POISON LIQUOR'S TOLL OF LIVES IN ILLINOIS NOW 17

Two Married Couples Face Murder Charges; 15 Per Cent Wood Alcohol in Beverage.

PEORIA, Ill., Mar. 6.—More names appeared on the poison liquor death list today, and the total stood at 17.

Two men and their wives are held for murder. It is charged they furnished the poison drink. Another man is charged with manslaughter.

There were three deaths in Galesburg which officials were certain were due to poison liquor, but because the bodies had been embalmed before an examination could be made, the coroner was unwilling to include them among the victims.

The federal prohibition department has entered the investigation in an effort to trace the poison to its source. Morris Mansfield, a Chicago dealer, is charged with the supply from a Chicago dealer, whom he refused to name.

Mrs. Edith S. Aekert was in charge of the contest. Wright of this city received the silver medal and for the boys Paul Spavin of Glenary was awarded the prize. There were 9 contestants and each of the numbers were greatly enjoyed by the appreciative audience.

In addition to the program the awards for the essay contest held recently in the schools and sponsored by the W. C. T. U. were made. Wm. M. Campbell, city school superintendent, presented the prizes of money to the various winners.

The murder charges against Mansfield, his wife, and C. O. Griffin and his wife were based on only one death, that of Clarence Hoppe, Saturday night.

John Cox of Vermont, Ill., is held on the manslaughter charge. It was he, the charge states, who sold liquor which is blamed for three deaths.

Formula Probed—George H. Hurlbert, acting prohibition administrator in Chicago, believes unadulterated wood alcohol may have been used in at least some of the liquor.

"There is only one government formula containing more than 10 per cent of wood alcohol poisoning," he said, "and it becomes our problem to find out whether this formula is involved."

Knox county officials at Galesburg have undertaken an investigation of the liquor situation there. An inquest probably will be held into the death of D. J. Trout, 28 years old, which occurred yesterday following a party. Two other men, blinded presumably by poison liquor, are to be questioned by Galesburg police.

Ex-Resident Been Ill—Rev. Geo. M. Bennett, formerly pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church here, has been quite ill at his home in Portland, but is now improved in health.

Rev. Bennett has many friends here who will be glad to hear that he is recovered.

Milt Howe and Son Here—Milt Howe, well known former resident of this city now making his home in Newport, and his son, I. M. Howe, of Salem were visitors in Roseburg today. The former has been looking after property here. He resided east of the city on the Deer creek road for a number of years. Mr. Howe possesses a very rare watch chain, fashioned of a leech agar, found by a friend and presented to him about a year ago.

The agar is oval in shape and the moss forms a small black pig, perfectly shaped. He has a collection of several interesting moss agates. The visitors will return home this evening.

NOTICE FOR BIDS FOR AVIATION PARK BONDS—Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned will, up to 7:30 P. M., on Monday, the 18th day of March, 1929, at his office in the City Hall in the City of Roseburg, Oregon, receive sealed proposals for the purchase of Aviation Park Bonds in the sum of $25,000.00.

Said bonds are issued under authority of the Charter of the City of Roseburg and Ordinance No. 921 as amended by Ordinance No. 924, duly and regularly passed by the Common Council of the City of Roseburg, Oregon, and approved by the Mayor of said City March 6th, 1929, for the purpose of providing funds for the acquisition and maintenance of an aviation park and field as described in Ordinance No. 529. The bonds are in denominations of $500.00 each, and bear interest at the rate of five per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually, and are dated March 1st, 1929, and are payable serially one tenth (1-10) each year, the first payment being payable one year from the date of issue.

No bid for less than par and accrued interest will be accepted, and the Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Each bid must be by a certified check or draft for the sum of $500.00 payable to the City of Roseburg, to be forfeited to the City in case the successful bidder shall fail to complete the purchase.

By order of the Common Council, Dated and first published at Roseburg, Oregon, March 6th, 1929. A. J. GEDDES, City Recorder of the City of Roseburg, Oregon.

MURDER OF MIAMI SOCIAL HOSTESS IS BEING PROBED

MIAMI, Fla., Mar. 6.—Search for the slayer of Mrs. Nora Wilson, 40-year-old housekeeper and for seven years social hostess and chaperon in the employ of Guy Loomis, wealthy New York investment broker, was taken up today by representatives of the state's attorney of Dade county, Florida.

Four witnesses were on hand today as the state began its attempt to reconstruct the picture of the woman's death some time Saturday. They were Loomis, who testified yesterday that the woman had often threatened to take his life and hers; Miss Margaret Cramer, New York show girl, and the captain and one member of the crew of the Loomis yacht Nautilus.

Two other persons were sought by officials to tell of their relations with the woman since she returned from a Cuban trip recently with Loomis, Miss Cramer and others. The two were known to officials only as "Race Horse Charlie" and "Frisco Legs," alleged gamblers.

Search for valuables belonging to Mrs. Wilson revealed but $130 in her purse, $36 in the hotel safe and a small amount of jewelry. Richard Black, Atlantic City detective, who assisted Miami police in investigating the woman's death, testified that through acquaintance with her for a number of years he had known her to have jewelry valued at from $5,000 to $10,000. She was believed to have had more money than was expected, because of testimony offered by Loomis yesterday that he had visited a week given her $300 when she asked him for money to return to New York.

Testimony offered at the trial yesterday was to the effect that the woman was highly nervous and that she drank heavily at all times. The state was also expected to investigate a jewel robbery reported by a guest on the same floor as that of Mrs. Wilson, between the Saturday night and the arrival of police to investigate the death.

DOG REPAYS HIS MASTER'S HEROISM (By NEA Service) REGINA, Sask.—The story of two heroes, human and canine, has gained the applause and approval of Saskatchewan.

Pred Charles of Yorkton was on a hunting expedition. One of his dogs caught up with a huge timber wolf. When Carson reached the scene the wolf had the dog by the throat.

Without regard for his own safety, Carson took hold of the wolf's jaws. In the attempt to pry them open and release the dog, the wolf dropped his hold on the dog and clamped the fangs on Carson's hand.

At a command from Carson all the dogs then joined in the battle and ripped the wolf to pieces. Although his hand was terribly lacerated and he suffered from loss of blood, and pain, the trapper marched several miles to the nearest village to gain medical attention.

The dog recovered, but his master was in danger of lockjaw or hydrophobia.

PEPCO EQUALIZATION JOB UNDERTAKEN IN PORTLAND SALEM, Ore., Mar. 6.—The public service commission has started an investigation to determine an equitable basis for segregation of additions and betterments as between the street railway and electric utility properties of the Portland Electric Power company.

This action is taken in accordance with conclusions reached by representatives of the commission, the company, the city of Portland and other interested parties that this segregation should be made.

The commission's statement says the investigation seems to be desirable because of changed conditions affecting the property since the original valuation of the properties in 1916.

A hearing set for March 12 has been deferred to a later date agreeable to all parties.

It's adding the troops for loyalty and is claiming signal success with this method in some regions.

Tourists Plan to Move American tourists in Mexico City are not much alarmed by the revolutionary situation but talk is developing of asking for a special train to take them to Tampico, whence they may sail for home.

Cabonel Lindbergh, for once given the privacy he has long craved in the rush of the revolutionary situation, is eager to get started back to the United States, but his damaged plane is still undergoing repairs.
