SEVERE WINTER
ABROAD BRINGS
GRIPPE AND FLU

were absent from work.
Death Rate Low
Motor ambulances were so overworked that they were able to transport only the worst cases. It was thought that it might be necessary to use schools and other public buildings for temporary hospitals unless the epidemic abated soon. The city health department said, however, that the death rate had been comparatively low and professed not to be alarmed.
After ten days of severe frost there has been a serious outbreak of influenza in Glasgow, Scotland. Thousands have been taken ill and these included many public service workers.
Zagreb, Jugoslavia, reported many influenza victims and it was stated that the epidemic was widespread in the western part of that country.
Bessarabia has been visited by a violent snowstorm which resulted in untold hardships among the peasants. Two peasants were found frozen to death in a field.
Snow today covered most of England. Tramway, postal and police service was seriously affected.
Blizzards in Midwest
CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—The mid-west tonight will encounter the second spell of severe cold of the year, the weather bureau promised today.
Zero by nightfall in the Chicago forecast district and five below by tomorrow morning, was the prophecy. Heralds of snow fell during the night. But clear skies were to add to the crispness by the time the cold sets in.
The zero wave is coming from the northwest states and the Canadian plains, where temperature readings were well under zero last night.
Blizzards in North Dakota and Minnesota early today had piled up drifts that blocked highways and delayed buses and trains in some sections. Grand Forks, N. D., reported a 30-mile wind which piled up drifts that blocked virtually all roads in that vicinity.
Fronkish weather was reported at Bismarck, N. D. It rained there at noon, with the temperatures 28 above; three hours later there was a blizzard with 14 above, and at night a 30-mile wind sent the thermometer down to 10 below zero.
A very complete line of garden seeds in packages or bulk is carried in stock at Wharton Bros.

WHALEN SAID HE MEANT NUDE, NOT SCANTILY CLAD

(Associated Press Special Wire)
NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Police Commissioner Whalen made plain today that when he issued his edict against entertainment featuring nude women he meant just that—and not "scantily clad."
The commissioner's pronouncement generally had been taken as against the revues put on by the higher class night clubs in which girls in a state of semi-nudeness, more or less, take part.
This, however, the commissioner said was not what he meant. The undressed shows he plans to raid, he said, were those put on at "stag" entertainments.
"I object to the moral aspect of nudity," he declared.
The commissioner also revealed that a police survey had been made two weeks ago of the so-called higher class clubs and while nothing of a startling nature was uncovered the survey he said has resulted in improved conditions.
"Whether a person is scantily garbed," he said, "is a matter of opinion." Asked for his own opinion, he replied, "I haven't any."
