WARNINGS FAIL TO CHECK FEUD OF RIVAL TONGS

The victims were Chia Hing, 50, said to have been a Hip Sing, who was shot down at a brilliantly lighted street corner in the Chinatown quarter, and Yee Wah, laundryman and supposed member of the On Leung Tong, slain as he lay on a couch in the rear of his shop in the same district.

Law Sing, 30, of 15 Pell street, New York City, was caught as he fled with a companion from Wall's laundry by a policeman who pursued in a taxicab. He was formally charged with murder after having been identified by the dying laundryman. Sing's companion escaped.

Harry Yee Soong Tang, secretary of the local Hip Sing Tong, who identified Hing at the morgue, told police he believed Hing had been mistaken for him. The two men closely resemble each other and Tang has twice been a target for bullets in former Tong out-breaks.

Hing's slayers escaped in a taxi cab after firing three bullets into their victim. The shooting occurred within less than an hour of each other, that of Hing being first.

DIVORCE GRANTED WIFE OF TELEPHONE COMPANY'S HEAD

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
RENO, Nev., Aug. 6.—Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, was divorced here yesterday by Mrs. Florence Pittman Gifford, who charged incompatibility and declared that her husband's business interests came foremost in his life and that he had neglected his social duties.

Judge Bartlett granted Mrs. Gifford the custody of the children, Walter and Richard, except that during the school period they shall be in custody of the father.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford were married in Brooklyn in 1916.

When Mr. Gifford became head of the American Telephone and Telegraph company in 1925 he was only 40, and became one of the youngest of the heads of his business enterprises in the country. He was a graduate of Harvard at the age of 19. Asked to give a formula for success several years ago, he said "Hard work."

Visit in Eugene— Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan of this city drove to Eugene yesterday afternoon on business. Mrs. Morgan recently arrived here from San Francisco to join her husband who is chief at the Terminal hotel.

Snowdrift in a new convenient can... easier to spoon. Snowdrift is a cake biscuit pastry and frying. Like these new convenient cans better in every way. The new cans are air-tight, of course, with the Snowdrift inside always creamy and always spoonable. Even when it's kept in the refrigerator and thoroughly chilled Snowdrift never becomes hard and difficult to use. Biscuits can be made in less time with Snowdrift—pastry dough cuts together more easily—cake and waffle batters stir up in a jiffy when you use a shortening like Snowdrift which is already creamed. Snowdrift
