BATHING BEAUTY CONTEST PLANNED AT IDLEYLD PARK

Management Announces 2 New Features for the Fourth of July Celebration.

IDLEYLD PARK, June 20.—(Special to the News-Review)—Plans for the Fourth of July celebration at Idleyld Park are now demanding a great deal of attention. Two new features have been added to the program for the day. One will be a bathing beauty contest and the other saddle horse racing.

The bathing beauty contest will be under the direction of Charles O'Malley of Roseburg. On account of the size of the beach and pool the class will of necessity be small.

The saddle horse competition, also a newly added feature, promises to be one of the best events of the day. Seven entries have already been promised, which assures a lively and interesting race.

The management is giving a great deal of time to provide a day of complete entertainment for the patrons of Idleyld Park, and is inviting the general public to participate as well.

The program will open with a basket dinner at 12 o'clock; program and address 1:30 to 3:00; bathing beauty show, races, sports, 3:00 to 5:30 p. m.; dancing afternoon and evening.

Hon. Dexter Rice of Roseburg will be chairman of the program, and the address will be delivered by Hon. A. C. Marsters of Roseburg.

STORMS ARE CHECK ON TOURIST TRAVEL TO BANDON BEACH

BANDON, June 20.—The heavy storms of the past two weeks have put a check on the tourist season, which should have started in earnest the first week in June.

Owing to the rains and cold weather the real tourists—campers—have not taken to the road yet and those who are now traveling must spend the nights in cabins or hotels and suffer discomforts while on the road. The heavy storms really intensify the beauty of the coast country though, and anyone who braves the discomfort of travel to drive down the Roosevelt highway now is well rewarded in seeing the storm sweeping over the dark pines, blooming rhododendrons, and the tall grasses of the hillsides. The ocean, usually so calm at this month, is all achurn on the rocks, sometimes throwing spray onto the very road where the cars must pass. It is indeed a wild and beautiful scene the storms make of the coast highway this week.

CHURCH WILL HOLD PICNIC AT BANDON BEACH

BANDON, June 20.—(Special to the News-Review)—The annual Northwest conference of the M. E. church, South, will be held in Coquille this year, beginning on June 19th and lasting until June 26. The meetings of the conference will be held in the M. E. church, South, of Coquille and rooms in private homes and camping sites will be provided for the visiting ministers who have already begun to come from all parts of the Pacific Northwest.

A full program to take up the entire week will consist of lectures, music, committee meetings, picnics, etc., and some very good speakers and entertainers will be attending the conference. It is planned to take the visitors, when there is any spare time during a day, to see some of the different beauty spots of the county, on short drives and picnics.

Classes in Epworth League, Sunday school, pastors' school and school of missions, with 15 very able instructors in charge, will begin on the morning of the 20th and last through the rest of the week.

The annual picnic of the conference will be held at the Bandon beach on June 22.

AN APPRECIATION OF EARL VOSBURGH

By MAJOR LAWRENCE MOTT

It is written that "the laborer is worthy of his hire."

This being indubitably true I am minded to paint a word picture of a man, of his efforts against odds that were heavy, at times, and of the very splendid results that he has almost literally hewn from the "forest primeval"—speaking in poetic language.

I have still to find out something that Earl Vosburgh hasn't at least a speaking acquaintance with! Not a "Jack of all trades and master of none"—as is usually the case, but I find that mine host at Idleyld park has an unusually solid foundation along many lines, whereon to build, should he be so minded.

With shrewd foresight he looked down the always hazy corridors of the future and decided that the time would come when a camping and recreation ground would be needed on the North Umpqua. (As an aside: the ONE thing that the whole county needs, if it hopes to adequately care for sportsmen and the ever-increasing flood of summer visitors, is ADEQUATE means of housing them! Not only along the main arteries of travel, but along the river roads, for it is to these that anglers—especially—will gravitate more and more. WHY write extensively of the splendid sport to be had in the county, lure people here from afar, and then have no fit accommodations? That is "bad business," for the eagerly hopeful visitor—be he angler, hunter, or just plain "tourist"—goes away annoyed and disgusted, and no worse kind of advertising exists than to send "customers" away dissatisfied!)

Some seven years ago "Idleyld" began, with a cabin or two of Vosburgh's own fashioning. In his mind he had a "dream child" to be set along the flower-laden banks of the lovely river, and from that time to this he has steadily plugged along, with a dogged determination that I both respect and admire. It is of such stuff that our forebears were made, when they chopped and sawed the first thirteen states out of a gigantic wilderness.

A severe fire wiped out his best building and a garage. That was a blow below the belt. But it did not phase him!

And all this time he was building up still another business that today is more than holding its own—and I mean his most delicious tamales and potato chips enterprise. On the side, as it were, this indomitable Vosburgh takes a lively and personal interest in some silver and lead mining properties. He belongs to several of the local fraternal organizations—and he and his big, comfortable "Mother's Cookies" car are on the road, covering a wide territory, five days of the seven! The other two find him at his "Dream Place" on the river—"Idleyld"—with his coat off, working like a Trojan at something or another from early morn' until the shadows o' the day's end have long since fallen.

Now THAT is what I call a full life! !

No man's life is complete without a wife—always providing that she be the right kind, and not a millstone draped about a man's neck—th' which many wives are—more's the pity! In Mrs. Vosburgh, this tireless hustler has a "right hand" in truth—and not in poetry! Enthusiastic, resourceful and intensely energetic, Mrs. Vosburgh is so much part and parcel of his life that so ideal a partnership is enough to give one cause to stop and cogitate a bit. They plan everything together—and execute their plans together!

Today the Vosburgh resort has twelve most comfortable cabins, several of them of double size. A well equipped general store has practically everything that the camper and sportsman might require. A gas and oil station. A good dancing platform set among the towering pines. And very excellent fishing, either up or down the river or at one's back door—so to speak.

We—my Right Hand and I—have been here for several days and despite a rain that soothingly—and seemingly ceaselessly!—patters on the roof of our warm and comfy cabin, we are thoroughly enjoying ourselves! In actual charge of the establishment are Mr. and Mrs. Winkler—and t'would be difficult indeed to find two people—anywhere—who make more successful efforts to keep their guests happy and comfortable! The new dining room—Mrs. Mott and I christened, and I warrant me that it will be well filled at meal times, during the coming season!

In brief: what Douglas county needs is more men of the John Ewell and Earl Vosburgh type! Men who SEE AND APPRECIATE THE GREAT POSSIBILITIES of this most beautiful section of the country and who get out and ACCOMPLISH THINGS—instead of talking about that which OUGHT to be done!
