

Out in Society

(Continued from page 2)

on Monday evening, there being 17 tables of both bridge and five hundred.

The hall made a pretty setting with decorations of ferns and Valentine favors.

During the evening at intervals Miss Helen Casey contributed to the program with a group of songs, accompanied by Miss Martin Ness.

Mrs. J. C. Hume and C. C. Fritze won first bridge prizes; Mrs. Wm. Bell and J. H. Clark, second bridge prizes; Mrs. John and Louis Laugenberg, first prizes at five hundred; Mrs. Ed Patterson and Ed Howell, second prizes.

Assisting at the refreshment hour were Miss Martin Ness, Miss Marie Lannenberg, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. Loren Miller, Mrs. J. G. Koenig, Mrs. T. H. Ness was general chairman.

Reception Given for Sophomore Girls on Tuesday

The Girls' Club of Senior high school entertained with a reception for the mid-term sophomores girls. As a colorful setting the gymnasium was transformed with valentine decorations. Games were played and refreshments were served with a group of the girls in charge.

About 80 were in attendance.

Bridge Club Plays at McClintock Home

Mrs. J. L. McClintock provided pleasure for the members of her card club on Wednesday evening, asking them to her home for bridge.

Luncheon was served by the hostess at the end of play to Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Guy Gordon, who were additional guests, and Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mrs. Maurice Newland, Mrs. Chas. S. McElhinny, Mrs. Carl Wimberty and Miss Evelyn Quine.

C. E. Group Has Enjoyable Evening at Valentine Party

On the evening of February 8 the members of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Society assembled to enjoy a party carried out to honor St. Valentine, the affair being held at the church parlors.

Games were followed by a supper, served at long tables, which were made colorful with red decorations of hearts.

Dance and Card Party Is Invitation Affair

Among the anticipated events for the coming week is the dancing and card party to be given by the Neighbors of Woodcraft on February 18 at the Knights of Pythias hall.

The affair is to be for members and invited guests only. For those who wish to play cards tables are being arranged in one part of the hall.

Paul Beaver and Thos. Fletcher are in charge of the entertainment and Mrs. O. L. Johnson has charge of refreshments.

Two Maids Hostesses to Job's Daughters

The Misses Jean Whitney and Lucille Germond were hostesses to a group of the younger girls who are members of Bethel Number 8 of Roseburg Job's Daughters on Thursday evening at a Valentine party.

The guests were invited to the L. T. Whitney home for the evening. Sewing, music and a brief meeting of the hotel preceded a supper.

Mrs. M. B. Germond and Mrs. Whitney assisted at the tables.

Aid Society at Glide Sponsors Social

A pie social was sponsored at the Glide Baptist church on the evening of February 8 by members of the aid society of the church.

A pleasant program filled the hours and later the pies were sold, the proceeds to be used by the aid to finance the bell fund. The social was well attended.

P. T. A. Meets for Program and Plans Carnival

The P. T. A. of Senior high school, met in regular session on Tuesday eve, with a good crowd in attendance. Reports were given by members of the lawn and shrubbery committee, and the work of completing the project will begin in a short time.

On March 12 the association will sponsor a "Pumpkin Center Carnival" to which the parents of Senior high school pupils, members of the student body and the public will be invited. This will be a whole evening of enjoyment, a good program and many attractions, usually found at carnivals.

Following the business session the following program was given: An address on "Americanization and Citizenship," by J. Flurry. This was a splendid number and many good thoughts were expressed on this subject, which should be remembered. Miss Margaret Fields gave a piano solo, and as a closing number Dr. Payne gave an illustrated lecture on toxin, antitoxin and prevention of diphtheria, which was very instructive.

The program was prepared by the following committee: Mrs. H. R. Nerbas, Mrs. H. Hess and Mrs. O. Walker.

J. Truman Runyan entertained a group of friends at the grill dance at the Lee-Duke cafe Thursday evening.

Guests were: Misses Estelle Johnson, Helen Hutchison, Maxine K. Moore, and Audrey Forrester; and Raymond L. Bell, Robert C. Gile, Ronald Gemmell, and the host, Eugene Guard.

Health Board and Principals Discuss Honor Record System

A meeting of the Douglas county health board was held Monday night at the court house, the board discussing the new honor record system for schools.

Principals of all the city schools were invited to attend and take part in the discussion. Mrs. J. E. Runyan, new president of the board, presided.

Arrangements were made to have two delegates sent to the meeting of the State Tuberculosis association in Salem at the end of the month.

Church Organization Holds Informal Meet

The Missionary Society of the Christian church held an informal meeting at the social rooms of the church Friday to discuss business, adopt the new constitution and enjoy a program.

The entertainment was preceded by devotionals, led by Mrs. A. A. Sprague, and included a paper on "What Happened at Buffalo," by Mrs. H. B. Church, musical number by Mrs. R. D. Kleier, Mrs. C. D. Corbett and Mrs. M. P. Taylor, paper on "Casting Bread into a Box Car," by Mrs. Zanna Keller, missionary talk by Rev. W. R. Baird.

Mrs. Partin Honored on 72nd Anniversary

A surprise party was given on Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Partin of West Roseburg, February 14 being her 72nd birthday anniversary and her granddaughter, Mrs. Everett Partin entertaining in her honor by inviting a few friends for the occasion. Luncheon was served at 5 o'clock.

The list included the honoree, Mrs. Ciley, Mrs. Guyrup, Mrs. Will Partin and daughter, Mrs. Gortey, Mrs. Hugginbotham, and the hostess and daughter, June.

Miss Clough Entertains Group at Dinner

Miss Bess Clough entertained at her home at Canyonville last Saturday at dinner.

The invited list included Mrs. M. B. Gazley, Mrs. F. E. Klingenberg of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Huron Clough, Clyde Gazley and W. Earl Klingberg of New York City.

Weekly Lecture Series Well Attended

The weekly lecture and study on child care, given as one of a series of such meetings by the Roseburg Chapter of the A. A. U. W. and the Douglas County Health Unit, was very well attended Friday at the Methodist Episcopal Church South, a number of mothers attend the session.

Several good talks on the relation of art, literature, conversation and other matters in the home were given by women of the chapter. The health unit gave a demonstration on child care.

The Roseburg W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting in the Woman's Club building on Wednesday afternoon of the coming week at 2 o'clock. A program will be given in commemoration of Frances Willard.

The address of the afternoon will be made by Rev. J. B. Penhall of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Mrs. Geo. Bradburn and Mrs. L. B. Skinner Are Hostesses at Pretty Affair

Mrs. Geo. A. Bradburn and Mrs. L. B. Skinner were hostesses at one of the loveliest of the season's affairs Friday afternoon, entertaining at a luncheon, which is one of a series of parties, at the Bradburn home, Merline Place, and bidding 20 guests for the afternoon. Yellow was the decorative plan and colorful daffodils transformed the room into a springlike setting. Mrs. Fred Reaner, Mrs. M. B. Green and Mrs. Geo. Johnson assisted in the rooms.

Mrs. Harrie Booth Is Hostess at Party for Bride-Elect

On Friday evening Mrs. Harrie W. Booth entertained at one of the season's charming affairs at her home in Laurelwood, the party honoring Miss Evelyn Quint, who is a popular bride-elect.

Guests for three tables of bridge were invited. Attractive Valentine appointments gave a note of red color to the rooms and at the end of play the hostess served luncheon at one large table holding a graceful centerpiece of red carnations, each flower having little red satin streamers with hearts attached. Red tapers were burning in candelabra.

Honors for the evening were held by Mrs. Fred Lockwood and second prize went to Miss Fern Boyers. Miss Quine received the guest prize.

Mrs. Sutherland Bids Entre Nous Club to Home

For this week's meeting of the Entre Nous Bridge Club the matrons were invited guests of Mrs. A. G. Sutherland at her home at 405 East Lane street.

Confections were served at the tables during play. Additional guests were Mrs. Mary Harding, Mrs. A. J. Hochradel, Mrs. Arthur Baum and Mrs. Albert Bottleson.

Large Party at Soldiers Home Administration Building Friday

A distinctive affair of the season and one of the most successful benefits of the past several weeks was the card party at which the Auxiliary to the United Spanish War Veterans and Umpqua Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary entertained about 150 Roseburg folk at the Soldiers Home administration building last evening.

Festive greens and potted plants and floor lamps added a cheerfulness to the rooms where there were 30 tables of five hundred and bridge in play.

Mrs. R. Kitzman, representing the Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. E. A. Post, of the other auxiliary, were general chairmen.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Several of the members of both organizations assisted.

A large sum was realized at the benefit to be used to purchase books for the library at the home.

San Franciscans Being Entertained Here

Mr. and Mrs. Roland C. Mitchell of San Francisco have been visitors here this week as guests of Mrs. Mitchell's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson, in Laurelwood and have been entertained at several attractive affairs. They will leave sometime next week for the northern part of the state and take the boat from Portland for home.

Last Sunday Mrs. J. C. Northcraft and daughter, Mrs. Eula J. Morgan, mother and sister of Mrs.

Mitchell, entertained at a dinner at Melrose for Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Northercraft were hosts at a dinner party at their home on East Lane street for the visitors.

Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will entertain for the San Franciscans at a one o'clock dinner.

Umpqua Unit Will Hold Brief Session Before Legion Show

On Tuesday night of next week the regular meeting of the Umpqua Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary is to be held in the club rooms of the armory at 7 o'clock, only a brief session being held preceding the Legion show on that night.

Reports on the card party held Friday and discussion on the auxiliary's fashion show for next month will be held.

Woman's Club to Entertain D. A. R.

On Tuesday afternoon of the coming week Roseburg Woman's Club will hold its fortnightly meeting, and on that day entertain the Umpqua Chapter of the D. A. R.

Mrs. L. E. Goodbourn has charge of program arrangements for the afternoon and Dr. Chas. Edwards will speak on the Kellogg-Briand anti-war pact.

A social hour will follow and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Herbert Ogden was hostess for an attractive club party at her home Tuesday afternoon when she had as guests the members of the Hylo Bridge Club. In two weeks Mrs. Victor M. Petterson is to entertain the group—Eugene Guard.

On Tuesday afternoon the matrons of the Northside Sunshine Club were asked to the home of Mrs. R. E. Harness for sewing and luncheon. Mrs. George Marsters was guest of honor at the affair and received many lovely gifts.

The tables were centered with crimson carnations and covers were laid for the Mesdames Geo. Marsters, E. P. Ballou, N. P. Fisher, Fred Bowen, Ed Marsters, S. Durland, L. L. Marsters, Elsie McComas, B. S. Nichols, Virgil Bush, Robert Chilson, Wm. Stark, Wm. Fisher and two added guests Mrs. Marjorie Jett and Mrs. N. C. Johnson.

NEWS BRIEFS

(Associated Press Local Wire)

ZAGREB Juzualavia, Feb. 15.—Forty ruysses were drowned today in the Drave river, near Tolovetz, when they attempted to cross the ice in heavily laden caravans.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Full approval of railroad plans to consolidate the entire express business of the country in the hands of a single corporation, the Railway Express Agency, Inc., was given today by the Interstate commerce commission.

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Feb. 15.—Ruth Roland, former star of movie thrillers, and Ben Hard, film actor, were married at a brilliant ceremony here last night. The bride has made a fortune in real estate since leaving the films.

SIDE GLANCES—By George Clark

"Yesir, by the time I get home and through supper I'm just too tired to help the wife clean out the pots and pans."

ETHEL

MOVIES

"Give and Take" New Comedy at the Liberty Theater Sunday
Geo. Sidney and Jean Hersholt Co-Starred

Scene from "GIVE AND TAKE" A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

Geo. Bancroft in "The Wolf of Wall Street" at Antlers Sunday, Monday

George Bancroft and Baclanova in "The Wolf of Wall Street" A Paramount Picture

With a laugh for trouble and a curse for a wailing George Bancroft drives his way through his role in "The Wolf of Wall Street," his new starring picture for Paramount, which offers him his first "dressed up" opportunity since he became a star.

In "Underworld" the picture that brought him to the top ranking of cinema players, Bancroft played the gang leader Bull Weed, terror of society and its guardian, the law. It was a role that he played with shirt opened at the

TO OPEN NEW OFFICE

The Southern Oregon Gas company is opening a new office at Grants Pass tonight and is celebrating the occasion by a banquet and employees' conference. M. R. Brown and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kutz, and Mrs. Agnes Hawn, of the local office, will leave this evening to enjoy the festivities.

CLASSES COMPLETED

The Red Cross classes in nursing, child care and parental training, conducted for several months by Miss Helen M. Atwood, county health nurse, at Glendale, have been completed, and in expression of their appreciation the ladies who made up the class have presented Miss Atwood with a beautiful fountain pen desk set.

The classes were exceptionally well attended and were very interesting and instructive. The final meeting featured an address by Prof. Williams, head of food nutrition at the state college and a short play by the members of the infant hygiene class.

Regular meeting of the Junior High P. T. A. will be held in the school building Tuesday evening, Feb. 19th.

Marriage License issued—A marriage license has been issued to Elmer A. Sanders and Beatrice Arline Wright, both of this city.

STARTS
SUNDAY
TWO DAYS

WATCH OUT WOLF! You know how to handle men but you're not so clever with women.

GEO. BANCROFT
IN

"The Wolf of Wall Street"
WITH
Nancy Carroll—Baclanova

SMASHING! Tearing! Ruthlessly crashing to wealth and power. The great money mart! Wall Street lived by the men who battle there. Women loved and lost by the czars of finance.

Also Good Short Features
Admission Mats. 10c-25c Evee. 10c-35c

TODAY. ONE DAY ONLY

When a Couple of Yank War Buddies Do a Rampage in Paree

You're Going to Laugh Till It Hurts

Sammy Cohen
in Plastered in Paris
ALSO OUR GANG COMEDY
ANTLERS

STARTS
SUNDAY LIBERTY

IT IS GUARANTEED to bring you the loudest and longest laugh of your life.

Geo. Sidney and Jean Hersholt
in
'Give and Take'

—You'll laugh with them in their comic situations as you never have before.
YOUTH AND IDEALS
VS.
AGE AND CUSTOM

ADMISSION Mats. 10c-25c Evee. 10c-35c

TODAY Rex Bell in "Taking a Chance" Last Chapter of TARZAN