

ALL IN READINESS FOR FIGHT CARD AT ARMORY TONIGHT

Everything is in readiness for tonight's boxing card, which is to be staged at the Roseburg armory arena at 8:30 o'clock. All of the fighters have announced that they will be present for tonight's bouts, so that no substitutions will be necessary.

Joe Blackwell, Eugene middleweight, who is fighting Olympia Kid Johnson, of Olympia, Washington, is expected to put up the most desperate fight of his career to date. Herbert Owen, Eugene matchmaker, who has been using Blackwell regularly as a main event fighter in Eugene, has informed the Lane county box that unless he tops Johnson tonight he is through as a fighter at Eugene, according to Owen's statement given to Promoter Clyde Ward over the telephone this morning.

Mr. Owen is coming down with a group of Eugene fans to attend tonight's card, and has reported to Mr. Ward that there is a great deal of interest among Eugene fight followers in this program. Johnson recently defeated Blackwell in a ground bout in Portland, but it was Blackwell's first appearance before a city crowd and he naturally was nervous and unable to do his best. He contends, however, that he can beat Johnson over a 10-round period. The winner of tonight's main event will meet George Dixon here on the first card in March, so that both fighters are prepared to extend themselves to the limit.

The heavyweight semi-final will be a ground affair between Young Jess Willard of Lihlly, Montana and Jack Peterson, rugged Astoria bantam. Fans are greatly interested in this battle and expect it to be one of the best of the season.

Preliminaries include three four-round fights. Austin Pendergrass, of Roseburg, against Young Palmer of Eugene; Battling Judd of Roseburg against Jimmie Lee of Eugene and Wildcat Morris against Young Franco, both of Roseburg.

FREE, FREE!
With every purchase of one dollar or more will give free one Japanese Iris or one large package of giant flowered Zinnia seed. Schmidt's, Cash Junction.

SURPLUS ELK WILL BE GIVEN AWAY BY GOVERNMENT

Surplus elk from the national bison range are being offered by the biological survey of the United States department of agriculture to anyone who will remove them without cost to the government. The national bison range is in western Montana near the towns of Melrose and Dixon. Because the elk there have been increased beyond the carrying capacity of the range, it is necessary further to reduce their numbers, even though some of the surplus animals have already been disposed of by sale. The national bison range is administered primarily for the maintenance of a fair-size herd of buffalo, the original stock of which was supplied by the American Bison society. It is the desire of the biological survey to make immediate reduction in the numbers of the elk so as to avoid feeding them during the late winter and early spring, which would otherwise be necessary, as well as to preserve as much forage as possible for the buffalo. The elk at this time are mainly valuable for exhibition purposes at zoos and for stocking game parks and farms. It is now too late in the season for the elk meat to be good.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our friends for their kindness and help during the sickness and death of our loved one. Especially we wish to thank Rev. Baird for the kindly words of comfort that helped us through this trying time.

Floyd McMichael,
John McMichael,
Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wickham,
Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Walter,
and family,
Mrs. Maggie Perry,
and family,
Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Webber,
and family.

PARTY DRESSES $1.00
Also children's dresses 50c to 1.00 year sizes. Good materials, well made, and cute. See the new line at Carr's—where you save.

OBITUARY

Henry Bruce McMichael was born in Lebanon, Oregon, June 19, 1871. He passed away in Roseburg February 21, 1929, at the age of 57 years. He leaves to mourn his loss two sons, John, of Rainier, Wash., and Floyd, of Drain, Oregon; also six sisters and four brothers.

Services were held February 23 at the parlors of the Roseburg Undertaking Co. with interment in the L. O. F. cemetery.

Watkins' Products 129 W. Lane.

THIEF ROBS WOMAN AT JEWELRY AND FURS

(Associated Press Local Wire)
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Laura Pries had not worn her jewels this winter, fearing theft. Yesterday she decided to take a chance, and she was robbed.

She had stopped to consult her modiste when a man with a pistol snatched the two strands of pearls from her wrist and three diamond rings from her finger, yanked the milk coat from her back and drove away.

Her husband said the gems and coat could not be duplicated for less than $18,350.

Arundel, piano tuner. Phone 189-L.

BEAUTY QUEST COSTS LEG AND $8,000 IN DAMAGES

PARIS, Feb. 26.—Mlle. Suzanne Godfrey, who underwent an operation in an effort to have her thick legs beautified, has been awarded $8,000 damages against a surgeon, Pélou, necessitated by the amputation of one limb. The court held that since the operation was not recommended by health the patient should have been warned of the dangers.

EVERYBODY GETS A DEMONSTRATION

Speaking of challenger week, Mr. Catering, of the Roy Catering Co., Roseburg distributor for Kansas and Essex, said this morning that during this definite time the entire American public will be shown the superiority of Essex the challenger, and that Monday, March 4, the most significant demonstration ever staged will start. The demonstration period, starting March 4th, is a propitious time, because it is sure to put even greater impetus and selling volume into the season that inaugurates the active spring business. The result of challenge week activities will be an immediate quickening of the pulse of business, a prompt increase in sales, and a cumulative public interest that will last throughout the year.

Every dealer, regardless of weather or climate obtaining in his territory, will carry on demonstrations. These will differ in character, but they will begin March 4th, when similar activities are going on in every state, county, city, town, village and crossroads where a Hudson franchise is held.

If the weather should be unfavorable to motoring, it snow, ice or mud should cover the roads—these circumstances will only add to the force and meaning of the demonstrations.

During challenger week, we will not merely invite the notice of chosen prospects, but we will literally force everybody to pay heed, to view the demonstrations or hear and read about them. We shall not just ask folks to come and see, but we will take the demonstration to them—into the streets, on the hills, in a variety of trials, tests and competitions that are bound to create comment and certain to attract attention.

FUNERAL MR. APPEGATE HELD YESTERDAY

Oscar Applegate passed away in Salem on February 23, 1929, at the age of 65 years. He was born at the home of James Miller in Yoncalla on September 21, 1863, and at the time of his death was 65 years, five months and two days. He was married to Mrs. Mattie Turner February 18, 1894, who survives him. Also one son, Hiram Turner, of Toledo, Ore., and two brothers, Aaron P. Applegate and Ira Applegate, and three sisters, Mrs. Anna McKirdy, Mrs. Catherine Francis and Mrs. Edna Craibhead, all of Drain. He was a member of the Christian church and of a kind and loving disposition and will be missed by his many friends. Services were held in the Applegate cemetery near Drain, yesterday at 11 a. m. Rev. T. M. White of the Christian church, officiating. Funeral arrangements were in charge of H. C. Stearns of the Douglas Funeral Home.

FAMOUS NEW YORK CLUB CHANGES HEADQUARTERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—One of New York's most famous clubs—the Union League—is to abandon its site at Fifth Avenue and 29th

"WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD"

Verdict of Woman Who Tried Pinkham's Compound

Tully, N. Y.—"It hurt me to walk or sit down without help and I felt sick and weak."

My mother-in-law took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she induced me to take it. I am now on the fourth bottle and have also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. The medicines that will do for me what the Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done are certainly worth their weight in gold. I think I have given them a fair trial and I expect to take two more bottles of the Vegetable Compound. —Mrs. CHARLES MOSEMAN, R. F. D. 1, Tully, N. Y.

street, which it has occupied since 1881.

The club, at a special meeting last night, voted by 207 to 99, to dispose of the present property and to buy a new site at Park avenue and 57th street, where a ten-story building will be erected at a cost of $3,000,000.

The Union League club, which was organized in 1863, has a distinguished membership of 1,800. A number of former presidents of the United States were honorary members.

WOMAN FIGURE IN McPHERSON TRIAL

ACCUSER OF HARDY
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—The Examiner said today that the board of managers which is to prosecute the impeachment case of Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy of Los Angeles will receive tomorrow a notebook from Mrs. Lorraine Wiggins-Sheaff, purporting to show that the jury was directly connected with attempts to clear Almeda Sample McPherson, evangelist, of the accusation that she was with Kenneth G. Orniston, Angeleno temple radio operator at Carnel, Cal., in 1926.

Assemblyman M. I. Cronin, a member of the legislative police board, spent yesterday in Oakland in search of evidence against Hardy in the forthcoming trial before the bar of the senate.

Mrs. Sheaff, whose home is in Oakland, married in the McPherson case investigation when she announced that it was she and not Mrs. McPherson who was with Orniston at Carnel. Later Mrs. Sheaff repudiated the statement and declared that her twin sister, Mrs. Virgil Kimball, was the "Miss X" of the McPherson case.

The Examiner says that Mrs. Sheaff's notebook tells of her alleged visits to the home of Judge Hardy in Los Angeles about August 1, 1926, when the evangelist's kidnapping story was being investigated by the district attorney's office there and that the alleged meetings in the judge's home had been arranged by Mrs. McPherson.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT

U. S. Weather Bureau Office, Roseburg, Oregon. Data reported by E. H. Fletcher, Meteorologist in charge.
Barometric pressure reduced to sea level 30.05
Relative humidity 5 p. m. yesterday 55
Highest temperature yesterday 49
Lowest temperature last night 42
Average temperature for the day 45
Normal temperature for this date 45
Precip. in inches and Hundredths: Precipitation for 24 hours, 0.01
Total precip. since last month 1.11
Normal precip. for this month 4.49
Total precip. from Sept. 1, 1928, to date 14.40
Normal precip. from Sept. 1, 1928, to date 22.55
Total deficiency since Sept. 1, 1928, 8.15
Normal seasonal precip. Sept. to May, inclusive 21.16
Forecast for interior southwest Oregon: Fair tonight and Thursday; moderate temperature.

OREGON IS HIGH UP IN CONTEST FOR TROPHY OF LEGION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 27.—An intensive effort in membership activity of all departments of The American Legion has been noted at the national headquarters of the Legion here as the time draws near for the close of the contest for the Henry D. Lindale national membership trophy. This trophy is awarded each year to the department obtaining the highest percentage of membership over its preceding year's membership by March 1. Competition for this trophy is always keen and the final result is usually in doubt until the last minute cards have been counted.

Wyoming is leading all other states in Legion membership percentage and apparently has an excellent chance to win the Lindale trophy. The other leaders have changed frequently in the last few weeks. The Wisconsin department which won the trophy last year was in second place but dropped to fifth place in the report of February 15. Mississippi has climbed from ninth position to second place while the department of Michigan has advanced from seventh to third place. Indiana is in fourth place and the department of Oregon is sixth.

Connecticut is in seventh place, Pennsylvania eighth, Virgil a ninth, Kansas tenth and Idaho eleventh. On February 15 all of these departments had attained from 60 to 67 per cent of their 1929 quota while the department of Wyoming had approximately 75 per cent of its quota. In addition to leading the Legion membership, Wyoming is also first in the Kentucky derby membership race which is being conducted in cooperation with the American Legion Auxiliary departments. In this race the percentage of the membership quota attained by the Legion and Auxiliary is averaged to give the standing of the various departments.

This competition in this race is also close. Michigan is running close behind Wyoming in second place. The department of Minnesota, which is in thirteenth place in Legion membership competition, of the Minnesota Auxiliary, which has attained 78 per cent of its 1929 quota. Mississippi is in fourth place in the derby. Connecticut fifth, Iowa sixth and Vermont seventh. The District of Columbia which has been making rapid gains in membership is in eighth place, Oregon tenth and Virginia eleventh.

Much interest is being shown in the Kentucky derby membership contest which was undertaken this year because of the fact that the national convention of the Legion will be held in Louisville where the historic derby is run each year. The various departments of the Legion and Auxiliary have been assigned the names of horses that have won the derby. The contest will close May 15, the date of the next Kentucky derby. Prizes totalling $450 have been posted for the winners.

INDIAN HEIRESS' SUIT FOR DIVORCE ENDS IN FAILURE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 26.—Maudie Lee Mudd, Oklahoma Indian oil heiress, was again Mrs. Earl E. Gordon today. Gordon won a three-year fight to retain his wife yesterday when the Arizona state supreme court reversed a 1926 superior court decision annulling the marriage.

The annulment complaint, filed by the 21-year-old Indian heiress in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.

The annulment suit was filed in the Phoenix superior court in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

communicated with him. The superior court granted the annulment and Gordon carried the case to the state supreme court.

The Indian girl is the owner of valuable oil lands in Oklahoma. She is reported to be worth more than a million dollars.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Sealed bids will be received until 2 o'clock p. m. March 4th at the home of Willard Smith for the construction of a new church at Glendale, Oregon. Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of L. W. Metzger, Roseburg, or First State and Savings Bank, Roseburg, or at the home of Willard Smith, Glendale. The right to reject any or all bids is hereby reserved.

WILLARD SMITH,
Chairman of Board.

LEGION OFFICIALS WILL BROADCAST ADDRESS

Harry N. Nelson, prominent American Legion officer, will broadcast an address over station KEX Sunday, March 3, at 4 p. m. He will speak on the community service work of the American Legion and will include in his remarks a recital of the work done by Empqua post, which has been outstanding among the posts of the state for its cooperation and participation in community activities.

EAT AND EXERCISE ENOUGH

Eat varied foods
enjoyably sweetened, and exercise

"People ought to get out into the air," said a famous health authority, when we asked him to give us the facts about exercise and diet.

"Recommend walking," he said, "and golf, tennis and fishing—anything that gives people enjoyable exercise in the open."

"Exercise that is a duty," he said, "becomes a hardship and is soon abandoned. Have an outdoor hobby that takes you outdoors each day, and gives you pleasure."

"We believe that enjoyment is good for us," he said. "Enjoyment tends to improve the whole physiology of the body."

Discussing the subject of diet, this health authority said, "Sugar is the vehicle of roughage, mineral salts and fruit vitamins. Sugar makes the fruit palatable. At least 90% of constipation is due to a lack of roughage. Eat a raw and a cooked vegetable, add a raw and a cooked fruit or canned fruit each day. Rotate them with season, price and taste."

So we see that sugar and common sense are at the foundation of good eating. Eat healthful foods daily, sweetened for enjoyment. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

Only 95c Down

Balance $1.00 Per Month for 5 Months

The California Oregon Power Company
Roseburg, Oregon.

BAR SIGN BOARDS
PARIS—Paris is planning to preserve all its old scenic beauty.

A new law bars sign boards from the vicinity of old churches, historical scenes and public buildings.

WOMAN FIGURE IN McPHERSON TRIAL
ACCUSER OF HARDY

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—The Examiner said today that the board of managers which is to prosecute the impeachment case of Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy of Los Angeles will receive tomorrow a notebook from Mrs. Lorraine Wiggins-Sheaff, purporting to show that the jury was directly connected with attempts to clear Almeda Sample McPherson, evangelist, of the accusation that she was with Kenneth G. Orniston, Angeleno temple radio operator at Carnel, Cal., in 1926.

Assemblyman M. I. Cronin, a member of the legislative police board, spent yesterday in Oakland in search of evidence against Hardy in the forthcoming trial before the bar of the senate.

Mrs. Sheaff, whose home is in Oakland, married in the McPherson case investigation when she announced that it was she and not Mrs. McPherson who was with Orniston at Carnel. Later Mrs. Sheaff repudiated the statement and declared that her twin sister, Mrs. Virgil Kimball, was the "Miss X" of the McPherson case.

The Examiner says that Mrs. Sheaff's notebook tells of her alleged visits to the home of Judge Hardy in Los Angeles about August 1, 1926, when the evangelist's kidnapping story was being investigated by the district attorney's office there and that the alleged meetings in the judge's home had been arranged by Mrs. McPherson.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT

U. S. Weather Bureau Office, Roseburg, Oregon. Data reported by E. H. Fletcher, Meteorologist in charge.
Barometric pressure reduced to sea level 30.05
Relative humidity 5 p. m. yesterday 55
Highest temperature yesterday 49
Lowest temperature last night 42
Average temperature for the day 45
Normal temperature for this date 45
Precip. in inches and Hundredths: Precipitation for 24 hours, 0.01
Total precip. since last month 1.11
Normal precip. for this month 4.49
Total precip. from Sept. 1, 1928, to date 14.40
Normal precip. from Sept. 1, 1928, to date 22.55
Total deficiency since Sept. 1, 1928, 8.15
Normal seasonal precip. Sept. to May, inclusive 21.16
Forecast for interior southwest Oregon: Fair tonight and Thursday; moderate temperature.

INDIAN HEIRESS' SUIT FOR DIVORCE ENDS IN FAILURE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 26.—Maudie Lee Mudd, Oklahoma Indian oil heiress, was again Mrs. Earl E. Gordon today. Gordon won a three-year fight to retain his wife yesterday when the Arizona state supreme court reversed a 1926 superior court decision annulling the marriage.

The annulment complaint, filed by the 21-year-old Indian heiress in February, 1926, through her guardian, charged that the marriage was only a pretended one, and that the bride was forced to consent through duress. She also filed an affidavit that Gordon's whereabouts were unknown.

Gordon insisted that the marriage was performed with the full consent of the bride and in the presence of her mother. He also charged that his wife knew his whereabouts at the time she filed the complaint and could have communicated with him.