TAX REVISION MEASURES TO APPEAR FIRST (Continued from page 1)
PORTLAND, Jan. 14.—Congregations of thirty-seven Portland churches yesterday signed a memorial declaring against any material increase in the United States navy.
Nine pastors neglected to present the memorial to their congregations. Two other ministers, because of personal convictions, declined to propose the matter.
Tax Bills First
Just prior to or immediately after the afternoon session, when the lawmakers will receive the message of Governor Patterson, Senator Norblad and Representative Hamilton, president of the senate and speaker of the house, respectively, are expected to announce the appointment of other officers and reveal the personnel of their committees. The session will then be prepared to swing into action.
With the exception of the bills to be reported in carrying out the recommendation of the Carlin tax investigating committee, all of which have been prepared and are being scanned for minor revisions necessary, none of the measures dealing with the principal subjects of legislation have yet been prepared. The tentative program of procedure calls for the introduction of the tax bills during the first week.
Committee Enlarged
SALEM, Ore., Jan. 14.—The joint ways and means committee of the Oregon legislature at this session will have 18 members instead of 16 as heretofore. This comes about by an increase in the personnel of the senate committee from seven to nine, approved by the senate caucus last night at the suggestion of Senator W. A. Norblad, who presided over the caucus for the reason that his election as senate president was assured.
Norblad's reason for asking the change was that the membership of the joint committee should be evenly divided between the two houses so that committee voting on appropriation bills would be an equitable basis.
Another important change in the senate rules governing committees, approved by the caucus, is the consolidation of the committee on enrolled bills and the committee on engrossed bills. Instead of two committees of three members each there will be one committee of five members.

HOOPER EXPECTED TO SUMMON EXTRA SESSION IN SPRING
Associated Press Local Wire
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President-elect Hoover, as a result of his conferences with republican congressional leaders, is expected to call an extra session of the seventy-first congress in the early spring.
Such a session is considered to be inevitable irrespective of whether or farm relief legislation is enacted before March 4 because a revision of a number of tariff schedules, industrial as well as agricultural, are to be made.
It is the desire of those who will be leaders in the next administration to get this out of the way as speedily as possible so that there will be the least disturbance in the industrial and agricultural world.
Farm Aid Via Tariff
As the situation is now outlined, tariff revision would be taken up concurrently with farm legislation and would be auxiliary to it since it is the purpose to afford a measure of protection to agriculture comparable with that given other industries under existing or revised law.
It is explained that no general tariff legislation is contemplated, but merely a revision of a number of existing schedules in the form of an amendment to the Fordney-McCumber act.
Democrats in both the house and senate already have given notice of their intention to fight for a general revision of the tariff law. While the republicans in the house will have the votes to forestall such action to that body, the democrats at the other end of the capital at least could delay a final vote on the administration measure and possibly string out the extra session beyond the present estimate.

WILBUR MAY QUIT CABINET JOB FOR U. S. JUDGESHIP
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—In the political gossip attendant upon Herbert Hoover's presence in Washington it has been suggested that the navy secretary will be given a federal judgeship appointment, probably in California, something which friends of Mr. Wilbur say he has desired for a long time.
Appointment of Louis B. Cates, manager of the Utah Consolidated Copper company, as secretary of the interior was urged upon Mr. Hoover today by Senator Oddie. Mr. Cates is well known to Mr. Hoover but the president-elect gave no indication as to how he had received the Nevada senator's suggestion.
Senator Oddie said Cates was regarded as one of the greatest constructive mining engineers in the world and that because of his ability he had been selected for a number of large engineering projects.
"Whatever the office of secretary of the interior needs," Oddie said, "is a real fighting man and one of tremendous constructive ability. I know this because of my knowledge of the work that must be done."
In the selection of Mr. Cates there would be the case of draft of course in receiving a salary now of course receiving a salary 75 to 100 times greater than the one he would receive as interior secretary."

Creomulsion contains, in addition to croscote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the croscote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.
Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion may help you avoid flu, but is not sold as a flu remedy.
