operative marketing associations and their stabilization corporations. The corporations would be empowered to buy and sell excess, thus removing surpluses from the market in times of plenty and selling it again when shortages occurred.

As Jardine Sees It. Discussing the bill, Secretary Jardine in his letter said: "The main objectives of this measure, in my opinion, are: 1.—To provide means of handling recurring surpluses in order to stabilize prices of farm products, and thereby to secure by orderly marketing the maximum returns for the crop as a whole."

2.—To enable the producer to get a greater share of the consumer's dollar by reducing the cost of marketing and by preventing speculation and waste in handling farm products, and 3.—To encourage producers to organize effective associations under their control for a better balanced production, more economical distribution and greater bargaining power in the market."

"I am firmly convinced that these objectives are essential to a sound program for permanent improvement in agriculture and that they are attainable with the aid of the plan proposed in this bill."

ROSE SAVES MOTORIST

He reported that five highway men had robbed him of $212 and all his clothing, over the Oceanville road. Fortunately for Rosebeerg, the robbers had overlooked the robe.

FINE BOXING CARD IS ARRANGED FOR FRIDAY, DEC. 28

Cal Herman and Frankie Burnell to Fight the 10-Round Headliner—Kelley Coming.

A boxing card that will allow fans to see some fast action, with popular fighters as the principals, has been arranged by Promoter Clyde Ward for Friday evening, December 28. Local fans have seen some fine cards during the fall and winter months, and Mr. Ward, in slating the coming bouts, has evidently arranged one of the best to be seen so far, at least so it would be judged from the line-up of material, as each man on the card, with the exception of some of the preliminary fighters, has been seen in the arena here before and his style of fighting is known.

The main event will be a 10-round engagement between Cal Hermann, Salt Lake City boxer-wrestler, and Frankie Burnell, Portland "buzz-saw." These fighters have never before been brought together in the same ring, although they have both been fighting in the same class with about equal results.

Hermann is well known and very popular in Roseburg. He has won several fights here by knockouts, and has served as referee in many fight programs. He has a fine record as a boxer, most of his battles being won by knockouts. He has been working in the Salt Lake district around his home, and is just returning to Oregon. He plans to be here Sunday to start working out.

Burnell, the Portland "buzz-saw," is one of the boxing sensations of the state. He has only been boxing for a year, but has had 11 bouts, resulting in 23 knockouts, 11 decisions, 3 draws and 4 lost.

The style of fighting is such that a good fight is assured. Hermann is a clever defensive fighter who carries a terrific wallop, awaiting his time to deliver a knockout, which he has done very frequently. He is not a sensational appearing fighter, but has maintained a fine record. Despite the fact that he is of the defensive type, he does not hesitate to mix and keeps a fight moving rapidly.

Burnell, on the other hand, is the tearing, slashing type of fighter so popular with ring fans, boring in from the first bell and tearing away with both hands, each of which carries a knockout punch.

The battle between these two boys should furnish fans with a real thrill. The semi-final will also give a local crowd a lot of pleasure. It is to be an eight-round bout between "Knockout" Brown of Roseburg and "Flash" Kelley of Portland. Brown has been staging a come-back recently and has given the fight followers some thrills. Kelley is a fast boxer, who will give Brown some tough moments.

As a special event Promoter Ward is rematching Battling Judd of Roseburg and Tiger Dunn of Riddle. These boys fought a 3-round battle at the last card, keeping the fans on their feet most of the time by their clever boxing. Dunn won a close decision after Judd had been practically knocked out on his feet by a blow that dislocated his neck. Judd finished the fight and challenged the victor for a return engagement before leaving the ring. Fans who saw that battle will want to see the boys in action again.

There will also be two or more good preliminaries.

The treasury to congress drew from the secretary a report today that Garner had employed "wrong figures which do not fit the facts."

"The treasury makes a statement and has the responsibility for it," Mr. Mellon said. "Mr. Garner makes a statement and has no responsibility."

Under Secretary Mills joined the discussion by declaring that there would be no deficit in government funds in 1929 "unless congress spends more money."

Water and Land Hunt. The hunt now develops upon boat and foot parties, already engaged in tedious search for footprints, in an effort to determine whether the venturesome couple escaped the treacherous rapids. Before returning to March field, Adams and Plummer swooped low over a boat party, headed by P. P. Papraw, Grand Canyon national official, and dropped a message informing the searchers of the discovery of the stranded scow and its whereabouts. Papraw's party was believed to have camped last night at the mouth of Shimmo creek. The party was not expected to reach Separation rapids before late today or tomorrow.

Another party, consisting of James P. Brooks, chief ranger of the Grand Canyon national park, R. C. Hyde, father of Glenn and Emory and Alexander Kohl, brothers who share the distinction of being the first to negotiate the Colorado river by boat, will cooperate with Papraw's party.

RUTH MCCONNELL, PURSUED BY M. D., NATIVE OF SALEM

Former Oregon Girl Said too Sick to Travel and Now Willing to Go Back to Folks.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 21.—According to meager information available here today, Ruth McConnell, the object of a trans-continental pursuit by a Rochester, N. Y., physician, and whose arrival in San Francisco has not solved the mystery of the pursuit, is the daughter of Henry McConnell who was a court reporter in Salem in 1901 and 1902.

McConnell was a stenographer to Judges F. A. Moore and Robert Dean of the Oregon supreme court. Later he went to Portland and practiced law. He was a partner of Clarence Gilbert who was recently appointed judge of the court of domestic relations in Multnomah county.

The McConnells were divorced and both remarried. McConnell's second wife is a sister of Will H. King.

Ruth McConnell was the first child born in Willamette sanitation on South Winter street. She was born in the spring of 1902. Her mother was Ruby Crawford, daughter of Professor Crawford, a prominent O. A. C. faculty member. The McConnells left Salem when Ruth was four. She was later a boarding school pupil at Mt. Angel Academy.

Girl Declared Ill. Dr. David O. Meeker, pursuing Miss Ruth McConnell, arrived at Oakland airport today in a mail plane from Reno. He went to an unannounced destination. Miss McConnell, who arrived in San Francisco yesterday, checked out of her hotel yesterday afternoon and was still in seclusion today.

The young woman said she came to the Pacific coast to avoid physicians and relatives who were "too solicitous" for her. Dr. Meeker said he followed her at the request of Kenneth B. Coulter, invalid friend of the girl's family, who wanted to look after her welfare.

Dr. Meeker told reporters that Miss McConnell was his patient and that he intended to look after her. He said he had been commissioned to return Miss McConnell to her family because she was too ill to be traveling about the country alone.

COLORADO CANYON YIELDS NO TRACE OF LOST COUPLE

Airplanes Abandon Search for Honeymooners but Other Parties Are Still at Work.

GRAND CANYON, Ariz., Dec. 21.—The sullen Colorado guards its secrets closely. A three-day airplane search along 247 miles of the great Grand Canyon gorge served only partly to lift the veil which the swirling, silt-laden waters cast over the fate of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hyde, Hansen, Ida, honeymooners, who challenged the dangerous currents in a homemade scow.

Lieutenants John Quincy Adams and W. G. Plummer, army air pilots from March field, Riverside, Calif., government field, late yesterday gave up the hunt for the missing couple and returned to their post. The army airmen located the scow, stranded at the water's edge at Separation Rapids, 13 miles below Diamond creek. Flying as far below the towering canyon walls as they dared, the airmen found no further trace of Mr. and Mrs. Hyde. Suitcases and supplies they saw, apparently intact in the scow.

The hunt now develops upon boat and foot parties, already engaged in tedious search for footprints, in an effort to determine whether the venturesome couple escaped the treacherous rapids. Before returning to March field, Adams and Plummer swooped low over a boat party, headed by P. P. Papraw, Grand Canyon national official, and dropped a message informing the searchers of the discovery of the stranded scow and its whereabouts.
