MAY DAY PROGRAM PLANNED BY GLIDE SCHOOL FOR MAY 3

GLIDE, April 12.—The meeting of the Glide Parent-Teacher association Friday evening, April 5th, was exceptionally well attended. The association voted to join with the school in putting on a May Day program on May 3rd at the school building. The plan is to have an outdoor program in the forenoon, a basket dinner at noon, and field sports in the afternoon. Following the business session the following program was rendered: Piano solo, Noma Hill; a sketch, "A Nigrescent Honesty," Opal Barker, Agnes Blakely and Florence King; vocal solo, Myron Vleck; recitation, Leland Blakely; recitation, Robert Romanini; a sketch, "The Lost Chord," Inez Incho, Maybelle Neal, Raymond Bartman and Curtis Barker; violin solo, H. A. Blakely; recitation, Barbara Barker; reading, Maybelle Neal, vocal solo, Inez Incho. After the program a very interesting address was given by Mr. W. G. Paul of South Deer Creek, on India and China where he traveled for some years. Mr. Paul displayed some beautiful Oriental robes that were obtained in these countries and gave a vivid description of the Taj Mahal, the most remarkable tomb in the world.

RIDDLE HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

RIDDLE, April 12.—The Riddle high school baseball team will play a game at Myrtle Creek Friday afternoon, April 12.

Several high school pupils will take part in a program given by the Christian Endeavor society, to be held Monday evening, April 15, at the Masonic hall.

Work is being done on the school grounds and apparatus set up for pupils in order that they may practice for the track meet.

Alma Thompson and her sister, Marjorie, visited in Lookingglass over the week-end.

There is a daily rehearsal of the drama, "It Happened in June," a snappy comedy drama. It is up-to-date, witty and romantic, and has a strong plot and most absorbing and breath-taking story, in three acts. Recitation, sketch and tuneful songs by the glee club will be other features of the program.

MYRTLE CREEK NEWS

MYRTLE CREEK, April 12.—Mr. Jack Lyon of Tulsa, Okla., is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. Wardrip.

Eldon Wimer is working in the stock department of the Montgomery Ward store in Roseburg.

Miss Venora Bates, who is teaching in the Edenbower school is quite ill with flu. She is being attended by her grandmother, Mrs. Linnie Chaney.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Colby of Pasco, Wash., are visiting friends and relatives here.

PLANS STARTED FOR COMMUNITY FAIR AT GLIDE

GLIDE, April 12.—A meeting of all the committees of the Glide district fair was held in the high school building Wednesday evening at the call of the general chairman, Willard Smith. The South Deer Creek grange and community were represented by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cachelin and Mr. and Mrs. Locke. A complete revision of last year's prize list was made, the list being extended and greater stress laid on the crops most successfully grown in the section served by the fair. It was decided to continue the custom of serving a picnic dinner on the day of the fair but as the attendance is constantly increasing everyone participating will be urged to contribute to the general fund. Premium lists will be printed and distributed as soon as possible in order that the producers of the district may plan and properly care for their entries. With better facilities for showing and rapidly increasing interest this year's fair will undoubtedly be a "bigger and better" fair.

CHURCH PROGRESSING

GLIDE, April 12.—The new Christian church building is rapidly taking shape. Mr. Willard Smith and Mr. Fisher Strohecker, who have the contract for construction, expect to have it ready for occupancy by the first of May.

BOY SCOUT PATROLS ORGANIZED TROOP SEVEN AT GLIDE

GLIDE, April 12.—Troop 7 of the Boy Scouts held their regular weekly meeting in the high school gymnasium Wednesday evening, with fifteen scouts in attendance. Two patrols were organized, the Beaver patrol, with Lester Smith as patrol leader and the Owl patrol with Inez Incho as patrol leader. Carl Hill is senior patrol leader for the troop. Plans were made for the participation of the troop in the May Day exercises to be put on by the Glide school May 3rd.

FRIENDLY FEW CLUB ENTERTAINED

MYRTLE CREEK, April 12.—The Friendly Few club of Bilzer creek neighborhood was entertained at the home of Mrs. Henry Traub April 10th. The roll was taken with each member responding with a current event which was later discussed. The main topic for general report was "Luther Burbank and His Gift to Mankind." Plans were made for future meetings and then the meeting was adjourned. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in doing full justice to a delicious luncheon served by Mrs. Traub.

DILLARD-BROCKWAY NEWS

DILLARD, April 12.—Mrs. W. A. Alexander left last Saturday afternoon for North Bend. Her little boy has been ill and it was necessary to take him to the hospital at that place for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lamb of Corvallis spent a few days here last week visiting with friends, returning home last Friday. They intend to visit points in California in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Lamb are former residents of this neighborhood and lived on the place now occupied by Bruce Spackman.

Mrs. D. J. Noah has moved back to her farm at Dillard. She has been residing on Pine street in Roseburg since last September. Grace and Zarell Lacey entered school at Dillard last Monday and Esther Taylor has entered the school at Brockway. They all reside at the home of Mrs. Noah.

A birthday party was sponsored at the home of Shirley Cleiton on Kent creek last Friday evening, April 5, in honor of his 29th birthday anniversary. A very bountiful supper was served early in the evening and was immensely enjoyed by the guests. After the evening meal was served the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and listening to radio music. A large log heap was prepared by the neighbor boys for a large bonfire, but as the evening was quite stormy it was postponed to a later date in the near future. Those present were: Ray Bradford, Don Parker, Wilson Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Cleiton, Fred Henry, Roy Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Parker, Jack Cluser, Aulda Anderson, Isora Lewis, Darrel Parker, Clarence Cluser, Mr. and Mrs. G. WINCHESTER BOY WINS MENTION FOR ESSAY ON HOOVER

WINCHESTER, April 12.—Webster Harrington, of the eighth grade of the Winchester school, was one of eight pupils in Oregon to secure honorable mention in a national contest sponsored by Current Events, a school paper of wide circulation. The contest featured the presidents of the United States and included an essay entitled "Why I Think Herbert Hoover Will Make a Good President." Webster is to be congratulated on his effort. He is eleven years old.

and Mrs. Alfred Swift of Tonnelle were visitors at Brockway last Thursday morning.

George Voytilla and Harrison Rice left last Sunday morning for different points in the Willamette valley, where they expect to obtain employment.

Ernest Hedgepeth visited here last Sunday and Monday.

Arthur Richardson of Myrtle Creek has taken charge of the Heratine ranch and has stocked the place with 80 head of sheep. The family will probably move on after the school closes at Myrtle Creek.

Rev. Meminger of Roseburg preached in the Methodist church at Dillard last Sunday morning.

It is reported that Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Davidson and family of Klamath Falls are to return to Dillard soon, where they will reside during the summer.

Wm. Blair took charge of the S. P. depot again the first of April. He had been out of the state for several months and recently returned.

Quite a concourse of friends and relatives attended the funeral services of the late W. C. Simmons Wednesday afternoon at the Willis Creek cemetery. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Rev. T. P. Allen conducted the services.

Free camp grounds, Idlewild Park.
