternoon

Mrs. B. E. Mathis and Mrs. Eugene Mathis entertained informally on the afternoon of August 17 at their home at South Deer creek for the Misses Olive and Frances Mathis.

The guests were former acquaintances of the girls and included the Mesdames W. G. Paul, Eugene Greenwood of Los Angeles, James Pinkerton, O. G. Brown, Wilbur Brown, George Bonebrake, Miss Nadine Pinkerton and Miss Mildred Brown.

The Misses Mathis have been visiting at the family home during the summer and left on Monday for their home in Hollywood, Calif.

Dr. and Mrs. George M. Bradburn of Meritt Place and Dr. Bradburn's brother and sister, Mrs. Ray Collum and James Bradburn, who are visitors here from Ontario, leave in the morning for Gold Beach for a holiday.

W. C. T. U. Has Very Enjoyable Afternoon and Evening Program

One of the most interesting meetings of the year for the Roseburg W. C. T. U. occurred on Thursday, when the union met as guests at the home of the president, Mrs. T. D. Busenbark, at Melrose.

There were 25 members of the union present in the afternoon to participate in the devotionals, which were led by Mrs. C. W. Courtney of Grants Pass. After the business meeting quite an enjoyable program was given. Mrs. W. E. Balse spoke on "Canadian Government Control of Liquor," emphasizing the point on government control and giving statistics. Mrs. V. J. McCall also spoke on the same subject and stated that a Mr. Menken, who visited Canada, described the situation, giving an illustration of the amount that was secured.

Mrs. W. L. Scott spoke interestingly on current news in prohibition and told of a conference held at Chattanooga, Tenn., at which ten W. C. T. U. presidents, representing that many southern states, recommended support of prohibition.

Mrs. Busenbark served at the close and in the evening husbands of the members attending and additional guests assembled at the John Busenbark, Sr. grove at Melrose for a most enjoyable evening following a picnic dinner.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters was in charge of the evening program, which included a reading by Joyce Busenbark, a talk by Hon. B. L. Eddy, who made a few remarks and urged citizens to register previous to October 6.

There were 52 present at the evening affair.

Late Summer Wedding Interesting to Town Folk

A very beautiful wedding of interest here was solemnized in Portland August 27 at St. John's church when Miss Jeanetta Francis Swinford became the bride of Mr. Joe W. Durech, formerly of this city.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Chart of Portland. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Durech, who have long been residents of this district.

The bride was charming in a gown of white georgette. She wore a veil of tulle and lace caught with a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Ona Durech, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Miss Rose Frazer was bridesmaid. Both wore gowns of peach colored georgette.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Ora M. Durech, and Emmanuel Schunk.

After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gende in Ardenwald.

Mr. and Mrs. Durech are at present visiting in Roseburg, and will later make their home in Portland.

Colleen Moore in "Happiness Ahead"

Colleen Moore and Edmund Lowe in "Happiness Ahead"

Antlers, Sunday and Monday

In a picture decidedly different from anything in which she has appeared in the past, Colleen Moore comes to the Antlers Theatre Sunday in her latest starring picture, "Happiness Ahead."

Although this production provides her with every opportunity to display her excellent flair for comedy, Miss Moore will also be seen in moments of deep drama, in which she is said to have proved an unusually capable actress.

"Happiness Ahead" is the story of a little country girl who marries a city card-sharp, believing him to be an entirely honest young business man. The manner in which she discovers the truth, and the subsequent action of the principal character, gives "Happiness Ahead," a plot which is unique in the extreme. Edmund Lowe plays the chief supporting role.

Clever Comedy at Liberty Sunday "United States Smith"

Lovers of stirring scenes, happy flags, immensely intriguing immigrants, and mountainous marines will eat the current attraction at the Liberty Theatre, "United States Smith," alive.

"United States Smith" oozes pleasant entertainment, touchy in spots, mirthquaking in others, and this reviewer saw one elderly spectator slapping his strange neighbor's knee in an ecstasy of youthful exuberance.

It's that kind of picture—gets you when you least expect it. For example, there's Eddie Gribbon,

Mrs. Blanche Cook Has House Guests Over Holiday

Mrs. Nan S. White of southeastern Iowa is a guest of Mrs. Blanche Cook, having arrived in Roseburg Thursday, following a visit of several months with relatives and friends in California. Robert J. Cook will come from Medford to spend the week-end with his mother and Mrs. White, the latter being his great-aunt. Homer L. Jones of Eugene will also be a Sunday guest to visit with Mrs. White. These folk are all natives of the same town in Iowa.

Entertainment to Be Given September 6

The Melrose Social club will give an entertainment at the Melrose hall on Thursday, September 6, at 8 p. m., for the purpose of raising money to improve the stage of the hall. The program will be as follows: Opening, William Sandstrom, president; "Interrupted Courtship," Ed Reece, Margaret Busenbark, Helen Busenbark, Catherine Busenbark, Bessie Hogan, Billie Joe Hogan and James Conn; "Romeo and Juliet," Joel Fenn and Henry Scott; accordion music, Henry Anderson; song, "Henry's Made a Lady Out of Lizzy," Ethelmae Conn, Margaret, Dorothy and Fern Busenbark; "A Little Tilt," Dale and Allen Busenbark; Hawaiian guitar solo, Grace Conn; "Bachelor's Dream," Carl Becker, Jr., as bachelor, Beulah Tjansland, Ethelmae Conn, Wilma Busenbark, Crystal Fenn, Fern Busenbark, Amy and Margaret Churchill; song, "Just a Memory," James and Grace Conn; reading, Joyce Busenbark, a comedy, "The Insurance Agent," Wm. Sandstrom and Grace Conn; piano solo, Ethel Krohn; dance, Marion Patton of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Melvin Ellison of Roseburg; Beauty Contest—the boys of the dressed in dresses.

Cafeteria luncheon will be served after the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Reed of Portland were guests last night of the latter's mother, Mrs. Della Whitting, on North Rose street. They left today for San Francisco, where they will be for a week. Returning here the latter part of the coming week, they will spend a day or so before going on home and will be accompanied by Mrs. Whitting.

Second of Series of Dinners This Week

One of a series of barbeque dinners which the younger married set of Roseburg are giving was given at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sanders Tuesday evening. After the dinner, in charge of Mr. Sanders and Mrs. Marsters, dancing was enjoyed. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Sanders. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Marsters, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bower, Mrs. R. Allen Lee, Mrs. B. Marsters, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Marsters, Misses Maudie Durkin, Mary Rockwell, Maxine Rockwell, Virginia Lee, Mrs. Durkin, Allen Lee, Alvin Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Chilson, Joe Marsters and Mr. and Mrs. Sanders.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus and two children of Eugene were interesting visitors last week-end as guests of Mrs. H. H. Stapleton.

Dinner Party for 10 Honors Couple on Wedding Anniversary

Superintendent and Mrs. Wm. M. Campbell, who are again domiciled at 1032 North Jackson street, following a vacation trip to middle-west and eastern states this summer, entertained with an attractively appointed dinner last evening, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Churchill, two well known Roseburg people, on their thirtieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Churchill were married here thirty years ago and both have been prominent in the city's activities. Mr. Churchill being engaged in business for many years.

A color scheme of pink was used at the table, which held covers for Mr. and Mrs. Churchill, Mrs. Helen G. Smick, Mr. and Mrs. Homer G. Smick, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Campbell, McAfee Campbell and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Grow entertained with music during the evening. Mrs. Grow giving piano and whistling numbers and Mr. Grow singing.

Among the interesting newcomers to Roseburg who are being welcomed are Mr. and Mrs. Homer G. Smick. Mr. Smick comes here as the new instructor of Smith-Hughes work in the high school, taking the position made vacant by Professor C. Dillard Regua, who moved to Idaho. Both Mr. and Mrs. Grow are accomplished musicians and are being warmly welcomed by the faculty.

Eugene Maid Is Bride of Harold Cooper

A late summer wedding of interest to Roseburg friends of the bridegroom was that of Miss Hilda Josephine Olsen of Eugene and Harold Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cooper of this city. The ceremony occurring last Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Denney, 1437 Hilliard street, Eugene. The bridegroom's parents attended from here.

Rev. Father Edwin V. O'Hara, of St. Mary's Catholic church, read the service while the bride couple stood before a beautiful bank of flowers and ferns.

Miss Philena Cooper, sister of Mr. Cooper, of Roseburg, was the bride's only attendant and M. H. Voeller of Portland was best man.

The bride wore an attractive wedding gown in blue georgette, enhanced with velvet and silver trimming. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Miss Cooper wore a becoming frock of peach georgette, elaborated with lace.

The bride is the daughter of Christian Olsen of North Dakota. She has been engaged as secretary to the dean at the University of Oregon the past year. Mrs. Cooper graduated from the University of Oregon in 1927 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity, Pi Lambda Theta, woman's educational fraternity and Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish society.

Mr. Cooper is a graduate of Roseburg high school and the Oregon Normal School. He also spent one year at the Christian Brothers Business College in Portland and is a law senior at the University of Oregon. During the past three years he has been engaged as supervisor of physical education in the John Jacob Astor junior high school in Astoria.

Following the ceremony the couple left for Portland and Cannon beach and on their return will make their home in Astoria.

Miss Kincart Is Bride of Wesley Thompson At Quiet Ceremony Here

Among the marriages this season of interest in circles in Roseburg and the northern part of the county is that of Miss Lochie Kincart, attractive Oakland maid, and Wesley Thompson of Sutherlin, which took place at a quiet ceremony this morning at the Presbyterian manse in Roseburg. Rev. R. W. Adler reading the service before a few close friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride was charming in a frock of pink crepe de chine elaborated with ecru lace.

Miss Juanita Pinkston of Oakland was the bride's only attendant. She wore an ensemble in white silk and wool and a white chapeau to go with the costume.

Yvett Holgate of Sutherlin acted as best man for Mr. Thompson.

Following the nuptial service Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left by motor on a wedding trip south, which will take them to Crescent City, down the California coast and other points. They will be guests of the bride's sister and

(Continued on page 8.)

LIBERTY

A smashing tale of two fighting marines and a

GIRL!

"United States Smith"

with EDDIE GRIBBON LILA LEE

Also Good Short Features

Matinee Daily 2:15

LAST TIME

TODAY

"TARZEN THE MIGHTY"

Also Tim McCoy in "Riders of the Dark"

FREE PRIZES

STARTS SUNDAY FOR TWO DAYS

Direction Umpqua Amusement Co.

ANTLERS

Brings Oodles of Joy The Favorite of Millions

COLLEEN MOORE

HAPPINESS AHEAD

Laugh-getting, tear starting, never-to-be forgotten romance that might happen to anyone in the world. But only Colleen could give it such realism—such life—such feeling

LAST TODAY TIME

REGINALD DENNY

IN

"Good Morning Judge"

Also A GOOD COMEDY LATEST NEWS AND WANDA'S MUSIC

ADMISSION

Matinee 10 and 25

Evenings 10 and 35

USED Cars!

that will serve you well and save you money.

1927 Ford Roadster.
1927 Chev. Touring.
1924 Ford Coupe.
1925 Star Touring.

OPEN EVENINGS

Roy Catching Motor Co.