Well, Well! Glad to See Your Back

At this point, someone shot the bromide outline writer and his successor can only say that the back on the left belongs to Diane Ellis and that on the right to Carol Lombard, who keep well and strong for Hollywood film work by sitting on the beach and letting old Sol gaze upon their backs. coast guard boys, during the morning. A baseball game between two of the Bay Valley league teams has been scheduled for the afternoon and there will be races and sports for the children before the game starts. Manager Topping of the Silver Spray Gardens is arranging a special Fourth of July dance and the Hartman theatre will be prepared to entertain visitors with a good "talkie".

Bandon is now better able than ever before to take care of large crowds, inasmuch as it has better hotel accommodations, more rooms and more cabins for camping, as all the auto parks have enlarged their facilities and built more cabins. Plenty of space for outdoor camping is available, too.
