

Day in Society

erford will entertain a group of older music students.

Music Students Will Be Heard in Recital at Church Auditorium

What promises to be a most interesting entertainment will be given at the First Methodist Episcopal church on Tuesday evening, December 4, by the Melody Way, a group of music students. These are the beginners from 6 to 9 years of age who have had just thirteen class lessons and are now ready to play a very attractive recital program. The "Melody Way," conceived and perfected by Otto Rissner when he was supervisor of music in the Chicago schools, has literally swept the country and in Kansas City alone 3000 children are learning to play piano in the public schools. Over 200 schools and conservatories are using the system, among them Chicago, Washington, D. C., and Los Angeles. The supervisor of music in Dallas, Texas, reports an enrollment of 4000 children this fall. There are many wonderful advantages in the new way of teaching piano over the old. Especially is it true that children love their work. The method is interesting from the start and appeals to beginners of all ages, and there is never any complaint about children not wanting to practice.

Mrs. Heinlein will present the following pupils: Ralph Leidy, Gordon Walker, Beverly Weston, Virginia Wilson, Ruth Matthews, Helen Gilham, Junior Deane, Dolores Cacy, Mildred Roberts, Leslie Covert and Richard Wallace.

Mrs. Anna Bradley of Wasco is here to spend the winter with her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Marsters.

Mr. Will Smith Is Host at Dinner Thursday

Mr. Will Smith was host at his home in this city on the holiday, arranging a dinner party for his family and additional guests.

The table held covers for Mr. and Mrs. Macon G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith and two children, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Garrett and Miss Maxine Smith and the host.

J. S. McDonald entertained on Thanksgiving at dinner for A. H. Crawford, formerly of this city, and Carol Johnson. Mr. Crawford left Thursday evening for Eugene and from there will go to Seattle.

Mrs. J. E. Dent Is Honored on Anniversary

Last Thursday evening a group of her friends arranged a surprise affair complimenting Mrs. J. E. Dent on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. A group of 20 called at the Dent home at 415 South First street for the evening and enjoyed games.

Later refreshments were served.

Miss Margaret Horsey motored to Medford on Sunday afternoon to visit friends and also to visit her brother, Richard, who is attending the Ashland normal.

C. E. Launches Work for Year at Meeting

Tuesday evening marked an interesting time for the members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church which met at the church parlors to organize the work for the year.

The business of electing new officers was taken up and those who will serve in office are: Ralph Church, president; Owen Walker, vice-president; Rhea Gates, secretary; Claude Patterson, treasurer; Owen Walker, chorister; Mrs. Glenn Radabaugh, pianist.

Afterward a social time was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Hon. George M. Brown, associate justice of the Oregon supreme court, and Mrs. Brown, both formerly of this city, were Thanksgiving day visitors from Salem and were guests of relatives while here.

Ex-Roseburg Maid Has An Important Part in Arranging Musical Event

To patrons of music as well as school administrators and teachers is the announcement of interest that the Southern Oregon Normal school plans to sponsor a musical tournament which will be held in Ashland sometime in May. Miss Leona G. Marsters, director of music at the school, and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters and formerly of Roseburg, has charge of arrangements.

The general plan is to have a festival which will bring together school children, adults and school music teachers who are interested in the promotion of music through the public and high schools throughout the communities in general which surround the Normal in southern Oregon.

The festival will be held three days, the first day to be devoted to harmonica bands, two-part choruses singing of untrained voices, and to folk dances. The weather permitting, the dances and playing by the band will be in a selected place in beautiful Lithia park, which will give a most unusual setting for the programs.

Drain Wedding Event of the Week

A wedding of interest in the northern part of the county was that at which Miss Claire Coltrane became the bride of Floyd H. Taylor this week at Drain, where both have been making their homes.

The ceremony at 2 o'clock was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, parents of the bridegroom. A setting of chrysanthemums, in white and yellow against a background of greenery was used. Judge Thomas Krawson read the nuptial service.

The bride wore gold Spanish lace over ivory satin and slippers of gold cloth. Mrs. W. L. Wilcox of Cottage Grove, the bridesmaid, was dressed in white satin.

Mr. W. L. Wilcox acted as best man. The guest list included Mrs. Ernest Goodrich, Mrs. W. B. Chapin, Mrs. E. Whyte, Mrs. W. C. Coltrane and daughters, Mary and Marjorie, of Fall Creek, Oregon, mother and sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Redford, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ward, Judge and Mrs. Fred A. Goodrich, Judge and Mrs. Thomas Krawson, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Taylor, Bob Welch and M. H. Taylor.

After the wedding a dinner was served at six o'clock at several tables appointed attractively. The large wedding cake was cut by the bride.

A radio hour entertained the group during the evening.

Glide Community Joins in Observing Holiday as Annual Affair

Glide again celebrated Thanksgiving with one of its famous community dinners. For the past few years Thanksgiving has been observed in this way at the Glide school building.

The table was decorated with a basket of white and coral chrysanthemums. At two o'clock a special program, consisting of the following, was presented to a large assembly: Song, "America," audience; recitation, Ronald King; recitation, Elouise Caswell; piano solo, Paula Wilson; recitation, Ray Morgan; solo, Mrs. Paul C. Caswell; recitation, Raymond Wilson; song, intermediate room; recitation, Irma Morgan; recitation, Loren Wilson; music, A. H. Spiedel and V. A. Bakely; song, quartet; Jews-harp solo, J. Alexander; song, quartet.

The home economics committee sold bags of candy to raffle off a quilt, which was won by Mr. Alexander, who donated it to the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice S. Newland entertained at their home during the holiday. Mrs. Newland's parents and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lamont and Roderick Lamont, of Portland.

Among the students home from Portland for the holiday being welcomed by friends are Miss Marjorie Snyder and Miss Kathleen Nemo. Both are students at Ben-Hur Walker college.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Scott and Miss Dolly Vogel were entertained at dinner on Thanksgiving by Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters.

Interesting to musical circles and her friends in Roseburg where she formerly lived was the part Mrs. Arthur Knauss (Stella Krohn) took in the program broadcast from station KOIN, Portland, last Thursday from 9 to 10 o'clock. Mrs. Knauss gave four piano solos and also accompanied the other numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Mootheart of Coberston, Montana, were arrivals preceding Thanksgiving to spend the holiday with their son, Lloyd Mootheart, at his home west of the city. They plan later to go on to Los Angeles.

Dr. and Mrs. Lee A. Wells entertained over Thanksgiving the former's mother, Mrs. L. H. Wells, and his brother and sister, Miss Alice Wells and Dr. Richard Wells, all of Portland.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—December 1 meant something more than the beginning of counting days until Christmas here for today two of the country's foremost grid machines—the Trojans of southern California and the Ramblers of Notre Dame—were to renew a three year old rivalry.

In spite of the fact that Notre Dame had suffered three reverses in its 1928 season, while southern California had only a nothing to nothing with California to mar its record, fans paid Rockne the tribute of making the bet even. The fact that twice the punter-coach had won over the warhorse with one point victories made cash as scarce as forward passes in a fox. Men who offered terrific prizes for seats at the gates of the sold-out Coliseum, stuck their money in their mouths and turned empty pockets inside out when the word "bet" was heard. It generally was concluded that the report had spread that it was anybody's game.

Conditions Ideal

Promise of a clear day, a fast field, and mild weather only added to the uncertainty of the outcome. Both teams had prepared aerial attacks which might spell disaster for one caught napping, and each had spent hours on defense against such overhanded methods.

The Trojan line, noted for its hard charging, was equalled as by a forward wall of just such aggressiveness from South Bend.

Where Southern California had Williams, Saunders, Thomas and Edelson, or Ault in a back field, the Ramblers countered with Collins, Nemon, Chevigny and S. Collins, whose names also were known throughout the realm of the king of sports.

The results of the previous intercollegiate contests between these teams were: 1926 at Los Angeles, Notre Dame 13; Southern California 12; 1927 at Soldiers field, Chicago, Notre Dame 7; Southern California 6.

The probable lineup for today's game was:

Notre Dame	Pos.	Southern California
Colerick	L E	McCaslin
Twemey	L T	Hibbs (C)
Leke	L G	Stegenovich
Moynahan	C	Barragar
Lepple	R G	Galloway
Miller (C)	R T	Anthony
Veste	R E	Tappan
Brady	Q	Williams
Niemiec	L H	Apst
Chevigny	R H	Thomas
F. Collins	F	Saunders

Officials: Referee, Frank Birch, (Earhart); umpire, Ralph McCord, (Illinois); head linesman, Jay Wyatt, (Missouri); field judge, A. J. Badetnoch, (Chicago).

Stanford Vs. Army

By HERBERT V. BARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Army and Stanford, mighty gridiron giants of the east and west, clash at the Yankee stadium today for a parting salute to old king football, now slowly breathing his last.

The "house that Ruth built" accommodates 86,000 persons and there won't be any vacant spaces, barring stormy weather when the kick-off is made at 1:31 p. m. All seats have been sold out for weeks.

Non-partisan fans will be interested mainly in what sort of black magic Glenn S. (Pop) Warner has taught his Stanford boys this year. New York knows what Biff Jones' husky army candids can do. Now they'd like to see another demonstration of the Pacific coast brand of football. The glimpse they got on Thursday when Oregon State so thoroughly trounced New York University convinced all but the most skeptical that it is a very, very good brand indeed.

The probable lineups:

Army	Pos.	Stanford
Carlmark	L E	Preston
Sprague (C)	L T	Sellman
Hammack	L G	Post
Hall	C	Heinecke
