

News of Douglas County

GLENDALE NEWS

(Continued from page 5)

done. The fire is thought to have started from sparks from the chimney.

— Mrs. R. E. Hayes left for Kelso, Wash., last Monday, where she will visit her father, A. K. Stodgrass. She expects to be gone about a week.

— Miss Katherine Clarke of Glendale, Cal., and Mrs. L. E. Enayart of Yreka, Cal., are in the city this week as representatives for a line of ladies' wearing apparel. Both of these ladies are well known here as they are former residents of this city. Miss Clarke is a sister of A. G. Clarke of this city, and helped her mother run the Clarke hotel for years, a well known railroad catering house. This hotel was destroyed by fire a number of years ago, and stood where the Southern Pacific cottage occupied by Roadmaster Harris now is located. Mrs. Enayart is a daughter of one of the Cow Creek pioneer families, the Ellipse, and lived in this vicinity as a girl.

— Earl Bennett, a helper at the local Shell station, while driving one of the Shell trucks on the Leland road last Monday slipped off the road and turned the truck over on its side. The truck cab was smashed, but otherwise the truck was not damaged very much as it was able to come in on its own power. Bennett was unhurt.

— Miss Nedra Clark was visited here for several days with her friend, Miss Ethel M. Smith, last for her home at Roseburg last Saturday.

— The Glendale Telephone company has installed new phones this week for the new MacMarr stores and for the new Union Oil plant.

— Dr. H. C. Curry, a Seattle eye specialist who has been making regular trips to this city for many years, was here again the forepart of this week.

— Alec Cunningham returned home Wednesday from Grants Pass where he has been in the hospital with a badly infected hand. The hand is now healing nicely.

— L. E. Normyle transacted business in Portland Wednesday.

— Kenneth Helliwell of Roseburg is employed at the local MacMarr store as a clerk.

— Mr. Elbert, a representative for the National Theatre Supply Co. from Portland, called on Frank Krause at the auditorium Tuesday.

— Tom Harvey of Medford, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Harvey of this city, and who travels for a Portland furniture company, was a caller here Tuesday.

— Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Henninger motored to Canyonville Tuesday evening where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Henninger.

— Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rooder and daughter, Jane, of Butte Falls, visited during the forepart of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Williams. Little Miss Catherine Williams returned with them to Butte Falls for an extended visit. Mrs. Rooder and Mrs. Williams are twin sisters.

— Mr. and Mrs. James Overton and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Henshaw arrived here Wednesday morning from Portland. They took a lot of flowers to the family burial plot in the local cemetery and then drove to the "Gent" Redfield ranch up Cow Creek for a brief visit, before returning to Roseburg that same day where they intended to visit with Mrs. Veda Brown before returning to their homes in Portland. The ladies are all sisters and are daughters of Wm. H. Redfield who resides here. Mrs. Overton was formerly Miss Clara Redfield. The Overtons resided here for a while following the marriage here. "Jim" was a barber in those days and was employed by Jas. Dewey who is now conducting a pool hall here. Jim has been employed as a passenger brakeman by the Southern Pacific out of Portland for many years and is well known from the run from Portland to Roseburg. The Overtons have made their home at Portland for many years. Mrs. Henshaw was formerly Miss Irma Redfield. The Henshaws also have their home in Portland where Mr. Henshaw is employed in the post office.

— Mr. and Mrs. A. Truman Sether spent Sunday fishing up near the head of Cow Creek.

— Mrs. L. C. Barry who was on the sick list the early part of the week is now somewhat better.

— The front of the new MacMarr store is receiving a coat of red and yellow paint which gives the chest a poor girl out of her fan would you?"

"I'll agree to let you try it, on two conditions," Morgan answered slowly. "First, that you let me pay you what I would have to pay a housekeeper; and second, that you take an afternoon a week off from the office and give Curtis and me the great pleasure of your company for dinner. Otherwise I'm afraid it's going to be a bit lonely for the Morgan men."

"Good! I can use a free dinner, every Monday," Nan accepted flippantly, to hide her joy. "You can gamble that Monday dinner will always be a feast. Now I'm going to pack my suitcase and toodle on home or you'll be accusing your housekeeper of 'perverting' the house."

"I'll take you home," said Morgan.

During the six months that followed, Nan Carroll lived from Monday to Monday, and of all the words in the English language, the most important, the most musical, and the most heart-shaking became, so far as Nan Carroll was concerned, "I'll take you home."

For during each of those Monday night drives from the Morgan home to the tiny apartment which she also found time to keep immaculate, the girl played a pathetic little game with herself. She pretended that Morgan was not an abandoned and grief-stricken husband at all, but a young man entirely free to be in love; that she was in love, in fact, and that those Monday night drives were not at all a host's duty to his guest, secretary and housekeeper-employees, but "dates." And so, while the Nan that Morgan knew carried on an animated conversation about Curtis, domestic problems and legal tangles, the Nan that only Nan knew whispered soft, sweet, non-sense with her mythical "steady."

Week by week Nan found joy in measuring John Curtis Morgan's love by definite recovery from the tragic depression into which Iris's desertion had plunged him on that dreadful Friday when he had received her cruelly cut letter. At first, she knew, he fostered a stubborn hope that Iris had decided hastily, that she would write and ask forgiveness, that she would return. But when, after three months of other alienation from his wife, he evidently made up his mind to accept her desertion as final, his sensitive face took on an expression of sad resignation. And after resignation came a sort of peace, for Nan was making him and his boy very comfortable indeed in the beautiful home which she was managing from his office.

Of course it was not so easy as she had pretended to Morgan that it would be. A hundred trivial annoyances and at least half a dozen major problems came up during those six months, requiring far more of her time and energy than Morgan dreamed that she spent on his home affairs. She spared him here, as she had spared him the knowledge that his wife had run away with another man—a man whom he had called friend and whom he had saved from prison.

He would never know from her how near Curtis came to disgrace in school for kicking a teacher until her shins bled. Neither would he know from her that Curtis had stolen money from Estelle to go on a candy orgy which left him so ill that candy had no appeal at all for the boy for weeks afterwards.

From these and many other tragedies she protected the man she loved.

And every Monday night she saw that he was a little more at peace, a little more at ease with her and with his son, whose friendship and confidence he was cultivating, as if he were a little bit jealous of the boy's devotion to Nan.

— Mrs. J. Winchell, her sister, Mrs. Nora Britt, her mother, Mrs. M. A. Miller, her sons, Scott Winchell and Lafon Winchell, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lafon Winchell, from Seattle are expected here the forepart of the week for a brief visit. These people are former residents of this city and valley. It is expected that Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Britt and Mrs. Miller may again be soon numbered among our citizens, as they are buying the J. L. Scott ranch on Windy creek, a former home of theirs, although no definite information is available yet as to their moving back to Glendale.

— Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Oumpangh were at the head of Cow creek fishing last Sunday.

— Jack Orchard of Portland was arrested by Chief of Police George Olinhouse for turning around in the middle of the block last Tuesday. Recorder Wm. B. Lesh fined him $25.

— The poppy sale given under the auspices of the Auxiliary of the American Legion was a success in every way, the citizens of Glendale responding readily as they always do in all worthy causes. The local poppy sales were in charge of Mrs. E. C. Galt, Mrs. Chas. Mortimer and Mrs. E. R. Harvey.

— Frank Nelson, who is employed by the Southern Pacific as a welder, is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Straune, for a few days.

— Guy Gordon, Douglas county's district attorney, was a business caller from Roseburg Thursday.

— Grant Bales, who is associated with his son in The Hub, spent Memorial day at Roseburg.

— A crew of California Oregon Power company's linemen from Medford, with J. H. Jones in charge, arrived here yesterday to make some necessary extensions on some power lines in order to give service to the new Union Oil company's plant here.

— Among some of the new arrivals registered at the Hotel Glendale this week are: F. E. Ellis, San Francisco, Cal.; W. Betts, Alameda, Cal.; J. P. Miles, Durham, Cal.; D. L. Crawford and O. Soderstrom of Portland.

— Mr. E. K. McLendon, a Roseburg real estate dealer, was a business caller here yesterday.

— A. E. Green of Eugene, official inspector representing the West Coast Lumbermen's association, has been here this week since Tuesday checking up on stock from various local sawmills for shipment to the U. S. Navy yard at Mare Island, Cal., and to San Francisco's big water project at Hetch-Hetchy.

— Glendale is probably no better or any worse than any other community when it comes to knowing just what is what concerning flag etiquette. However, Memorial day served to attract call attention to the fact that there are still a few people left who are hoarse as to the proper manner of displaying the flag on Memorial day. For their benefit we publish the rules: On Memorial day the flag is flown at half mast (or staff) from sunrise to noon and full staff from noon to sunset. As a preliminary to half-masting the flag it should be raised to the top of the staff and slowly lowered.

— W. R. Stevenson, the local plumber, put in a connected sewer line from the new Union Oil company's plant to the main sewer at the intersection of Pacific Ave. and First street, this week.

— The Glendale baseball team expects to play the Canyonville baseball team here Sunday.

— Mrs. Meade and her daughter, Miss Lottie Meade and son, Ray Meade, were in the city Wednesday. They are former residents of Glendale. Miss Lottie Meade is one of Grants Pass' school teachers.

Memorial day passed without any formal program at Glendale.

A majority of the city's business places were closed either all or a portion of the day. Most of the mills and logging outfits in the locality operated as usual. During the day a large number of people visited the local cemetery with flowers for the graves of their departed loved ones. Considering the fact that there has been no concerted action to clean up or beautify the cemetery grounds this year, their condition and appearance is fair, due mostly to work done by individuals, as such, fixing up their own plots. This work has helped the general appearance of the cemetery grounds very much but some general cleanup work there would not be amiss and would greatly enhance the individual work already done.

— Mrs. Frank Clarke, formerly

store a distinctive and attractive appearance.

Wm. Levens and his team are employed by J. R. Woodroffe, the logger, this week to grade up the roads in use by the logging trucks. The heavy loads soon pound the roads to pieces and cause large holes unless they are kept graded up all the time.

— The Rebekah lodge at Canyonville was host to a large number of visiting Rebekahs last Tuesday evening from the several nearby cities. Refreshments were served following a splendid program. Sixteen Rebekahs from Glendale attended and all returned, full of praise for the courtesies and hospitality shown them by the Canyonville lodge.

— H. L. Wilson of Grants Pass was a business caller here yesterday. Mr. Wilson conducted a mercantile business here for many years on the corner stores where the Goehrend & Smith and the MacMarr stores now are. He is now engaged in the wholesale grocery business at Grants Pass. His son Lee, who is also well known here, is associated with him.

— W. P. Miller is the proud possessor of a new Pontiac coupe which he purchased this week from the Roseburg agency.

— Frank Muhr of Medford, supervisor of the MacMarr stores in this part of the state was in the city Thursday.

— Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Henninger and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Henninger spent Thursday at Oakland. Mrs. E. L. Henninger returned with them for a visit at the home of her sons, Alvin and Clyde.

— M. E. Nelson while working in the yard of the new mill got a large splinter in his arm yesterday. It was necessary to have Dr. A. J. Fawcett remove it.

— Among some of the new arrivals registered at the Hotel Glendale this week are: F. E. Ellis, San Francisco, Cal.; W. Betts, Alameda, Cal.; J. P. Miles, Durham, Cal.; D. L. Crawford and O. Soderstrom of Portland.

— Mr. E. K. McLendon, a Roseburg real estate dealer, was a business caller here yesterday.

— A. E. Green of Eugene, official inspector representing the West Coast Lumbermen's association, has been here this week since Tuesday checking up on stock from various local sawmills for shipment to the U. S. Navy yard at Mare Island, Cal., and to San Francisco's big water project at Hetch-Hetchy.

— Glendale is probably no better or any worse than any other community when it comes to knowing just what is what concerning flag etiquette. However, Memorial day served to attract call attention to the fact that there are still a few people left who are hoarse as to the proper manner of displaying the flag on Memorial day. For their benefit we publish the rules: On Memorial day the flag is flown at half mast (or staff) from sunrise to noon and full staff from noon to sunset. As a preliminary to half-masting the flag it should be raised to the top of the staff and slowly lowered.

— W. R. Stevenson, the local plumber, put in a connected sewer line from the new Union Oil company's plant to the main sewer at the intersection of Pacific Ave. and First street, this week.

— The Glendale baseball team expects to play the Canyonville baseball team here Sunday.

— Mrs. Meade and her daughter, Miss Lottie Meade and son, Ray Meade, were in the city Wednesday. They are former residents of Glendale. Miss Lottie Meade is one of Grants Pass' school teachers.

Memorial day passed without any formal program at Glendale.

A majority of the city's business places were closed either all or a portion of the day. Most of the mills and logging outfits in the locality operated as usual. During the day a large number of people visited the local cemetery with flowers for the graves of their departed loved ones. Considering the fact that there has been no concerted action to clean up or beautify the cemetery grounds this year, their condition and appearance is fair, due mostly to work done by individuals, as such, fixing up their own plots. This work has helped the general appearance of the cemetery grounds very much but some general cleanup work there would not be amiss and would greatly enhance the individual work already done.

— Mrs. Frank Clarke, formerly

Mrs. J. Winchell, her sister, Mrs. Nora Britt, her mother, Mrs. M. A. Miller, her sons, Scott Winchell and Lafon Winchell, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lafon Winchell, from Seattle are expected here the forepart of the week for a brief visit. These people are former residents of this city and valley. It is expected that Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Britt and Mrs. Miller may again be soon numbered among our citizens, as they are buying the J. L. Scott ranch on Windy creek, a former home of theirs, although no definite information is available yet as to their moving back to Glendale.

— Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Oumpangh were at the head of Cow creek fishing last Sunday.

— Jack Orchard of Portland was arrested by Chief of Police George Olinhouse for turning around in the middle of the block last Tuesday. Recorder Wm. B. Lesh fined him $25.

— The poppy sale given under the auspices of the Auxiliary of the American Legion was a success in every way, the citizens of Glendale responding readily as they always do in all worthy causes. The local poppy sales were in charge of Mrs. E. C. Galt, Mrs. Chas. Mortimer and Mrs. E. R. Harvey.

— Frank Nelson, who is employed by the Southern Pacific as a welder, is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Straune, for a few days.

— Guy Gordon, Douglas county's district attorney, was a business caller from Roseburg Thursday.

— Grant Bales, who is associated with his son in The Hub, spent Memorial day at Roseburg.

— A crew of California Oregon Power company's linemen from Medford, with J. H. Jones in charge, arrived here yesterday to make some necessary extensions on some power lines in order to give service to the new Union Oil company's plant here.

— Among some of the new arrivals registered at the Hotel Glendale this week are: F. E. Ellis, San Francisco, Cal.; W. Betts, Alameda, Cal.; J. P. Miles, Durham, Cal.; D. L. Crawford and O. Soderstrom of Portland.

— Mr. E. K. McLendon, a Roseburg real estate dealer, was a business caller here yesterday.

— A. E. Green of Eugene, official inspector representing the West Coast Lumbermen's association, has been here this week since Tuesday checking up on stock from various local sawmills for shipment to the U. S. Navy yard at Mare Island, Cal., and to San Francisco's big water project at Hetch-Hetchy.

— Glendale is probably no better or any worse than any other community when it comes to knowing just what is what concerning flag etiquette. However, Memorial day served to attract call attention to the fact that there are still a few people left who are hoarse as to the proper manner of displaying the flag on Memorial day. For their benefit we publish the rules: On Memorial day the flag is flown at half mast (or staff) from sunrise to noon and full staff from noon to sunset. As a preliminary to half-masting the flag it should be raised to the top of the staff and slowly lowered.

— W. R. Stevenson, the local plumber, put in a connected sewer line from the new Union Oil company's plant to the main sewer at the intersection of Pacific Ave. and First street, this week.

— The Glendale baseball team expects to play the Canyonville baseball team here Sunday.

— Mrs. Meade and her daughter, Miss Lottie Meade and son, Ray Meade, were in the city Wednesday. They are former residents of Glendale. Miss Lottie Meade is one of Grants Pass' school teachers.

Memorial day passed without any formal program at Glendale.

A majority of the city's business places were closed either all or a portion of the day. Most of the mills and logging outfits in the locality operated as usual. During the day a large number of people visited the local cemetery with flowers for the graves of their departed loved ones. Considering the fact that there has been no concerted action to clean up or beautify the cemetery grounds this year, their condition and appearance is fair, due mostly to work done by individuals, as such, fixing up their own plots. This work has helped the general appearance of the cemetery grounds very much but some general cleanup work there would not be amiss and would greatly enhance the individual work already done.

— Mrs. Frank Clarke, formerly

store a distinctive and attractive appearance.

Wm. Levens and his team are employed by J. R. Woodroffe, the logger, this week to grade up the roads in use by the logging trucks. The heavy loads soon pound the roads to pieces and cause large holes unless they are kept graded up all the time.

— The Rebekah lodge at Canyonville was host to a large number of visiting Rebekahs last Tuesday evening from the several nearby cities. Refreshments were served following a splendid program. Sixteen Rebekahs from Glendale attended and all returned, full of praise for the courtesies and hospitality shown them by the Canyonville lodge.

— H. L. Wilson of Grants Pass was a business caller here yesterday. Mr. Wilson conducted a mercantile business here for many years on the corner stores where the Goehrend & Smith and the MacMarr stores now are. He is now engaged in the wholesale grocery business at Grants Pass. His son Lee, who is also well known here, is associated with him.

— W. P. Miller is the proud possessor of a new Pontiac coupe which he purchased this week from the Roseburg agency.

— Frank Muhr of Medford, supervisor of the MacMarr stores in this part of the state was in the city Thursday.

— Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Henninger and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Henninger spent Thursday at Oakland. Mrs. E. L. Henninger returned with them for a visit at the home of her sons, Alvin and Clyde.

— M. E. Nelson while working in the yard of the new mill got a large splinter in his arm yesterday. It was necessary to have Dr. A. J. Fawcett remove it.

— Among some of the new arrivals registered at the Hotel Glendale this week are: F. E. Ellis, San Francisco, Cal.; W. Betts, Alameda, Cal.; J. P. Miles, Durham, Cal.; D. L. Crawford and O. Soderstrom of Portland.

— Mr. E. K. McLendon, a Roseburg real estate dealer, was a business caller here yesterday.

— A. E. Green of Eugene, official inspector representing the West Coast Lumbermen's association, has been here this week since Tuesday checking up on stock from various local sawmills for shipment to the U. S. Navy yard at Mare Island, Cal., and to San Francisco's big water project at Hetch-Hetchy.

— Glendale is probably no better or any worse than any other community when it comes to knowing just what is what concerning flag etiquette. However, Memorial day served to attract call attention to the fact that there are still a few people left who are hoarse as to the proper manner of displaying the flag on Memorial day. For their benefit we publish the rules: On Memorial day the flag is flown at half mast (or staff) from sunrise to noon and full staff from noon to sunset. As a preliminary to half-masting the flag it should be raised to the top of the staff and slowly lowered.

— W. R. Stevenson, the local plumber, put in a connected sewer line from the new Union Oil company's plant to the main sewer at the intersection of Pacific Ave. and First street, this week.

— The Glendale baseball team expects to play the Canyonville baseball team here Sunday.

REBEKAH LODGE OF CANYONVILLE GIVES PROGRAM

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

CANYONVILLE, June 1.—The Rebekah lodge of Canyonville entertained the Glendale Rebekahs on Tuesday evening, May 28. After the regular session the following program, prepared by Mrs. C. S. Beals, Mrs. M. E. Manley and Mrs. Clara Totten was enjoyed by all:

Duet—Mr. Kirby and daughter, Pansy.

Reading—Mrs. Alice Rachor.

Violin Solo—Anna Mae Manley.

Piano Solo—Evelyn Willis.

Reading—Mrs. O. A. Kirby.

Piano Solo—Lorena Kirby.

Play, "Father Improves His Memory," by Priscilla Worthington.

Frances Rachor, Beatrice Worthington, Ermiel Chaney and John Hutchins.

Vocal Duet—Dolly Knight and Beatrice Worthington.

Reading—Mrs. Walter Cornutt.

Refreshments were ice cream and cake.

EXERCISES HELD ON MEMORIAL DAY BY DRAIN PEOPLE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

DRAIN, June 1.—The Decoration day exercises, held in the partially completed new hall in the city park, were carried out according to program, the drum corps of the Cottage Grove American Legion and a squad of the National Guard company of that city being present to assist. The address of the day, delivered by Mr. Canaday of the Roseburg land office, was a masterpiece, the speaker giving special emphasis to the fact that this country had never engaged in a war of conquest but took up arms only for the preservation of right and justice, whether between nations within our borders or between this and other nations. "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" were sung by the audience and Mrs. Stanley Bond and a male quartet each rendered a vocal selection. The assembly, headed by the drum corps, then marched to the cemetery in north town where the exercises were concluded.

NEW LOCATION FOR UMPQUA'S COAST STATION PROPOSED

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

WINCHESTER BAY, June 1.—At a recent meeting of the taxpayers of Winchester Bay it was voted to circulate a petition to have the Umpqua coast guard station moved from the north side of the river to the south side. Since the north jetty was built the channel has changed, and it is impossible to see the bar from the lookout station. The present station was built over 32 years ago and is badly in need of repairs. There are two petitions out at the present time.

EVERGREEN GRANGE INITIATES CLASS INTO 2 DEGREES

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GREEN, June 1.—The regular meeting of Evergreen grange was

John Deere Mowers

They have special features that make them long-lived and convenient.

Don't buy until you see them. Special carload prices, while they last.

SPECIAL

Used 2-Horse Cultivator $40.00
2 in. Centrifugal Pump $35.00

Farm Bureau Cooperative Exchange

Roseburg Oakland

AGENTS FOR
L. & H. Electric Ranges
Hood River Spray Co.
Sutherland Spray Co.
Dean Spray Pump Co.
John Deere Plow Co.
Hosier and Milwaukee Pumps held May 25 but, because the full class of candidates was not present, it was decided to give the first and second degrees at the Wigwam May 28th.

Following the regular order of business Mrs. McCulloch, lecturer, presented the following program.

Readings, Mrs. McKay, Jim Nichols and Fern and Freda Fletcher; piano solo, Robt. McKay; reading, Beattie Telford; dialogue, Geo. and Edward Nichols; story, Tom Fletcher; reading, Mrs. Winston; was enjoyed.

story, Mrs. McCulloch. The program was followed by a bountiful supper.

The special meeting was held as planned at the Wigwam Tuesday evening, at which time the first two degrees were given to Mr. Abner Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Spackman, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Fisher, Mrs. Ballou and Jim Nichols.

Following the initiatory work, supper and an evening of dancing was enjoyed.

Summer School a Pleasure

In new, light, cool, and well ventilated rooms on the second floor of the Miner Building—

Our three months' Summer School opens Monday, June 3

Hours—8:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. each school day, during June, July, and August. Ask about it. It's a good school.

EUGENE BUSINESS COLLEGE

A. E. ROBERTS, President
Telephone 666 Miner Building Eugene, Oregon

Douglas Abstract Co.

INCORPORATED
CAPITAL $25,000.00

Abstracts, Blue Prints, Farm Loans, City Loans, Title Insurance.

DIRECTORS
W. F. Harris, Pres.
Henry Harth
A. G. Sutherland, Vice-President
H. O. Pargeter, Sec'y-Treasurer

MONEY

Compare Our Rates With Those of Other Organizations Doing Business in the State

Schedule set out below shows the total amount it costs to carry our various loans per month.

We have no requirement that our borrowers take additional investment stock.

Amount Borrowed	Principal	Interest	Total Monthly Payment
$ 500.00	$ 3.00	$ 3.34	$ 6.34
1000.00	5.00	6.67	11.67
1500.00	8.00	10.00	18.00
2000.00	10.00	13.34	23.34
2500.00	13.00	16.67	29.67
3000.00	15.00	20.01	35.01
3500.00	18.00	23.34	41.34
4000.00	20.00	26.67	46.67
4500.00	23.00	30.00	53.00
5000.00	25.00	33.33	58.33