DAILY VACATION
BIBLE SCHOOL ENDS

The summer Bible school, now being held at the Presbyterian church, will close its four-week session Friday morning with a special program for the public. Parents of the pupils are urged to attend. The school has been very successful from the standpoint of attendance and interest, exceeding that of last year. Much credit is due to faithful teachers who gave so willingly of their time and strength to make the school a success. The program begins promptly at 9:30 a. m. when a general review of the work will be given by the pupils.

For the afternoon a picnic is planned for parents and pupils in Bellows park, corner of Empress and Military street. Ice cream and lemonade will be served. Swings have been provided for the little folks and a ball game for the older pupils. Parents driving to the park are asked to come by the church and offer transportation to those who have none. The picnic hours are from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.
