ROSEBURG DEBATE TEAM VICTORS

The Roseburg senior high school debate team received first place in the contest held last night at the high school building between Roseburg and North Bend high schools, the decision of the judges being 3 to 0.

The affirmative team for the Roseburg group was Jennie Dirks and Norma Strader and the negative team from the coast city was represented by Verle Bildback and Margaret Hosking. University of Oregon professors were judges for the debate.

In May the southern Oregon championship title will be sought by the local group, which will be among the contestants by virtue of its victory in the semi-finals.
