The couple will reside in Roseburg.

Among social affairs of primary interest for Easter week was the party at which the Lady Elks Club entertained last evening at the temple in connection with the installation of the new officers of the Elks club.

There were out of town guests from Eugene and Canyonville and ten tables of bridge and five hundred were in play. Refreshments were served in the blue room.

A post-Easter event and benefit affair of annual interest is the spring dinner given by the Catholic Ladies Society, which this year will be Saturday, April 6, at St. Joseph's parish hall.

Mrs. T. H. News is general chairman and Mrs. J. G. Koenig is assistant chairman. The dinner will be served from 11:30 to 1:30 o'clock and arrangements are being made to seat one hundred at a time.

Mrs. Glenn Radabaugh entertained last evening at her home for the meeting of the Elks Club.

Following an evening of sewing the hostess served light refreshments.
