

CHURCHES

First Baptist Church, Lane at Rose. Frank B. Matthews, pastor. Sunday, May 12th, Mother's Day services both morning and evening. In recent years the services of this day have been largely attended. We are offering programs of interest and helpfulness. 9:45 the Bible school. All members urged to be present and on time. 11:00 the morning worship. "The Greatest Among You" will be the sermon topic of the pastor. Mrs. Grace Wickham Deets will give two vocal selections: "Wonderful Mother of Mine," and "Troy Palace." Bible Morris will recite "Mother of Mine." 7:00 Junior B. Y. P. U. in the junior rooms. 7:00 Senior B. Y. P. U. in the parlors. 8:00 the evening service. Special Mother's Day program. Every person attending the service is requested to wear a flower, white for the departed and red for the living mother. Notice the music offered. BILLY OTT and Harry Butler will play violin duets. Frank Grubbe will sing two popular selections: "Mother of Mine" and "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight." The pastor will speak on the subject: "Mothers." An exercise entitled: "A Toast to Mothers" will be given by six young ladies from Mrs. Bonebrake's class.

International Bible Students Association. Meet every Sunday at 11 a. m. at 211 E. Commercial Ave. All are cordially invited to attend these studies. The subject for study this week is Luke 22:28-30. Why was Jesus' invitation to his disciples to drink of his cup the greatest favor ever bestowed upon man? How may one know whether he can partake of the memorial worthily? These and many more questions will be taken up in our study Sunday.

The M. E. Churches at Dillard, Lookingglass, Tenmile and Camas Valley. C. C. Lawrence, T. Hodley, T. Godfrey and W. Reetz, superintendents. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. Proaching at Camas Valley 9:00 a. m. Tenmile 11:15. Special Mother's Day program at Tenmile and Dillard 7:30. Young folks meetings at Dillard and Tenmile. Praying meetings, Dillard Wednesday evening. Lookingglass and Tenmile Thursday evening. Mrs. Holm has charge of the program at Tenmile. The Missionary Society at Dillard is sponsoring the program Sunday evening. A large frame 7 feet by 8 feet has been installed in the church for the program. The different mothers of the Bible will be portrayed with appropriate music and readings. Other mothers will be portrayed. At the close of the service a bouquet of flowers will be given to the oldest mother present and the youngest mother present and the mother with the largest family present and to the best mother. The pastor will be at Dillard in the evening. Everybody should be in church on the Lord's Day. Plan to be with us. T. F. Allen, pastor.

Church of Christ, Myrtle Creek. This will be Mother's Day, and the occasion will be appropriately observed in the Bible school and the morning service. There will be special numbers through all the services, and a Mother's Day sermon by Mr. Ziss. All mothers should attend church on this day; a conveyance will be furnished for the older and infirm, when needed. This has come to be a national day, and is properly patriotic in its influence. Let us make it a great day, friends. The evening pulpit topic will be "God So Loved the World." Y. P. S. C. E. at 7:00 p. m.

First Christian Church, W. H. Third. Pastor, Bible school at 9:45 a. m. D. E. Carr, superintendent. The contest with Grants Pass is now half over. They are still a little ahead—let's catch them this Sunday. The Kumbinus class has charge of the opening exercises and a fine program will be presented. Morning worship begins at 10:50. A real Mother's Day program has been arranged. The sermon subject will be "Calvary and Motherhood." Young Peoples' Christian Endeavor hours at 7:15 p. m. The evening evangelistic ser-

Methodist Episcopal Church. Church school, 9:45; L. E. Goodbourn, superintendent. Morning service, 11 o'clock, subject, "A Mother's Day Sermon." There will be special Mother's Day music by the choir and Mr. Hiett will sing a solo appropriate to the day. Evening service, 8 o'clock, subject, "A Day of Youth." This service will be conducted by the pastor and the Epworth League. Commemorating the fortieth anniversary of the Epworth League, at the close the new officers for the coming year will be installed with a candle lighting service. A cordial welcome to strangers. Charles A. Edwards, minister.

St. George's Episcopal Church, corner Main and Cass streets. Holy communion and sermon at 11 o'clock. Archdeacon Claude J.

Baptist Church, Glade, Oregon. May 12: Bible school, 10 o'clock; Mother's Day program—readings, music and drills by school. Preaching service follows with Mother's Day sermon by Clyde Beard, Roseburg. "Mother's Day." Do not forget to be found in God's house of worship on this day. Our church doors are open wide in this fair land of ours. We invite you.

The Salvation Army, 416 East Lane street. Time of services: Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, holiness meeting; Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Sunday school and Bible class; young people's meeting at 2:45 p. m.; Sunday evening, a great salvation meeting, lesson being brought by the officer in charge, on the subject, "Sin." Do not fail to hear this message. Tuesday night at 7:30, a real old-time praise meeting. Thursday night at 7:30, a prayer meeting in the good old-fashioned way. Saturday night at 7:30, a blood and fire meeting, message being brought by Rev. D. V. Fuson. Don't fail to hear him. There will be a rummage sale Saturday, 9 a. m. Envy and Mrs. H. R. Stufflebeam, officers in charge.

THIEF LEAVES 3 HORSES TO STARVE
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., May 9.—The "meanest thief" is still at large but his infamy has been uncovered. He is a horse thief who stole three horses on the Klamath reservation, locked them up in a deserted barn west of Bonanza and left the animals there to starve. Officers today reported finding the three dead horses inside the barn. No trace of the rascal has been found. It is believed he became frightened and ran away, leaving the horses to die by starvation.
