his Funeral Home, but no arrangements have yet been made for the funeral services.

No charge has been made against the driver of the truck, who, according to witnesses, was driving slowly and carefully. The truck, despite the fact that it was on a downgrade, was stopped within eight feet, indicating that there was no speed being made in the congested district. Officers have as yet not decided whether an inquest will be held. A thorough examination was made by Sheriff Jackson, Chief of Police Vaughn and Coroner Stearns.

FUNERAL SERVICES JAMES A. STEPHENS TO BE HELD TODAY

Mr. James Alva Stephens passed away at his farm home last Saturday at noon after a long illness, and was removed to Stearns chapel at Oakland. Mr. Stephens was born on Nov. 25, 1858, on the old farm at Stephens postoffice on the Calapooia and was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Stephens, pioneers who crossed the plains in 1852 coming from Iowa. He was married to Miss Ida Oliver of Pomeroy in 1881 and to this union were born six children. He is survived by his wife and the following children, Alva of Oakland, Ore.; Mrs. Bertha Carille, and Mrs. Maude Thompson both of Umpqua, Ore.; Mrs. Augie Monner, Portland, and Mrs. Edith Bond, Sutherlin; Raymond Stephens, Reedsport, Ore., eleven grandchildren and one sister, Cassie Clark of Milwood, Ore. He was a member of the Baptist church and Woodmen of the World. Funeral services will be held today at 2 p. m. in the Community church of Oakland. Rev. Robertson, officiating. Interment will take place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. H. C. Stearns of the Douglas Funeral Home is in charge of funeral arrangements.

FLOWER SHOW IS DECIDED SUCCESS

The flower and rose show held last week closed on Saturday evening and many expressions of appreciation and enthusiasm are heard in the city and from out of town visitors. The show was a success in every way and proved one of the finest ever held in this city.

Awards were announced on Saturday and in addition several awards were made for sweet peas, snapdragons and delphiniums, not announced in the first list.

The awards were as follows: Sweet peas, first, Miss Minnie Easton; second, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly; third, Mrs. Wilcox; dark, first Mrs. T. M. Ollivant; second and third, Mrs. H. C. Waddell. Snapdragons: first, Mrs. M. Hitter; second, Mrs. Fred Chapman; third, Mrs. S. A. Sanford. Delphinium: first, Mrs. S. Evans; second, Mrs. F. J. Norton.

Two interesting displays were made by commercial growers and although not permitted to compete for awards were worthy of note. C. E. Moyer of Dillard had an exceptional display of peonies, and Robert McKay of Brockway brought in an assortment of lilies which were of unusual beauty.

THE TINYMITES

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

Across the cornfield, high and low, the Tinymites were glad to go. Their funny friend the scarecrow led the way in merry glee. "I don't just one thing to do. We'll search and see what we can find. Come on, don't hesitate." "They traveled through the corn real fast. Then Coppy yelled, aloud, 'At last! I see what made that crazy noise.' The scarecrow promptly sighed. 'Don't let him worry you,' said he. 'I'll walk up first. You follow me. Perhaps, it has a friendly mule, he'll give us all a ride.' "You bet," said Scouty. "I feel great, and frankly, I can hardly wait until we reach some little town with queer folks living there. It's been some time, it seems to me, since we have been where we could see some friendly tots who treat us nice, and don't give us a scare." "Just then they heard a funny noise. The scarecrow whispered, 'Listen, boys! What made that
