HEALTH WORK IN THIS COUNTY IS PICNIC SUBJECT

"Community Leadership—The Keystone of Public Health" will be the subject of an address to be given at the picnic meeting of the Douglas County Public Health association Wednesday, at Umpqua park. The speaker, Lloyd Wilcox, publicity director of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, has been invited to confer with the community groups attending the meeting regarding the coming membership campaign of the county health association.

Health projects of special interest will be discussed at the meetings, and such projects as meet with general approval will be financed as far as possible with the accumulated membership fees.

LANDMARK'S NAME TO HONOR NOTED BANDON SURGEON

(News-Review Douglas County Special) BANDON, Ore., July 30.—The branch U. S. hydrographic office at San Francisco is considering the changing of the name of Table Rock, the main rock of the Cape Blanco reef, on which Dr. R. V. Leep of this city met death, to Leep Rock, as a memorial to the late physician and surgeon. Dr. Leep was the official medical inspector here and was held in high esteem in government circles as well as with all the people of Coos and Curry counties. The suggestion of naming the rock for him came from an official of the hydrographic office who was camped in Curry county at the time of the accident and who marveled at the universal expression of grief on the part of the populace. He took the matter up with his superior and a letter to Ena McKenzie of Port Orford asked that the suggestion be placed before the Bandon Chamber of Commerce. The chamber adopted a resolution in favor of the memorial, providing the same meets with the wishes of the relatives of Dr. Leep.

Pratt, president of the American Forestry association, today urged government, state and private agencies to drastic action to prevent what might become a national catastrophe. Mr. Pratt said present means for prevention and protection are "hopelessly inadequate," and pointed to fires sweeping over thousands of acres in California and the Pacific Northwest with little relief in sight. He cited that in the Modoc national forest in California more than 50,000,000 board feet of lumber have been burned and more than 8,000 acres of forest land burned over. Another fire is raging in Minnesota.
