ROTARIANS WILL ATTEND MEETING AT DALLAS, TEXAS

(Associated Press Local Wire)

DALLAS, Tex., May 17.—Rotarians from nearly 50 nations, including delegations from principal capitals of Europe, South America and the Orient, will gather in Dallas for their world-wide convocation, May 25 to 31.

Dallas expects to entertain more than 10,000 guests during the six day fiesta.

Reminiscence episodes of the old south and pioneer west, presented in pageant, parade and song, will supplement business sessions.

Special events for Rotary Annals, wives of visiting delegates, will include an "old south" party, reviving memories of lost cabin plantation days in Dixie.

Fair park's stadium will be transformed into an international court scene for a "parade of nations."

A cast of several hundred persons is being trained to portray some phases of the life and history of each nation to be represented in the spectacle.

A massed choir of 800 negro voices, singing southern spirituals and modern songs, will appear in one of several concerts scheduled.

The president's ball, listed as a leading social event of the convention, also will be held in Fair park.

Attention typical of pioneer days in Texas will be featured in a carnival display.

Visiting Rotary ministers will occupy pulpits of Dallas churches May 29.

$15,000 DAMAGES AWARDED FROM 5 PORTLAND COPS

(Associated Press Local Wire)

PORTLAND, May 17.—The $15,000 damages for which E. C. Martin, assistant, sued Patrolmen Blake, Cambas, Jacques, Curt and Brier of the Portland police force, was awarded him in a sealed verdict opened today in circuit court.

By order of the court the suit against Jacques was dismissed. The jury decided that Cambas, Curt and Brier should pay $250 each, and that Blake should pay $14,250.

The suit was for false imprisonment growing out of the arrest of Martin on the morning of Oct. 14, 1925, after Blake had shot him as he was entering the door of his apartment when the policeman fired.
