

Cold Sores, Chicken Pox and Shingles Are Related

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEN
Editor Journal of the American Medical Association and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

The skin responds to the infection by an eruption of water blisters an inch or so wide resting on a swollen skin. The physician diagnoses the condition because the blisters are limited in their distribution to the area of skin served by a single nerve. Thus it is that the disease usually occurs only on one side of the body and not on both sides.

People with herpes zoster or shingles complain most of the burning pain in the area involved, and it is not infrequent for neuralgia to be associated with the skin eruption.

AMATEUR BOXING TITLES DECIDED IN FRISCO BOUTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Black eyes and split lips forgotten, eight proud boys returned to their homes along the Pacific coast today to be acclaimed champions by virtue of their victories in the finals of the far western amateur boxing championships held here last night.

State has been districted so that five counties are in each of three divisions. Each day in the four-day week will be devoted to a single enterprise, such as dairy days, crops day, horticulture, livestock and poultry.

COULD NOT SLEEP NIGHTS

Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Fairhaven, Mass.—"I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during the Change of Life. When I feel nervous and run down, my husband gets me a bottle right away. It is a great help to me and I think that if other people would only take it all run-down and take it as the directions say, they would find it a great benefit. My worst symptoms were nervousness and tired feelings. I could not sleep nights and I was so nervous I would cry if anyone looked at me."

FUN GALORE, FRIDAY EVE

Those famous readings by Rev. Baird, assisted by Mrs. Radabaugh. You'll enjoy both of these readers and impersonators. Come out and have an evening of fun at the Christian church. Admission: Adults 35c; grade school children, 15c. Benefit of the building fund.

HOME POINTERS

(From School of Home Economics) The whitest stain left on a mahogany table by hot water on a very hot dish may be removed by rubbing in oil and afterward pouring a little alcohol on the spot and rubbing it dry with a cloth.

Silk stockings are best washed in water which is only warm, not hot. A soap solution is better for them than rubbing the soap on. It is wise to squeeze them out; not wring them.

A woman's clothing allowance will go farther if she adopts a color scheme limited to those colors which are becoming and which harmonize with the rest of her clothes.

If the clothes basket is lined with oil cloth the clothes will not become stained.

A simple and effective method of stretching curtains when laundering them is to measure the curtains before wetting them and then mark off the length on the clothes lines. When laundered, double the curtains, stretch the edges to fit the space, and fasten securely to the line.

A tablespoon of turpentine boiled with white clothes will aid in the whitening process.

Kerosene will soften beads and shoes that have been hardened by water and render them pliable.

FORECAST—DRY

LONDON.—Of its own accord, England is going dry. At least, if the consumption of spirits declines in the future as it has in the past 28 years. In 1908, the consumption of spirits in England was 32,229,572 gallons. Last year's figure is but 10,412,921. Other causes of restriction, such as the mores, radio, etc., are given as the reason for the decrease.
