GOVERNOR LONG TURNS GUNS ON STANDARD OIL

out of the same one hundred millions of dollars made by the oil trust in this state, that they pay the state a wee bit so that we might help these unfortunate human beings who are suffering and dying because we cannot help them and in order that we might give relief to schools that cannot run without some help.

"I had rather go down to a thousand impeachments than to admit that I am governor of the state. I do not dare to call the Standard Oil company to account so that we can educate our children and care for destitute, sick and afflicted. Rather than be governor of this state with these conditions when I am pledged to correct it, I will give myself over to the impeaching authority any time."

Former Acts Recited
Friends of the accused governor circularized the capital with printed dodgers, calling on the legislators to stand by the governor and crush the "money ring." Supporters of the impeachment moved their followers to hold to their lives and rid the state of its youthful governor, who attracted national notoriety by his spectacular raids on gambling houses with the state militia, by his refusal to commute the death sentences of Ada Bonner Lebon and Dr. E. Dreher, hanged for murder, and later by his controversy with Colorado.
