GOOD-NIGHT STORIES

By Max Tru

TING-A-LING STARTS HIS STORY OF THE MAGIC ELEPHANT AND WATERMELONS

MJ, Flor, Hanli, Yam and Knari—the five little shadow-children with the turned-out names—were inside the Chinese Plate one day. They were talking about how big a watermelon was.

"It's this big," said MJ, holding his hands apart to show just how much he meant.

"No," said Yam, "it's only this big." And she, likewise, held her hands apart.

At this point Ting-a-Ling, the Chinaman, who was listening, interrupted. "My dear," he said, shaking his head, "it's very unwise to use your hands to describe of anyone putting blossoms back on trees again.

"I found myself all alone," Ting-a-Ling continued. "It was dusk. I started for the gate when all at once I saw a huge white elephant come down from the sky."

"An elephant?" said MJ.

Ting-a-Ling nodded. "It was a magic elephant. It had wings. It alighted in front of the king's favorite cherry tree and started to eat off the blossoms. I watched it from behind a bush. After eating all it desired, it flew off, its appealing beyond the clouds. I was struck with curiosity about this strange elephant and without saying a word to a soul, I made it a point to wait again the following evening. As I hoped, it returned at precisely the same hour. When it had taken its fill of cherry blossoms and was about to fly off, I shrewdly grasped its tail. To my delight it took no notice of me whatever, but flew off, carrying me with it. High above the clouds it flew.

Then at last it came to rest on a mountain-peak which was covered with trees and vines of pure silver. More astonishing still, the fruit, which was larger and more plentiful than I had ever seen before, was of solid gold. Of all the fruits the biggest were the watermelons, which were moreover the most precious for reason of their numerous seeds, which were all formed of jewels. They were, however, too heavy to lift, so putting a few small golden grapes in my pockets I waited till the elephant should return to the royal gardens the next evening."

Just then the real-children sat down to dinner and the shadow-children, who found it necessary to be near them, had to leave.

"Come back tomorrow!" Ting-a-Ling urged, "and I'll tell you the rest!"

The Elephant Flew Away With what you mean—especially when you're talking about watermelons.

"Why is that?" Knari asked.

"Hm, it's a long story. Have you got plenty of time?"

"We have plenty of time. We have ten minutes till dinner-time."

"That's hardly enough," said Ting-a-Ling. "But I'll start to tell you the story anyway."

The shadow-children all sat down on their pebbles around Ting-a-Ling, who, upon clearing his throat, began as follows:

"This all happened long ago when I was a very young man. I

Nick Carter's Tire Shop

In Mr. Edison's questions to the smart boys of the United States one question was "How would you leave a stone weighing three tons, one hundred feet horizontal and fifteen feet perpendicular without tools?" It's so simple to do when you get the right idea. Anyone can do it. If you only believe you can, for it is written if you have faith as big as a mustard seed, command a mountain to remove and it will obey; if you have not got the faith, you can't move the stone. Faith is the joker in this problem.

Now I have told you people many, many times about Lee tires, and there are a few yet who do not believe me. You do not seem to have faith in what I say. To be convinced and have faith buy a set of Lee tires, try them out, then you will believe and know there is none better and see for yourself.

No joker in this proposition. Big trade in value for your old tires all the time.

YANKEES DEFEAT MACKMEN IN ODD GAME OF SERIES

Twirlers of Both Teams Are Showing Strain of Duty; Alexander Fails to Smash Record.

By WILLIAM J. CHITMAN (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Yankees are on their way west for their final invasion, after having taken two out of three from the leaders while themselves humbling almost a dozen games to the rear.

The 6 to 4 victory of the champions in Philadelphia yesterday carried with it the edge in the three-game series and reduced the margin of the Mackmen to a mere ten and one-half games.

The one faint gleam of real Yankee hope seems to be in the fact that Connie Mack's first line pitchers do show signs of fatigue; but what of Huggins' tossers? Hoyt, out of the game with blood poisoning; Pennick, uncertain; Pappas, unable to pitch two strong games in succession.

Pitted against George Walberg in the getaway game at Philadelphia yesterday, Herb Pennock so toyed with what at one time was a 6 to nothing lead that Wiley Moore was called from the bullpen with none out in the fifth. Wiley, pitching five official innings, allowed just one hit.

Other Games

A ninth inning rally for four runs enabled Detroit to nose out Cleveland 9 to 6 and prevented Peckinpaugh's ambitious boys stepping into third place. The Browns obliquely lost two games to the White Sox at Chicago 5 to 4 and 6 to 2, and fell back into a tie with Cleveland for third even in the face of the Indian defeat.

Washington again nosed out the Red Sox at Fenway park, 4 to 3. The only action along the National league front again took place at Pittsburgh. The Pirates won over the Cardinals 9 to 1 behind Brame's three-hit pitching. The game was notable chiefly for the failure of Grover Cleveland Alexander to register his 373rd National league victory, which would have bettered the league record now shared by Old Pete and the late Christy Mathewson. A poor throw by Gelbert in the fourth paved the way for four Pirate runs which wrecked old Alex.

Good food promotes good health

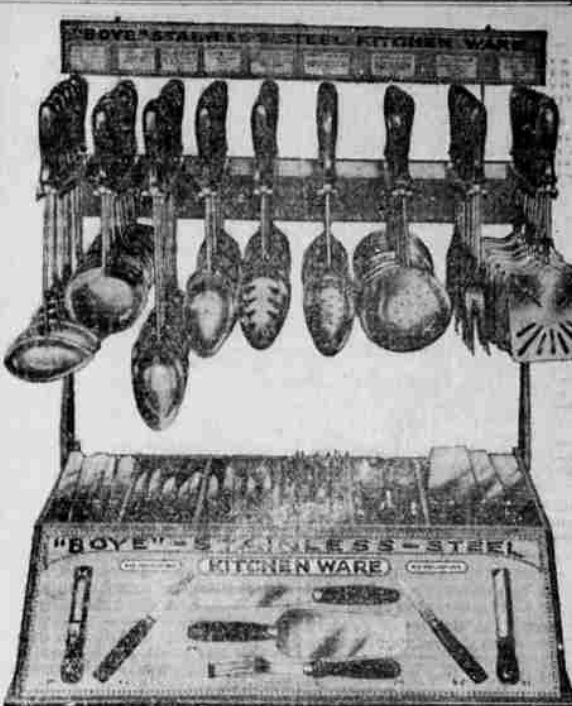

A little sugar is so helpful in making the healthful foods delicious

HEALTH is an indispensable feature in the efficient life of this busy world.

If most of us who were born healthy would eat and exercise properly from earliest childhood through adulthood, we would be strong, healthy and happy. Good foods, varied foods, balanced foods, are becoming more and more important in the art of keeping well.

Nearly everyone knows that a balanced diet of milk foods, cereals, fruits, vegetables and meats are needed for health. But taste enters in and makes it hard for a great many people to enjoy the things they should eat. That is why sugar is being acclaimed as the world's greatest blessing when it comes to making a varied diet palatable and enjoyable. If people like the proper foods, they are almost sure to eat them.

A group of women cooking experts, working in a kitchen high up in a New York skyscraper, recently rediscovered an old secret that a dash of sugar added to vegetables while they are cooking develops their flavors, improves their colors, and makes them fresher and better to the taste. Sprinkle sugar over cereals and watch how much more the children enjoy them. Use sweetened milk desserts and note how much easier it is to get the members of your family to eat the amount of milk they should each day. Use fresh fruit salads with a sprinkling of sugar, and slightly sweetened stewed fruits for health and enjoyment. Remember a few cookies or cake and ice cream for topping off the meal. A bit of sweet makes the meal complete. The Sugar Institute.

We are making collection of the commonly used kitchen utilities pictured above. For any of these articles you may have that have been used for some time, we will allow 10c for each and every one on the purchase price of a new Boy's Stainless Steel Kitchen Tool.
