Ambassador to the Arctic

The "Northland," successor to the famous cutter "Bear" in the Bering Sea, is again on her way to the Arctic regions. Each year, in the Spring, the Navy sends the ship north to act as ice breaker, mother ship, hospital and messenger to the inhabitants of the far North. A number of sailors aboard the "Northland" drive the new Chevrolet Six during their Winter stay in port.

over Joe Blackwell of Eugene in a terrific slugfest. Blackwell lost a close decision to Dixon in Portland a short time ago, giving the colored boy a bad beating in the first few rounds, so that Dixon finished the fight with one eye completely closed and his face and body terribly battered. Only his longer ring experience carried him through a final rally that won him a questionable decision over the Eugene slugger.

The comparative data would indicate that Dixon and Johnson are of about equal ability. Their style of fighting, however, is widely different, Dixon being a clever boxer, packing a knockout wallop in either hand, while Johnson is an infighter who is dangerous at all times and can absorb an unlimited amount of punishment.

The main event is supported by a group of bouts that are in themselves enough to compel the interest of fans, for every bout has the appearance of being a natural fight between popular boxers of known reputation.

New Haven, Conn.—Louis Kid Kaplan, Meriden, Conn., outpointed Joe Glick, New York (10).

THEVENOW, PHILLY SHORTSTOP, BADLY HURT IN WRECK

(Associated Press Local Wire)
LAKELAND, Fla., April 3.—Critically injured in an automobile crash late last night, Tommy Thevenow, shortstop for the Philadelphia National league baseball club, early today was reported "resting fairly well" by physicians at Memorial hospital.

Harold Elliott, a member of the club's pitching staff, who was with Thevenow in the accident, also was taken to the hospital but was later discharged after he was given treatment for bruises.

Physicians said Thevenow apparently was "badly hurt." A preliminary examination was said to have disclosed several broken bones, including a fractured nose and jaw. Hospital authorities, however, said the full extent of the shortstop's injuries would not be known until X-ray pictures were developed later today.

Anna Barakdale, a Winter Haven deputy sheriff, said Thevenow and Elliott left their car shortly before 9 p. m. for Lakeland, where they expected to visit friends. Thevenow, he said, apparently misjudged the speed at which an approaching car was traveling, his left front wheel striking the left rear wheel of the passing car.

Thevenow's car left the roadway and overturned. It was badly wrecked. J. T. Knott, an Illinois tourist, driver of the other automobile, was not hurt. Knott's home address was not learned.

CHANGE IN BASKETBALL RULES URGED BY COACH

(Associated Press Local Wire)
CHICAGO, Apr. 3.—Changing basketball rules so it will be impossible for a team to make five points on one drive under the basket will be urged by Ward Lambert, Purdue university coach, at the meeting of the National Association of Basketball Coaches here tomorrow and Friday.

Lambert, chairman of the rules committee, does not favor other changes in the rules, such as those proposed regarding the dribble and elimination of the tip-off. In order to eliminate the "five point" possibility, Lambert suggests that the ball be taken back to center after free throws whenever an official allows a basket and calls a foul on the same play, just as the ball is taken back to center after the free throws on a double foul.

Umpqua unit of the American Legion auxiliary met last evening in the club rooms of the armory. Committee reports were heard and plans for entertainment for the visit of the national president were talked.

The auxiliary plans to visit the court of honor of the Boy Scout troop sponsored by the legion next Monday evening. The next meeting this month of Umpqua unit will be a social affair.

The Roseburg W. C. T. U. is meeting this afternoon at the Woman's Club building. A business program is the feature of the meeting.

Mrs. J. K. Falbe will be hostess this evening at the Howell apartments for the meeting of St. George's Guild.

The business session will be followed by an informal social hour.

A meeting of past presidents and the president of Umpqua unit of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held last evening.

As preparations will soon begin for the visit of the national commander of the American Legion and the national president of the auxiliary, tentative plans were discussed during the session. There will be a banquet, a mass meeting and other entertainment for the distinguished visitors who will be here in the near future.

A very interesting program marked the meeting of the Roseburg Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon at the club house.

Mrs. H. D. Harris, the president, conducted the business meeting proceeding the entertainment. Mrs. G. V. Stumby of the Roseburg Garden Club was the speaker of the afternoon.

Games completed the diversion and refreshments were served from a prettily appointed tea table by a committee of hostesses.

Mrs. W. F. Chapman and Mrs. Arthur Baum are entertaining at a series of very lovely parties, being hostesses for a luncheon and bridge on Tuesday at the spacious Chapman home in Laurelwood as the first affair.

Seasonal flowers enhanced the rooms where the guests were received. Six tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon.

They will entertain at another bridge-luncheon on Friday, issuing invitations to 24 prominent society women for the event.

Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Bemis and daughter, Joyce, have returned to Portland after being entertained here Easter weekend by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bemis, parents of Dr. Bemis. The family were together for a dinner on Easter at the country home, Grand U ranch near Oakland.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Simmons, whose marriage took place last Saturday, a group of their friends gathered for a charivari Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Simmons. Mrs. Simmons was Pansy Singleton.

Pie would certainly keep you guessing

No guesswork, however, when you bake a small pie, because you can tell when it's done. And there's no guesswork when Hills Bros. roast their coffee. A few pounds at a time by a continuous process roasts every berry evenly and develops the utmost in flavor. No other coffee tastes like Hills Bros., for none is roasted the same way.
