Foreign markets are fairly steady, Australian sales showing slight recessions on the lagging wools of the season, but good wools are firm, especially cross-breeds.

"The piece goods markets are moderate-active. Worst manufacturers report staple orders slow at the moment.

"Mohair is quiet. A little hair has been taken in the southwest at 50 cents for adult and 60 cents for kid, but growers in Texas usually want more money."

The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following wool quotations tomorrow:

Scoured basis: Oregon—Fine and f. m. staple $1.00-1.05; fine and f. m. fr. combing $37-1.00; fine and f. m. clothing $35-36; valley No. 1 $1.02-1.05.

Mohair: Average 12 months Oregon $58-60. Graded stock—First combing 65.

LOCAL NEWS

SALEM, Ore., April 13.—Acting upon advice from Boston representatives, local commission firms announced a drop of five cents a pound in buying price for mohair. The new scale, 45 cents for long hair and 55 cents per pound for mid hair, became effective today.

The cut had been expected for some ten days past, with considerable effort made to stave it off. It was stated. The new price is in line with Texas market where the mohair, clip averages 4 to 8 cents per pound higher than Oregon hair.

Buying prices for wool in the groove were unchanged.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 13.—Egg prices went flying upward today, due, it was said, to another effort to halt premium paying at other points. All grades advanced, two cents, standard extras halting at 28, standard firsts at 27, medium extras at 25 and medium firsts at 24.

Prime firsts in butter advanced half a cent to 44. Firsts were a cent higher at 43.

Onions soared to $3.75 and $4.00 with the demand surpassing the supply.

Lettuce was also higher.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 13.—Cattle market compared with week ago: All classes steady except strong weights and heavy steers, which were 25 to 50 cents lower.

Bulls closed weak and fairly steady. Bulk good under 1100-pound steers, $12.25 to $12.50. Good strong weights and medium grade light $11.25 to $12.25. Off grades down to $9.50 and under. Good heifers up to $11.00. Good cows up to $10.00 and better. Medium and low grade she stock $9.00 down to $3.50. Bulk desirable bulls $8.00 to $9.00, mostly $8.25 to $8.75. Best light vealers $14.50. Calves $12.50 down. Heavies and thins down to $3.50.

Hogs compared with week ago: Light butchers steady to 25 cents higher. Other killing classes steady. Feeder pigs opened steady, closed weak and 25c lower. Bulk light butchers $11.85 to $12.00. Over and under weights $11.75 down. Extreme heavies mostly $10.00 to $10.50. Packing sows $8.50 to $8.75. Old head $9.00. Bulk slaughter pigs $10.75 to $11.25. Scattering lots $11.50. Feeder pigs $10.00 to $11.00. Extreme top all close $10.75.

Sheep and lambs quotably steady with week ago. Choice woolled lambs still quoted up to $16.00, yearlings at $13.00, ewes to $9.55.

NOTICE OF SALE OF ESTRAY ANIMAL—Notice is hereby given that the undersigned did, on or about the 25th day of January, 1929, take up the following described animal as an stray, to-wit:

One half faced Hereford cow, age about six years, with a crop of the right ear and a white spot on the left side just back of the shoulder and with no other distinguishable marks or brands.

That said animal has been held at my farm since the taking up thereof and may be seen until the date of sale by any person interested therein at my farm on Roberts Creek about 10 miles south of Roseburg in Douglas county, Oregon.

That by order duly made and entered by the Justice of the Peace for Deer Creek District, Douglas County, Oregon, my said farm has been fixed as the place where, and 2:30 o'clock P. M. on Tuesday, the 30th day of April, 1929, as the time, at which time and place said animal will be offered for sale in public auction, unless sooner redeemed, to satisfy damages, costs of keeping and all expenses incurred including Justice's fees and costs of advertising and sale and such other costs and expenses as may have been regularly made.

Dated this 12th day of April, 1929.

The "You" Lamb
This story is not about the garden variety of "you" lamb. Nor about such a one as the Prophet described to David. Nor even such as the one at the Oklahoma state house. This is about the Farmers Union type of "you" lamb. No other lamb was ever half so innocent as this one. And it is a conscious and sophisticated innocence. Like that of an egg-sucking dog that buries the shells. This lamb joins about the time success seems certain. It might be better to say that he "connects up" with the group. He doesn't become a part of it. He always says "you."

"What will YOU give me for my wheat?" "What are YOU paying for eggs?" "I don't like the plan YOU follow in this."

"The other fellow offers more than YOU do for that."

"This 'you' lamb stands around the edge and bleats 'you, you.'"

He wants the whole flock to play wet nurse for his benefit. When the picking is good he is right there.

When things are wrong he blames "you."

He likes to dicker with the wolves in daylight and safety. But he is strong for the sheltering fold when needed.

Maybe a little "wool" is required to pay for safe shelter. He wants it all taken off of "you."

He is a cheerful sharer in benefits. But costs and adversities are for "you."

There is seldom more than one "you" lamb in a flock. But he fairly gets the goat of all the rest.

And there is no market for his pelt.—Kansas Union Farmer.

IN BANKRUPTCY
No. B-13248
In the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, in the matter of Charles L. Turpin, Bankrupt.

THE TINYMITES
STORY BY MAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

While Clowdy held the watering can tipped over, the water slowly ran out of the spout and traveled quickly to the earth below. Then Copy cried, "Oh, that is mean. For rainstorm folks are never here. Why you send water down on them I surely do not know." Wee Scouty smiled, and calmly said, "Oh, don't mind him. Just go ahead. A lot of folks will figure that this rain is just good luck. You see, it falls on flowers and things and to them brand new life it brings. Just think of all the good 'twill do the sprouting garden truck." Just then they heard a nearby groan. "Hey, let the watering can alone. I am the one who handles that. Be on your merry way. But, wait a minute! If you're good, and only do the things you should, I'll change my mind and be real kind and gladly let you stay." The Tinies looked up. What they saw, real quickly filled them all with awe. Before them stood a monstrous man, as fat as he could be. "Now, don't be scared at what you've spied. I am the Thunder Man," he cried. The Tinies were pleased with him and laughed. "Ha, ha, he, he!" "We're glad to meet you," Scouty said, "but, tell us, what's that on your head? If it's the sort of hat you wear, I think it's rather cute." The man looked up and said, "Oh, that? Oh my, no, it is not a hat. It's there to keep rain off my head. It's just a bumber-shoot." And then he told the happy bunch. "Now, listen here, I have a hunch that I can entertain you all in manner that is grand. You see, I rule the rain clouds here, and plan the weather, dark or clear. I'll take you all upon a trip clear through my Thunderland." (The Thunder Man produces thunder in the next story.) (Copyright, 1929, NEA Service, Inc.)
