county who come in this week will save a big sum for themselves by taking advantage of these quotations. You, Mr. and Mrs. Public, just scan these messages and that will bring conviction that you can save in both time and money by the transaction.
Yes, sir, the market editing look-around this morning to get an inspiration for a story, and the array of good things that these advertising food dispensers have made for convenience of the buyers was so inviting and tempting that he had to quit early and go home for lunch—and it'll make you hungry when you see what is fixed up for you. There is everything from fresh staples to fresh fruits, green vegetables, poultry and dairy products and savory meats. These merchants are going their advertising one better—they are offering a lot of things that their ads do not mention. And you will smile that smile that is sincere when you start in on your shopping this week.
In addition to the advertising grocers the general stores have also sent out some decidedly interesting announcements. This week and the public have profited immensely, all of this combining to build up general prosperity.
