DEAD FREAK NEEDS SPECIAL CASKET

(Associated Press Local Wire)
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 16.—The body of Mrs. Pearl Huntington Smith, "fat woman" in a circus sideshow—who died here Wednesday, was enroute to the home of relatives in Indianapolis, Ind., today after undertakers had been forced to have a special casket built.
Mrs. Smith weighed 600 pounds and a Little Rock casket firm hastened to build a casket 30 inches wide, 20 inches deep and

FREE WEDDING PARSON

WAYNESBURG, Pa.—It doesn't cost so much to get married, after all, not if you letquire George L. Zimmerman, of Morrisville, do it. "Instead of paying me," he recently said, "those whom I marry can take the fee and use it for their homes or other essentials. It will be a day and night service, for I will answer telephone calls or perform the ceremony any hour of the day."

OFFERS MORTGAGE AS DIVORCE CURE

By NEA Service
CLEVELAND.—The marriage of a home keeps a family poor to the untold thousands who are divorced. That's the opinion of Common Pleas Judge Frederick P. Walcott.
"In 90 per cent of divorce cases," he says, "we find the parties do not own their homes. Any man or woman who does not hope to own a home and does not work towards that end is not a substantial citizen."

CHURCHES

First Christian Church, W. H. Baird, pastor. Bible school at 9:45 a. m. D. E. Carr, superintendent. Morning worship begins at 10:50. Sermon subject "A Witnessing and Suffering Church." This is the third of a series of sermons from the Book of Revelation. Junior Christian Endeavor during the morning preaching service. Young Peoples' Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m. The evening evangelistic services begin at 7:30 with music by the orchestra. This is followed by a lively song service led by Charles Stanton. The evening sermon subject will be "The King of Kings." Special music by the choir both morning and evening. The ladies of the church have furnished one of the rooms for a nursery for small children. Mothers can now enjoy the church services and know that their children are well taken care of in the nursery. Mid-week praise service on Wednesday night. Next week we begin a study of the Book of Hebrews. Bring your Bible and study with us.

C. and M. A. Cleveland, Mrs. C. Chamberlin in charge. Services as follows: S. S. at 10 o'clock with Mrs. John Krohn as superintendent. Children's service immediately after the Sunday school hour, followed by the morning message. Topic, "The Jew—His Past, Present and Future." Please read Romans, 10th and 11th chapters. We are planning on taking up some definite plan of Bible study in the near future. Plan on being on hand for the first lesson. We praise God for the evidence of the Spirit's leading in last Sunday's service and for our young people who are helping so willingly in special, such as solos and duets, and soon a boys' quartet may be heard.

Church of Christ, Myrtle Creek. Charles A. Sims, minister. The services will be regular in every way next Sunday. The morning pulpit theme will be "The Parable of the Sower," evening, "Parable of Our Age." A special pantomime of "Nearer My God to Thee" will be rendered in the evening program. Bible school opens at 10 a. m. and C. E. at 6:30 p. m. The glad hand awaits you at all our services. The Ladies' Christmas bazaar and dinner will occur Saturday, Nov. 21.

The M. E. Churches at Dillard, Lookingglass, Tenmile and Canas Valley. T. P. Allen, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m.; R. A. Hercher, T. Rodney, T. Godfrey and W. Reitz, superintendents. Canas Valley leads in Sunday school attendance and Dillard is second. All four churches going fine. Keep up the good work. Sunday is to be a great day at Lookingglass. Rev. S. J. Cheney, our district superintendent, will be with us preaching at 10 a. m., followed by the communion service. Basket dinner at noon. Preaching again at 2 p. m. Dr. Chaney bringing the message. Those of you who have heard Dr. Chaney know there is a treat in store for you. Hear him. At the close of the afternoon service Dr. Chaney will hold our first quarterly meeting. All that have reported to make kindly have them "ready and be present. O, yes, don't forget to bring a little extra chicken for Dr. Chaney. Preaching at Dillard 7:30 p. m. Epworth League at Canas Valley 7:00. Prayer meeting at Dillard Wednesday evening, 7:30; Tenmile Thursday evening, 7:30. You are invited to any and all our services. You who read these notices, kindly extend an invitation to those who never read the church notices. Say we would like to have them come and worship with us.

St. George's Episcopal Church. Corrine Case and Miah Stevens. The 25th Sunday after Trinity. H. C. at 7:30 a. m. Celebration of holy communion and sermon at 11:00 a. m. Church school at 9:45 a. m. All up to the age of twenty years are lovingly welcome. Wednesday evening service at 8:00 p. m. which includes testimonials of healing through Christian Science. The reading room in the front of the building is open daily except Sundays and holidays, where the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. The public is cordially invited to attend the services and use the reading room.

Methodist Episcopal Church. Methodist school 9:45 a. m. E. Goodheart, superintendent. Morning service 11 a. m. Subject, "John Wesley," by Rev. J. H. Anthony. "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," by William. Incidental duet, Mrs. Orcutt and Mr. Hight. Solo, "Do Not Let Me Leave Thee," by Mrs. A. N. Orcutt. Epworth League 6:30 p. m. Subject, "What It Means to Be a Christian." Evening service 7:30. Subject, "John Bunyan, 'The Great Dreamer.'" The Junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Orcutt will have charges of the evening music. You should hear them. Sunday, November 18th, is the 100th anniversary of the death of Franz Schubert. Mrs. Charles Heimline, pianist, and director of the choir, will render three selections from this famous genius, "Ingratiate," "Serenade," and

"March Militaire," Franz Schubert. Charles A. Edwards, minister.

The First Christian Church at Riddle. Bible school at 10, communion at 11. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. After the communion hour we have our monthly fellowship dinner in the church, after which we hold our board meeting. We are anticipating a splendid time, as we are to have our state secretary, Brother C. F. Swander, with us for a conference.

First Presbyterian Church. The brick church, corner of Jackson and Lane. R. W. Archer, pastor. Bible school 9:45 a. m. Senator B. L. Eddy, superintendent. The school is doing splendid work under the departmental system. The young peoples' class, recently organized by J. O. Arthur, has manifested much interest in the study of Genesis. Immediately after Sunday school the Junior Endeavor will meet with Lilla Vowel in the church parlor. Morning worship 11 o'clock, subject, "A Holy Day or Holiday Day, Which?" You will enjoy the music of a large and well trained choir. The church school Endeavor's meet in the church parlor at 6:30 p. m. Miss Esther Meyers, leader. Evening worship 7:30. Subject, "Sin, Its Nature and Effect." Elsie Carleton Strang will sing. Frances Lintott will preside at the organ. Wednesday evening 7:30 prayer and Bible study. Don't miss the study on Daniel's seventh week. It is one of the most interesting studies in the Bible. Following the Bible study we will have our seventh lecture on Christian Education. Subject, "Self Activity."

First Baptist Church, Lane and Rose. Frank B. Matthews, pastor. Sunday, November 18th. 9:45 the Bible school. Our fine new equipment is bringing an increase in attendance and interest in the school. Please try to be on time Sunday. 11:00 the morning worship. The pastor will preach on "Making and Breaking Connections." The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Grace Deets, will sing the anthem, "Be Joyful in the Lord," by Wilson. 6:30 Senior B. 3 p. m. for young people. 7:30 the evening service. "Ninety-nine Pins One," will be the pastor's sermon topic. As a part of the service Elizabeth Williams, instructed by Mrs. Bonebrake, will cantorate the "Parable of the Lost Sheep." The choir will sing the anthem, "Jesus Our Friend," by Wilson. Pre-lude questions: 1. "What's wrong with my children?" asks the mother of two spoiled boys? 2. Did John the Baptist ever locate and baptize? 3. Is it better for parents to arrange the marriage of their children, as Euphrosine do? 4. Why does "God take our loved ones from us?"

Methodist Episcopal Church. South, corner of East Lane and South Main. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. W. L. Cobb, superintendent. Were you out to school last Sunday? If not, be sure and come next Sunday, and be on time. Morning worship 11 o'clock. Rev. J. O. Arthur will speak on "The Perfect Man; or Four-Fold Development." Rev. Arthur is the religious instructor of churches, and will bring us a good message. Do not fail to hear him. At 6:30 p. m. the Epworth League. Topic, "International Golden Rule." Evening worship at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Joy Unspeaking." We extend to you a personal invitation to worship with us at all these services. If you are a stranger, come. If you just came to town and intend to make this city your home, make this church your church home. We welcome you to our services, hymns and gospel singing. Paul expected the early return of the Lord. We know not when He will come. We do know that we should live so that we might greet with gladness His return at anytime. No more of light I ask of God. But eyes to see what is; No sweeter songs, but power to hear. The present melodies.

Give me all fear to dominate. All joys to know. To be the friend I wish to be. To speak the truth I know. John B. Penhall, pastor.

International Bible Students Association. Meetings at 6 W. Rutledge in Edgewater 11 a. m. The subject for study is "Ruler for the People." In all governments of men there is an invisible as well as a visible power. exercised for evil or for good. The invisible power is superior to the visible and it therefore has power of control. Psalm 22:12: "Blessed is the nation whose God is Jehovah." The inference must be deduced from this scriptural statement that there is an invisible ruling power other than Jehovah God and that when the people controlled by that power it is not for their blessing. Who is the invisible ruler of the nations of earth? It certainly is not Jehovah God. Psalm 2:6, also 19:3. Have you known your motto in on KPMV since they were relocated Nov. 11th on 99.9 kilocycles, with 322.4 meters and 500 watts power. Much better and clearer than the old location.

BREMEN, Ohio, Nov. 15.—When the hunting season was under way in today's independent schools E. J. Arnold learned that virtually all his boys and some of the girls wanted to go hunting so he dismissed the entire school of 200 for the day. Then, donning his hunting clothes, shouldering his gun and unleashing his dog, he took to the fields with a part of his high school boys.

ELKS LODGE TO HOLD BIG PROGRAM ON NOVEMBER 22

The Elks Homecoming program on November 22 is expected to be one of the biggest events the lodge has staged in recent years. The lodge has nearly 500 members and it is expected to have all of these men present or represented at roll call. Those who cannot attend personally are expected to send a message of greeting to the lodge so that all will be represented when their names are called. A turkey banquet will be served at 6 o'clock, after which the lodge will be organized and the business of the order taken up. One of the purposes of the meeting will be to secure an expression from the members regarding the activities of the lodge, particularly in the matter of community welfare. It is planned to outline future activities and arrange to participate in civic affairs on a larger scale. Members will be asked to aid in outlining this program of work for the coming year. The business meeting will be followed by an entertainment that

DRIVES THROUGH FUNERAL; KILLED

(Associated Press Local Wire)
CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—It is bad luck the superstitions say, to cross the street through a funeral procession.
Fred D. Stevens drove his car through the line of machines following the body of the late State Representative Thomas Curran yesterday, and was killed when his car collided with another.
