

NATIONAL GUARD COMPANY RETURNS FROM BEACH CAMP

Co. D., 162 Infantry, returned to Roseburg Thursday morning, following the two weeks' summer camp at Camp Clatsop, near Astoria. The boys had a very enjoyable time, and received a great deal of valuable instruction in military work. The sham battle, which attracted thousands of people on Saturday, June 22, furnished the boys practice in actual battle tactics, giving them some very valuable lessons. The company made a fine record in the athletic contests and stood high among the national guard units in efficiency in military work.

ALASKAN STARTS FOR NEW YORK IN 75-POUND CRAFT

(Associated Press Local Wire) JUNEAU, June 28.—Albert Voight left today in his walrus skin boat for New York. He will make the long trip alone in his 75-pound craft, using only a paddle and a small sail for power. He hoped to reach there in five or six months. The boat was loaded with canned food, bedding and a few clothes. His cooking utensils were limited to a saucepan and a small cup.

$25,000 DAMAGE SUIT SEQUEL TO LIQUOR SEARCH

(Associated Press Local Wire) PORTLAND, June 27.—Mandating by four vice squad officers is charged in a $25,000 personal injury suit filed here today by Ray Wilcox. He declares H. W. Greene, Kenneth A. McDowell, C. E. Sanders and C. H. Robertson, the officers, entered his apartment June 19 with a John Doe warrant, searching for liquor. Finding none, the complaint declares, the officers insisted he had some concealed and beat him to make him reveal it. Wilcox asserts the men then filled the bathtub with water and ducked him in it until his nose bled and he was rendered unconscious. He declares he was permanently injured by the treatment.
