CHECK ARTIST WHO OPERATED HERE HELD ON MANN ACT COUNT

Thomas Mansfield, arrested in Eugene last week on a charge of passing bogus checks, and who, accompanied by a woman, worked a similar bad check game in Roseburg before his arrest in Eugene, has been indicted by the federal grand jury on a white slavery count and will be taken in Portland to face the United States district court, according to word received here.

With the discovery of the stolen automobile in which he brought a woman from California, which upon thorough search revealed the suitcase of the woman and Mansfield, with their personal articles, the Eugene officers feel that they have a complete case against Mansfield on charges of white slavery and automobile theft. Officers have complete evidence on the check charges, they say.

The rear baggage compartment of the car was forced open Wednesday morning, and the suitcases were found. No letters were as-

OAKLAND HOME RAZED BY FIRE

(News-Review Douglas County Special.) OAKLAND, May 23.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Copeland of Trappan was destroyed by fire shortly after noon Wednesday. The roof of the home was aflame before the occupants of the house were aware of the danger. Scarcely anything was saved, and there was no insurance to cover the loss. The piano was moved as far as the porch, but at that point the roof fell in, and the piano was burned with the rest of the home.

NEWS OF OAKLAND

(News-Review Douglas County Special.) OAKLAND, May 23.—The MacMarr store, Twentieth Century, which has been located for the last three years in Oakland, was moved to Sutherland the first of the week where it will continue its business. The junior class of the Oakland high school is making preparations for a banquet to be given in honor of the senior class. The banquet will be held at Boswell Springs hotel Friday evening, May 24. Fred Hanna was called to Cottage Grove Wednesday morning and the contents being mostly personal articles. Two sets of license plates were located under the seat of the coupe. They were Oregon plates, and officers think that they would have been used on the California car had Mansfield not been taken. The car, owned by Earl Owens of Vallejo, Cal., will be returned to the owner.

owing to the death of his father. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller left for Portland Wednesday on a business trip. Ole Bunch of Wendling, Oregon, was an Oakland visitor during the first part of the week.
