BELGIAN BAND TO MAKE APPEARANCE IN EUGENE, MAY 2

Both symphony and purely martial numbers will be on the program of the Royal Belgian band which will appear in concert in Eugene on May 2, according to advance notice received here. The band, under direction of Captain Arthur Prevost, will play numbers such as Cesar Franck's "Symphony in D Minor," Mendelssohn's "Reformation Symphony," Bach's "Prelude in Fugue in A Minor."

The Royal Belgian band is the only symphonic organization of its kind in the world and its concert here consequently will be something new in the line of music. As early as 1880 the fame of the Musique des Guardes, as the band was then known, had spread thruout Europe and to America, and the group was scheduled to come to North America on tour. Besides visiting the United States, all of the principal cities of Canada, Mexico and Latin America were to be ports of call. This proposed trip never materialized and now, almost 50 years later, the Symphonic band of the Royal Belgian Guards will make their first tour in this country.
