MISSIONS KEEP ON WINNING AND DUCKS ARE STILL LOSING

Pacific Coast league leaders continued their victorious advance in yesterday's victory battles for the "49" honors.

The Los Angeles Angels met more grief at the hands of the dangerous San Francisco Mission leads in the southern city, virtually in the same manner as in the affair of the day before. Good pitching put the skills under the Krump and the Missions won hands down with a 3 to 2 score. The Missions now lead the league with 18 wins out of 48.

Walter Kinney, Hollywood south-paw, pitched a masterful game at Recreation in the fifth, which came in the San Francisco Seals scored all their runs; and the bay team won the game with a tally of 6 to 1.

Sacramento took advantage of the Seattle errors and won another ball game at Sacramento by scoring three runs in the ninth inning. Frisch and Dickerman started on the mound, but were unable to survive the second inning. Pippas and Hyman took up the hurling and battled on even terms, although Pippas held a two-run advantage until he blew up in the final frame and filled the bases. The final score was 7 to 6.

The Oakland Oaks made it three straight over the lame Portland Ducks at Emeryville. This time the score was 3 to 1, as the result of a tight pitching battle between Howard Craghead and Fullerton. The Ducks were held to but a single hit while the Oaks fared little better with only three.

THE TINY TILES

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE!

The scarecrow looked a sad, and slight, "cause he was in an awful plight. He couldn't stand on his own feet and, as he sprawled around, he said, "Oh, what am I to do? I fear I cannot play with you. It isn't any fun at all, just loafing on the ground."

"Now wait a minute," Seamy cried. "We'll find some plan that can be tried. But in the meantime it will do no good for you to fuss. We are the ones who lent a hand to set you free. Now you must stand. I'm sure that we will make you, if you'll leave it all to us."

Then Clowzy snapped, "What is your plan? I'll gladly do all that I can, but I feel sure the scarecrow's not supposed to use his feet. I guess we should have left him there upon the post. It isn't fair to leave him on the cold, cold ground. We'll show weren't dis-reect."

All of this time the Goofy-zoo was wondering just what they could do. And then he had a happy hunch. "Oh, listen here," he cried. "We all admit he isn't strong, and that's the one thing that seems wrong. I think he's shy of straw and needs a whole lot more inside."

This made the funny scarecrow grin. "You're right," he said. "Please stuff some in. Just fill my legs with straw until they both are good and tight. That's sure to make them carry me, and I think how happy I will be. Just follow my advice and everything will be all right."

The bunch agreed this plan was great. It seemed that they could hardly wait till they had gathered corn husks. Then the stuffing job began. "Ah, ha," cried Clowzy. "We are good. We do most everything we should. And can we stuff the scarecrow? Why, shucks, you bet we can."
