clerks at work in the room, as he broke off the fuse and extinguished the matches.
Governor Roosevelt at his home at Hyde Park expressed no alarm when told of the finding of the bomb. His only comment was that he "was glad no one was injured in discovering the bomb." Over the telephone he informed Police Commissioner Whalen that he knew of no motive for the sending of a bomb to him.
No Connection With Fire
Detectives of the Division of Combustibles of the fire prevention bureau who examined the infernal machine with post office inspectors said it would probably have killed several persons had it exploded either in the post office or when opened in the governor's office.
No connection was evident between the bomb incident and the destruction by fire of the new $100,000 home of the governor's daughter, Mrs. C. B. Dall, adjoining the estate of John D. Rockefeller at Tarrytown, N. Y., yesterday morning.
The mansion was nearing completion and Mr. and Mrs. Dall, now on their way home from Europe, were expected to occupy it in the near future.
Legislature Bombed
DELHI, India, April 8.—Two bombs exploded in the Indian legislative assembly today, sharp on the heels of a parliamentary crisis, injured several persons, and caused a panic among the assemblymen.
Among the injured was George Schuster, finance member of the governor general's executive council. He and the others injured were taken to a hospital.
Three government benches were torn to bits by the bombs.
Two men were arrested and were reported to have confessed after other bombs and pistols were found on their persons.
Thrown into the crowded assembly room with the two bombs was a red pamphlet entitled "Hindu-Socialist Republican Army," and signed by "Balraj," honorary chief. The effect of the bombs on the legislators was to drive them instantly into a panic.
Sir John Simon Target
LONDON, April 8.—Bombing in the Indian legislative assembly at Delhi this morning recalled here an occurrence in October of 1925 when several passengers were killed and injured on a train enroute to Bombay by a bomb which was believed intended for the Simon commission. Sir John Simon and the other members of the commission were due at about that time.
Sir John, whose leadership of the commission on Indian statutory reform has excited considerable opposition in India, was seated in the assembly at the time of today's incident with V. J. Patel, it was understood here. He was unhurt.
NIECE ROSEBURG LADY, WELL KNOWN HERE, PASSES AWAY
The sad news of the death of Miss Alice M. Denning, niece of Mrs. T. M. Ollivant of South Pine street, this city, has been received here from Seattle. The young woman visited here during her vacation for several years and formed many acquaintances who will regret deeply to learn of her passing.
Miss Denning passed away Thursday in Seattle, death coming after a long period of suffering. Over a year ago she received a seemingly slight injury which resulted in spine injury and despite the efforts of specialists she failed to recover. She was born in Marshfield, Ore., May 25, 1901. She attended Lincoln high school in Seattle and was valedictorian of her class of more than 400 students. Later Miss Denning attended the University of Washington where she made a splendid record. Her services as a teacher were sought by various boards of education. In addition to the degrees from the university she received degrees from Mills college. Funeral services were held April 1. Miss Denning is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Denning.

here announced.
How the two Americans came to be aligned with the federal forces was not learned. Williams has a large ranch at San Pedro, Cal., and Thompson is reported to be a cattle buyer. Williams and Thompson were not accompanied by government troops and the surrender of Palomas was over almost before the town knew what had happened. It is reported that a detachment of federal soldiers will be sent to take charge of the town.
Escobar Has New Plan
General Escobar has apparently worked out a new rebel plan of military strategy, calling for the concentration of insurgent forces in Sonora for a concentrated rebel attack on Naco, Sonora, and the probable evacuation of the state of Chihuahua to advancing government soldiers. The rebels, however, deny that Chihuahua will be left to the federals without resistance.
Concentration of rebel airplanes in Juarez continues at Puentes Alto (high hills) field, nine miles south of here. There are five rebel planes on the field and more are expected. At least three other planes, damaged in faulty landings on uneven fields are to be repaired. It is said, and operated from this locality. Huapato Pass, where Escobar and Calles may clash is about 175 miles from Deming, New Mexico.
Railroads Suffer
It was reported by rebel headquarters here today that several railroad bridges have been destroyed on the Mexican Northwestern railroad and that this was delaying the attempt of rebel leaders to move troops southward.
Reports that were not confirmed were current here today that an attempt had been made to dynamite General Escobar's train as it proceeded toward Juarez Saturday night. It was also reported that Federal Colonel Jesus Jose Diaz had crossed the border in Juarez Saturday and that he had been executed.
General Escobar still refused today to say when he would leave or what his destination would be.
H. H. Polk, an American, has been appointed chief of the rebel air service. It was announced.
Exit Rebel Planes
NACO, Ariz., April 8.—The end has come to the rebel army's air forces in northern Chihuahua, consisting of three planes. Two of the ships were interned at Fort Bliss, El Paso, Tex., and the third had not been reported sighted since it left for points unknown in the United States.
It was said General Jose Gonzalo Escobar's three pilots "went over the hill" yesterday. Antonio Cardenas and Arturo Jimenez, main plane pilots, flew two of the ships across the Rio Grande and landed at Fort Bliss.
The third plane, flown away by an American pilot, passed over El Paso late yesterday. Nothing has been heard of it since.
The two planes were interned and placed under guard at Fort Bliss at the request of Cardenas and Jimenez who were turned over to Enrique Llorens, Mexican consul at El Paso.
Rebels Turn Loyal
PRESIDIO, Tex., April 8.—Ex-while Mexican rebels turned suddenly loyal to the government, today held Ojinaga, Mexico, across the border from here, after killing the insurgent commander and routing their former comrades who sought to uphold his command.
The sudden assassination of Lieut. Col. Cardenas, the rebel commander, ended the uprising yesterday which ended after a two-hour skirmish with the counter revolutionists in complete control of the town. Captain Quintanilla, one of Cardenas' staff officers, was reported slain and two men, whose affiliations were not learned, were wounded.
Many bullets fell on the American side with no resultant damage or injuries. Soon after the rifles started cracking around the assembly houses where the engagement started, United States cavalrymen draw up on this side of the river, protecting Americans from possible harm by keeping them out of the danger zone.

U. S. Planes On Watch
NACO, Ariz., April 8.—American army fliers with eighteen fighting planes were at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, near here today, with orders to patrol the border and shoot down any Mexican planes that venture north of the international line.
This was the American answer to the continued dropping of bombs on Arizona soil Saturday after they had been repeatedly warned not to do so.
A sudden end to the rebel airplane bombing attacks which harassed the loyal garrison at Naco, Sonora, across the line from here, was expected to result. General Gonzalez, commander of the Mexican garrison, was advised to keep his planes on the ground, because the American fliers might not be able to distinguish them from rebel planes.
General Topete, commander of the rebel forces whose planes have dropped several bombs on the American side in their attacks upon the garrison, announced his aviators would use only machine guns in the event they fly over the Sonora town again. Whether another attack would be staged by Topete's planes soon remained in doubt, however, as he declared last night he was awaiting orders from General Escobar, rebel commander-in-chief, before taking action.
LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
Editor of the News-Review: Last week there appeared in your paper a letter signed by Al Border which was either a poor joke or a malicious effort on someone's part to ridicule some part of the school system.
It is true there are rules which must be adhered to in our schools but none such as told in that letter. This could readily have been determined by calling the superintendent or principal of any school without rushing into print. Careful investigation on our part does not show any such ruling in the Roseburg schools and no incident similar to this occurred before that letter was published.
This explanation is made by the board of education at the request of numerous people who are highly incensed at the letter appearing in the News-Review.
Very truly yours,
B. R. SHOEMAKER,
Chairman of Board of Education.
