in prohibition enforcement. The measure declared the "excessive toll" of lives taken by federal agents had culminated in an "assassination" at International Falls and "caused the citizens of the republic to be fearful that their lives may be snuffed out at any time they traverse the public highways."

Seymour Lowman, assistant secretary of the treasury, in a statement today said Customs Patrolman Cox who shot Archibald Eugster at Detroit, did it "in the regular line of his duty" when rum runners tried to recapture a boat seized by a customs officer.

Prohibition Commissioner Doran also announced he had received a report of the shooting yesterday at Fort Baird Veterans' hospital, New Mexico, of J. J. Thompson, by a deputy sheriff and a prohibition agent, the report, he said, showed the officers were justified in shooting Thompson, who, it was added, had opened fire on the officers when he was apprehended in the act of delivering whiskey. His capture was the result of a drive by prohibition agents to prevent bootleggers from selling whiskey in the vicinity of Fort Baird Veterans' hospital.

No Dry Agent Praise
MADISON, Wis., June 13.—A resolution was introduced in the state senate last night praising federal dry agents "for their failure to shoot anyone" during the prohibition raid at the republican's diamond jubilee celebration at Ripon, Wis., last Saturday. The resolution was killed, 20 to 7.

The measure was introduced by Senators James A. Barker of Antigo and Ben Gettelman, Milwaukee. It declared the agents' "failure to kill anyone" at Ripon "was unusual in view of the shooting by a dry agent at International Falls, Minn., of a civilian, and the fact that 124 civilians were killed in the enforcement of prohibition from 1920 to 1928." 8 Sentenced in Portland

PORTLAND, June 13.—Seven men and a woman were today sentenced in federal court on liquor law violations and for possession and operation of stills. The eight were indicted on charges of conspiring to violate the national prohibition laws by operating stills in Marion county, on the Boone's Ferry road and near Tward, Ore.

Those sentenced were: Leslie B. Case, Horace Case, Victor Kyle and E. C. Kyle, each thirteen months; Francis Krebs, nine months; George Shaffer, four months, and Joe Johnson, thirty days.

The prisoners sentenced to more than a year were committed to McNeil island, and the others to the county jail.

E. C. Kyle was paroled because of severe illness. He pleaded guilty by proxy.

Harry C. Stearns' History of Roseburg and the State of Oregon

THERE were Indians all around Aaron Rose's land, members of both the Umpqua and Calapooia tribes, but they made no trouble for Mr. Rose, since he was always very careful to treat his red-skinned neighbors fairly, and to preserve their friendship.

One of the Indians entered Mr. Rose's service, and for many years was known far and wide as "Rose's Him"—a title of which the Indian was inordinately proud.
