COPCO COOKING SCHOOL THURSDAY, FRIDAY THIS WEEK

Mrs. Irene Kerr of the home economics department of the Westinghouse Electric company, will arrive in Roseburg Thursday and will conduct a two-day cooking school at the local office of the California-Oregon Power company. Mrs. Kerr was in Roseburg last year and held a similar school which was well attended and was greatly appreciated by Roseburg housewives.

In connection with the school the California-Oregon Power company is making special prices and terms on electric ranges, and as an added feature is offering a free electric water heater with each range.

This is conceded to be one of the most attractive offers ever made locally. A special series of advertisements containing much interesting information about the superior features of "Flavor Zone" cooking will appear each week during the entire campaign, which will continue during the month of May.

GOOD VAUDEVILLE COMING ANTLERS THURSDAY NIGHT

An interesting bill is announced for the Fanchon-Marco vaudeville show in connection with the regular picture program at the Antlers theatre Thursday. These Fanchon-Marco acts are brought to Roseburg each week and are attracting a great deal of attention from theatre goers who are greatly pleased by this added feature furnished by the Umpqua Amusement company. Each of the acts on Thursday's bill has been chosen because of its novel features.

Harry Berry and Miss, a man and woman comedy team, in a music and balancing act; the two Jacks, a stairsteps dancing novelty; Vance Silk, master of ceremonies, monologist, soloist and dancer; and a novelty arrangement of "The Wedding of the Painted Doll" are among the acts that will be featured, combining to give a bill of unusual interest.

MISSIONS HAVE BIG LEAD IN RACE FOR COAST FLAG

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

By dint of heavy batting, clever pitching, and fast infield work, the San Francisco Mission Reds today were leading the Pacific Coast league clubs by more than a mile in the race for the 1929 pennant.

By taking four out of seven games from the Angels, their nearest rivals last week, the Missions tightened their grip on first place, a lead they have maintained for the last three weeks, and they should increase the margin this week when they meet the Portland "Ducks."

This week the Seals play the Oaks at Oakland; Los Angeles plays in Sacramento, and Seattle and Hollywood play at Los Angeles.

With the first month of the season played, the Missions have shown their worth, particularly when the pitching is good. Fuzzy Hufft has been hitting like a triphammer, and thus far he has made good his boast that he would lead Smead Jolley in the batting averages for the Seals in the next two years. He is leading Jolley now by nearly a hundred points, and he claims that he is hardly warmed up.

DOCTOR REVEALS SUICIDE OF GIRL THREE WEEKS AGO

SAN JOSE, Cal., April 30.—Suicide April 12 last of Elizabeth Gebhart, 28, in the room at Agnew state hospital of Dr. Paul A. Gleibe, assistant physician at the institution, was revealed yesterday.

The girl, with whom he had been acquainted since September, 1927, was not a patient at the hospital, said Dr. Gleibe, but came to his quarters, he explained, at his invitation to have lunch there with him, on the eve of her departure for Europe.

A coroner's inquest established that the physician had found her body suspended by a wire from a hook in the clothes closet in his room. A verdict given by the coroner's jury declared that she had "committed suicide by hanging while mentally deranged."

The doctor told the jury that in 1927 at a San Francisco hospital the young woman had been brought before him for observation after she had been restrained from leaping from a second story window.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KNICK

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

"Well, goodness me," wee Scouty cried. "This is a most unusual ride. Our cabin toppled through the air, and we were doomed to crash. I felt that everything was o'er, but here we are, real safe once more. The Goofygoo is our real friend. He stopped a sudden smash."

"You bet," snapped Coppy. "You are right! We've all been through a mighty fright. Why, when our cabin rope broke I was frightened as could be. But now, what once looked very black seems brighter on this old bird's back. Just how he caught this cabin like he did I cannot see."

The Goofygoo looked back and said, "Oh, shucks, I simply used my head. You traveled through the air so fast I had to act real quick. I swooped down low and held real taut, and that is how I finally caught you funny little cabin. It was a clever trick.

"But, don't feel that you're safe and sound. You still may topple to the ground. The cabin's feeling tipsy and I'm scared that it will slip. I ne'er could catch this thing again. Such things just happen now and then. We'll have to find some way to halt disaster on this trip."

The Tinies thought, and then one cried, "I have a plan that might be tried. Why don't we all crawl to your back or maybe to your neck? Then we could hang on good and tight and everything would be all right. The cabin then could go ahead and fall into a wreck."

"A good idea," snapped the bird. "That is the best plan I have heard." And so the Tinies started crawling from the cabin door. They all got out, and very neat. Some hung tight to the big bird's feet. Another grabbed his neck just as the wind began to roar.

(The cabin falls in the next story.)
