SOCIETY

By MILDRED BYNON

Mr. and Mrs. V. O'Brien entertained for a group of friends Saturday evening at their home at 205 Blakeley street. The diversion of the evening was 500 with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman holding honors. Sweet peas in pastel shades lent a delicate touch of color to the rooms.

Dainty refreshments were served at small tables to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. George Staur, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shockley and Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith.

Mrs. Charles V. Stanton entertained a committee of the Loyol Circle class of the Christian church Bible school Wednesday afternoon at the Stanton home at 213 Commercial avenue. Plans were made for the social activities of the class, and it was decided to sponsor a singing campaign to extend the membership of the class.

Late in the afternoon the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

Mrs. J. M. Judd was a charming hostess Wednesday evening to members of St. George's guild. Eighteen guests were present. At the close of a business session, Mrs. Judd served refreshments to her guests of the evening.

Pres. and Mrs. W. J. Kerr of Corvallis left this morning for their home after spending a short time in this city. Pres. Kerr has been president of Oregon State college for a number of years, and both President and Mrs. Kerr are widely known socially throughout the state.

Among the clubs meeting this week is the Kildeen club, to be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. Royd Bruton at 125 North Kane street.

Miss Anna Beehringer of Salem, who has been the house guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Marsters, left today for her home in the capital city.
