

Local News

TWO ALL-TALKIES ARE BOOKED FOR THIS WEEK

Visits Applewhite—

Mrs. Jessie Paulkerson, a former resident of Roseburg, now living in Corvallis, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Applewhite this week.

Westbrook on Board—

Bert R. Westbrook, former Roseburg hotel man, now manager of the Lilia Springs hotel at Ashland, Oregon, has been elected a director of the chamber of commerce of that city.

Visitors Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Myers and daughter, Betty, of Oakland, Cal., have returned home after visiting in this city with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Reynolds. Mrs. Myers is a sister of Mrs. Reynolds.

Manager of Store Visits—

J. H. Mann of Sunnyside stopped here yesterday to visit at Breier's store on his way north. Mann has been enjoying a vacation in San Francisco and Oakland. He is manager of the Breier store in the northern town.

Returning North—

Irene Clara Kerr of Seattle, home economist for Copco is returning north after a week spent in Marshfield with the Mountain States Power company and is stopping today in Roseburg.

Visits Aunt—

Mrs. Jean Everett of San Francisco is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harding of this city. Mrs. Everett is a niece of Mrs. Harding and is en route to Seattle to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Vanderwerker.

New System Installed—

The Southern Oregon Gas company has just completed the installation of three new vent and gas-trap radiators in the F. W. Woolworth store. Each heating unit is complete in itself and the new units completely replace the old heating system.

Prune Pickin's Coming—

Bert G. Bates, former associate editor of this newspaper and author of the Prune Pickin's column, will stop in Roseburg on his way from Hollywood to Salem to attend the Oregon state American Legion convention soon. Mr. Bates is now on the editorial staff of a moving picture magazine.

Wilson in Town—

Jack Wilson and his son, Frank Wilson, of Myrtle Creek were here yesterday on business. The Wilson family at one time resided in Roseburg. Mr. Wilson was engaged in real estate, farming and other lines of business. "Old timers" remember him also as a politician of some distinction.

Here on Business—

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Martin of Myrtle Point accompanied by their children arrived here yesterday afternoon on a business trip. Mr. Martin, who is in the used car business in Myrtle Point, was formerly connected with the Lockwood Motor company. He will transact business here and Mrs. Martin will visit with friends and relatives.

Old Residents Return—

Here to visit old friends are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lilly of Corvallis. The Lillys spent 25 years in Douglas county before moving to Corvallis. They conducted a farm near Glendale during most of that time. Roseburg has changed considerably since their last visit. Mr. Lilly said. Mrs. Lilly and Mrs. August Schloemann are sisters.

Eddy Back From Coast—

What the wild waves say in a good deal more interesting and sometimes more intelligent than what the lobbyists at the state capitol say, according to Senator B. L. Eddy, who has just returned from a month's vacation at Bandon beach. He and his family enjoyed the outing at the coast the senator said.

Visits on Business—

Carl Fields of Eugene, who is secretary treasurer of the New Service Laundry, Inc., was a business visitor in Roseburg yesterday. Mr. Fields, accompanied by his son, Raymond, left here during the afternoon for Klamath Falls to attend a convention of Willamette Valley and southern Oregon laundry owners.

Church Services Set—

Methodist Episcopal Church, South, corner of East Lane and South Main. All the usual services on Sunday; but the evening service at the park. Topic for morning service, "What Makes Men Great." You are invited to worship with us at all these services. If you are a stranger in town we give you a special invitation. John B. Penhall is pastor.

Buys Big Orchard—

Earl Peary, former Douglas county agent, is the owner of a big prime orchard located four miles south of Salem. The place is known as the Lone Maple ranch and was bought this week by Mr. Peary and Roland Jory of Salem for a consideration reported to approximate $80,000. While here several years ago Mr. Peary proved himself a successful county agent and has a wide circle of friends among the farmers of this county.

Leaves for Stockton—

Mrs. Amy Colwell and Mr. and Mrs. Al Pollock of Stockton, Cal., left here yesterday by motor for their home after spending the day with Mrs. Alma Harness. Mrs. Colwell spent two weeks in Douglas county with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ambrose of Yreka. The California matron was born and raised in the county and spent an enjoyable two weeks visiting with old acquaintances.

Moves Business—

Robert Craig, roofing contractor, has moved his office from the Don-Gerretsen company to the McLendon realty building.

Return From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Sayers of West Roseburg returned this morning from Portland. They spent Friday in the metropolis shopping and visiting friends.

To Leave on Vacation—

Mrs. Alma Harness is leaving next week on an extended vacation trip in California. She will visit in San Francisco and other southern cities and purchase a new fall stock for her shop.

To Visit Here—

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Loomis of Los Angeles have returned here after a trip to Canada and other northern points. They visited here with Miss Bees Wharton enroute north and will spend some time here before returning to Los Angeles.

Taking Examination—

Mrs. Mamie A. Archambeau and Frances W. Parker of Tillamook are engaged in taking the civil service examination today for the position of 4th class postmaster at the Tillamook office.

Visitors Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Pavolice of Deer Creek were visitors here this morning. The couple were married in Roseburg last week. Mr. Pavolice came here from Portland and was formerly in Chicago where he was recognized as one of the finest garden authorities of the city.

Parker Ill—

Earl Parker of the local post office force is ill at his home and employees of the force are expressing regret at his absence and relapse after a recent operation. Mr. Parker worked two days upon his return and was forced to his home again by his illness.

Flurry to Attend Meet—

John E. Flurry of this city is getting everything in readiness to attend the big convention of the American Legion at Salem next week. Flurry is an active figure in Legion affairs as well as along the lines of insurance.

Hotel Man Here—

W. W. Chadwick of Salem was a visitor here this week. Mr. Chadwick is manager of the Terminal hotels and visited here on business. Chadwick inspected the new refrigeration system at the local Terminal recently installed for the convenience of guests and care of foodstuffs.

Ready for Tournament—

Members of the golf club are ready for the biggest handicap tournament of the season tomorrow, according to Nathan Fulterton. A $7.50 putter and twelve golf balls will be trophies for the highest scores. L. J. Crafton will be in charge of the tournament and Nathan Fulterton "hopes to win all twelve balls."

Editor Leaves—

Will E. Holbein of Dunsmuir, Cal., left here yesterday for Polson, Montana, where he has recently purchased a newspaper. Holbein has been advertising manager on a Dunsmuir paper and is well known here having at one time been secretary of the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Holbein stated that Polson is one of the beauty spots of Montana and is 25 miles from Glacier park. The city is growing steadily and the Anaconda Copper company will open a large mine at Polson soon.

Will Tour State—

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Howard and their daughter, Miss Wilma Howard, accompanied by Mr. Howard's niece, Miss Helen Howard of Portland, left today to tour a large section of Oregon. They are accompanied on the drive by Mrs. Howard's mother, Mrs. Milton Maulding, and Mr. Maulding, and will make their first stop tonight at Belknap Springs. In Bend they will visit a brother of Mr. Howard and other relatives. Bend is the birthplace of Mr. Howard and also that of his daughter, Miss Wilma. The party is to visit Prineville, Redmond, Klamath Falls, Crater Lake, Crescent City, Cal. Bandon, the Oregon Caves and Roseburg on a tour of central and southern Oregon stopping with friends in several places and to fish at mountain streams and lakes. In Roseburg, the family home of the Howards, they will stop a day or two with friends. The motorists will spend two weeks on the trip—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Warringtons on Vacation—

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Warrington and their family left today to motor to Camp Sherman, on the Metolite river, McKenzie highway, where they go for a two weeks' outing. Following the stay at the mountain resort the Warringtons expect to return to their Corvallis home to remain several days in preparation for a trip to Canada to extend over a week or 10 days.—Corvallis Times.

Maurice Chevalier, to France and England, what Eddie Cantor and Al Jolson are to America, and the greatest international genius of song and pantomime that New York has seen in many a long day, has a song in "Innocents of Paris," which he believes will be his greatest lyric success. There are seven songs in all. "Louise" is sung twice. "Innocents of Paris" will be at the Antlers two days only, Sunday and Monday.

Above: Colorful musical comedy scene from "Innocents of Paris," at the Antlers on Sunday and Monday. Below: Talented Buddy Rogers and versatile Nancy Carroll in "Close Harmony," which is billed for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Dr. J. C. Twitchell of Portland is expected to arrive in this city today regarding the establishment of the hospital clinic contemplated for this city.

Home From Vacation—Dan Barton of the Pickwick Stages System has returned to this city after enjoying a two weeks' vacation in Portland and other northern points. Barton had an enjoyable visit and has returned to his duties with the stage company.

Rices Like Beach—Attorney and Mrs. Dexter Rice of Roseburg stopped over in Bandon while making a coast tour southward as far as Crescent City. They stated it was always a rare pleasure to come to Bandon for there is no beach like this.—Bandon Western World.

State Business Good—Because one stage was not big enough to handle the passengers, Iulo Stephens of the Stephens Motor company was called to act as an emergency driver this morning on a northbound extra stage. The two big buses left here together for northern Oregon points.

Marriage License Issued—A Newberg, Ore., girl and a California young man applied for and received a marriage license at the county clerk's office this morning. The bride-to-be was Erna Kingsland and the bridegroom to be was Joe Moonchester of Sacramento.

On Legal Business—A. L. Alkens and Mr. Ramsdell, both of Riddle, were at the county clerk's office this morning on business. They report the farmers in their home section of the county extremely busy at this time of the year. Crops are good, they state.

To Vacation at Bandon—Dr. and Mrs. S. L. DeLapp and daughter Catherine and Miss Catherine Williams of Spokane, who is visiting with her sister, Mrs. DeLapp, are leaving today for Bandon on a vacation at the beach. Dr. DeLapp will return to his office here Monday and the other members of the party will enjoy life at the beach for a week.

Sells Fish Creek Home—Emory Davis, known for his part in the famous Fish creek desert reclassification case, was a Roseburg visitor today. Mr. Davis states that he has sold his house on the Fish creek desert and all his household goods to Ben Craven, formerly located in the Wilamette valley. Clinton Gorthy of Roseburg has purchased the Davis place and will do prospecting work during the winter months.

Home From Ashland—Mrs. Edith Aekert, county school superintendent, has returned from Ashland where she visited this week.

Writing Course Planned—W. L. Teutsch, assistant state leader of county agents, spent today in this city conferring with County Agent Jay Leedy. Mr. Teutsch travels over a large part of the state and is impressed with the crop prospects in this valley. While in Douglas county he will complete the arrangements for an instruction course in news writing to be given correspondents for newspapers in Douglas county. A meeting of correspondents will be held in Roseburg early in September.

Jack Carter, who has been seriously ill in a Hollywood, California, hospital for several days and whose relatives were called to his bedside Tuesday, is reported doing nicely according to a letter received this morning by Leslie Carter, a son living here. Mr. Carter, now 75 years of age, a veteran of more than 30 years of service as chief of police here, left for California a week ago for a vacation and visit with two daughters living there, one at Oakland and the other at Hollywood. While enroute he was taken ill with severe hemorrhages which necessitated his removal to a hospital. The letter to his son, Leslie, states that he will be out in a few days to continue his journey to Oakland.—Marshfield Times.

Ex-Residents Visit—A. T. Morlan of Portland, veteran Southern Pacific railroad man, and Mrs. Morlan are guests at the home of their son, W. A. Morlan, in this city. Mr. Morlan, native of an eastern state, located in Roseburg in 1882 and lived here for 26 years before moving to Portland. He retired from the employ of the Southern Pacific company in 1923 after 35 years' continuous service as a trainman. Now in his 77th year Mr. Morlan still enjoys good health, as does Mrs. Morlan. At his Portland home he indulges his hobby of truck car-olenting which he followed with noticeable success while living here. His record, among other parties, in achieving suits of raising a 25-pound cabbage bag never been equalled locally so far as known.

UNHAPPY SPOUSES ASK FOR DIVORCES—Two divorce suits were filed in the circuit court this morning. In one case T. E. Higgenbotham asks a divorce from Evelyn Higgenbotham, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. He is represented by John T. Long, Roseburg attorney. In the other suit Pearl E. Hinkle asks a decree divorcing her from Fred E. Hinkle and asks the custody of three minor children. She also requests alimony of $29 a month from her husband, whom she says is employed at present in a Eugene laundry. R. W. Marsters represents the woman. Cruel and inhuman treatment is also the reason given in this action.

SOCIETY

By MILDRED BYNON
(Continued from page 2)

Douglas County Club to Present Play

Douglas county has one of the largest clubs at the Southern Oregon Normal school during the summer session this year and members of the club are planning a delightful entertainment at which time they will present a play. "His Butler's Wife" is the name of the production, and the club is especially elated in the fact that a member of the club is the writer of the play. Walter Richardson of Roseburg has won distinction throughout the country for his ability as a playwright and numerous plays written by Mr. Richardson are being published and in demand at the present time. The students at the Normal school from Douglas county are Miss Violet Insecho of Dixonville, Mildred Russell, Camas Valley, Miss Eva Aekert, Roseburg, Miss Cleone Insecho, Dixonville, and Earl Wilshire of Dixonville. During the first term thirty-four young people from Douglas county registered for the summer sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Campbell of this city have returned from an enjoyable motor trip to Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Denn and son returned to this city the first of the week from a trip to Yakima and Seattle, Washington. They also spent several days in Portland, where Mrs. Denn visited with friends while Mr. Denn transacted business. They report a delightful visit in the northern state.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Canaday are taking a cabin at Idleyld where they will spend several days enjoying the diversions of the North Umpqua resort.

To Enjoy Vacation—

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Canaday of this city are leaving tomorrow for Idleyld to enjoy a short vacation. They will take one of the cabins at the North Umpqua resort and Mr. Canaday will rest from his duties at the land office for a few days.

AT BRAND'S GARDENS

This is the time of year to eat out doors. We are serving meals in the garden every day and evening. Among other things we are serving very fine, sweet Klondike watermelon, iced, for fifteen cents, the same as at the height of the season. Fountain lunches and cold drinks.

BRAND'S

Pacific highway 3 miles north.

Which Shall It Be Safety or Risk?

There is no need to take chances about the safety of your valuables. Put them in our Safe. Deposit Vault where they will have the best possible protection against loss from fire and theft—and you can rent a Private Lock Box for $2.00 and up per year.

The Roseburg National Bank
Roseburg, Ore.

ITS ALWAYS COOL and COMFORTABLE

ANTLERS

HE'S HERE SUNDAY and MONDAY

This picture now on its fourth month in San Francisco. Roseburg can have it only two days.

THAT MEANS YOU'LL HAVE TO HURRY

Maurice Chevalier

The World's Greatest Entertainer Singing, Talking

8 Big Popular Song Hits

Including "LOUISE," "On Top of the World Alone," "It's a Habit of Mine."

He'll ensnare you with his magnetic voice! He'll fascinate you with his tantalizing ways!

INNOCENTS OF PARIS

ALL TALKING—ALL LAUGHING—ALL SINGING

A Road Show at Popular Prices

LAST TIME TODAY "Gentlemen of the Press" ALL TALKING Also Talking Act.

Admission Matinee Adults 35 Evening Adults 50 Kiddies a Dime

LOOK! Special Show Wednesday and Thursday "The Port of Missing Girls" LIBERTY

Admission 10-25 Matinee Saturday 2:15

In the Best Comedy Western he ever made. "OUTLAWED" It's a whiz for action and laughs.

Also Comedy—News

Admission 10-25 Matinee Saturday 2:15

Economy Grocery O. L. JOHNSON The Store That Serves You Best. Phone 63 344 N. Jackson St.

DANCE!

AT THE WIGWAM

Saturday Nite, August 3

Music by Star Five

Dancing every Wednesday and Saturday Nights