VETERANS EXPRESS THANKS FOR LOCAL AID IN CONVENTION

The Spanish American War Veterans who completed their 21st annual encampment in this city yesterday were greatly delighted with the hospitality shown in Roseburg. Resolutions of thanks were adopted by both organizations, expressing appreciation for the many courtesies shown. The resolution was as follows: "Resolved: That we express our sincere appreciation and heartfelt thanks for the royal entertainment while in the city of Roseburg. To the good people of Roseburg, Dr. Hoover Mayor, George Starmer Camp No. 19 and George Starmer Auxiliary No. 15, to our official host and hostess, Comrade Starmer, commandant of the Soldiers Home and Mrs. Starmer, Mrs. Wright, president of the Auxiliary; to the management of the several hotels; Rogue River Camp No. 22 for the beautiful gladiolus, and all other organizations for their courteous treatment. To the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for the use of their beautiful lodge rooms for the convention. To the Roseburg Kiwanis club orchestra, the Umpqua Post, American Legion, drum corps and to E. A. Post, adjutant at the Oregon Soldiers Home. To all committees of the convention who have served so efficiently and untiringly to make this convention a success. To the efficient drill team of Scout Young Auxiliary No. 3 for their beautiful drill. To the press of Roseburg, the Roseburg News-Review for the reports of the gathering."

The resolution was adopted by both organizations. Another resolution also praised the efficient manner in which S. W. Starmer, commandant of the Oregon Soldiers Home is conducting that institution. The veterans and ladies made a thorough inspection at the home and found the veterans being exceptionally well cared for, and everything being done for their comfort and pleasure that the limited finances will permit. Commander E. L. Clark, yesterday evening completed his appointment and announced the following officers as members of his staff: John Buchter, Medford, chief of staff; Elmer Lambers, Portland, judge advocate; John G. Abele, Portland, surgeon; I. G. Shaw, Cottage Grove, chaplain; L. R. Hale, La Grande, marshal and Semaca Fouts, Portland, liaison officer.

ELLEN POST HURT WHILE VISITING PORTLAND FRIENDS

Mrs. Ellen Post, who has been visiting at Portland for several days, received a very painful injury yesterday, according to word received here. She had been shopping at a store on Bradstone avenue and, as she left the building, slipped in the entrance and fell to the sidewalk. Two bones in her ankle were broken. Mr. Post, who is adjutant at the Oregon Soldiers Home, left immediately upon receiving word of the accident, and reported this morning by telephone that the bones have been reset and the leg is in a cast. He expects to bring Mrs. Post home Saturday.

Why Suffer Stomach Trouble All Your Life?

Thousands of men and women who were physical wrecks from stomach troubles, who couldn't sleep, who couldn't eat without after-misery, and whose kidneys, bowels and liver were out of order, now enjoy old-time energy and relish their food since taking Tanlac. Mrs. Fred Westin, of 387 E. 57th St., North, Portland, Ore., says: "Tanlac cured my stomach trouble completely after three years suffering. It built me up to perfect health, with a gain of 27 lbs. That was two years ago, and I still enjoy the best of health." Tanlac contains no mineral drugs of any kind, just a special combination of selected herbs, roots and salts, recognized to be of high medicinal value. Quick benefit and relief from stomach distress is almost sure to follow the use of Tanlac. Get a bottle today from your druggist and let it start right in correcting those troubles which make you so miserable. Money back if it doesn't help.

All-Talking Picture at Antlers

Wallace Beery and Florence Vidor in "Chinatown Nights" a Paramount Picture based on the story "Tong War"

There is more mystery in one Chinese standing in a shadowy Chinatown doorway than in all the mystery stories ever written. And in "Chinatown Nights," which opens at 3 day run at the Antlers today there are more than five hundred Chinese revealed in all the intriguing and little known business of their powerful towns. "Chinatown Nights" is a picture for everyone who loves drama, excitement and mystery. The suspense and action of the picture are excellently handled and the revelation of the inscrutable practices of Chinese long-life are surprising. A superior cast of screen artists enact this superb drama. Wallace Beery, Florence Vidor, Warner Oland and Jack Ockie head the cast of noted screen players. The picture was directed by William A. Wellman, the man who made "Wings."

CHICAGO BANDITS GET $22,000 BOOTY NEAR TRAFFIC JAM

ner to drive back onto the highway, still crowded with hundreds of machines. Seigel, despite the pistol protruding his back, managed to open the car door with his foot and when the traffic procession was halted by a train, he leaped from the car and ran toward a bus. "Has anyone got a gun?" he cried. "Duck your heads! It's a robbery!" The two robbers jumped from their car, pistols in hand, and pursued him, but made no effort to fire. They then jumped into their own car, which was close behind Grabner's and were driven swiftly away down a side road.

TRACTORS DAMAGE ROAD
Cleated tractors are doing considerable damage to the newly oiled roads of the county, according to F. C. Frear, county engineer. The state law provides that cleated tractors must be kept off these roads, as they tear up the surface and completely ruin the roads. The supreme court of Oregon recently upheld a heavy fine imposed upon a firm that disobeyed the ruling.
