

Newsy Items From Douglas County Correspondents

GYMNASIUM AND AUDITORIUM TO BE BUILT AT RIDDLE

(Associated Press Local Wire)
RIDDLE, Aug. 17.—At the meeting of the local school board Monday evening, the directors awarded the contract for the building of the new gymnasium and auditorium to A. O. Speer, a local contractor. Mr. Speer is starting work at once and plans to have the building completed in about eight weeks.

HAYHURST

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
HAYHURST, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Allen Austin of Long Beach, Calif., visited Mrs. Austin's uncle, W. A. Roberts, and family a few days ago. Mrs. Austin was formerly Blanche Stanley. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stanley, resided here for many years, but of late years have lived at Fruitvale, near Oakland, Calif.

Herman Tittel is threshing in Hayhurst over a week. He has a new threshing outfit.
Mr. O. W. Olsen, an old resident of our valley, is quite sick at the home of his daughter, Miss Della, Olsen, to Yoncalla.

Everett Allen, who has been in the Eugene hospital for sometime, has returned home. He is said to be improving from a recent logging accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Miller and daughters, Julia and Willetta, came up from Eugene on Thursday of last week. After spending one night with Mr. Miller's mother, Mrs. J. T. Miller, they left by way of the coast road going to Reedsport, Bandon and other places about the route. A card received from them at Bandon just when we were having our very warm weather, stated that the weather at Bandon was quite cold. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will begin their fall term of school at Talent, early in September. The girls will continue at Ashland normal, the coming year.

Miss Katherine Cummings of Portland, has been visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Francis, for a few weeks. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cummings, who have been on a visit in California, stopped off on their way to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Francis, also of Portland, made a brief visit here with Mr. Francis' mother. Mrs. Francis taught several terms here in our school, when she was Miss Agnes Meyer. She has many friends here and in Yoncalla, who were glad to see her back, and to know that she is still doing very successful school work. Her husband, Robert Francis, is engaged in the Auto Tire Shop with Mr. E. H. Cummings.

Florence Miller and Faith and Helen were in drain valleys on Wednesday.

Miss Alice Mires, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Joe Burdette, in eastern Oregon, has returned for an indefinite visit with her sister, Mrs. Chet Miller.

TENMILE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
TENMILE, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Tom Hughes of Marcella visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Swift Tuesday and Wednesday, returning home Thursday. Mrs. Swift went home with her for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. McKay of Bend, Oregon, were calling on friends in Tenmile Sunday. They were on their way to North Bend, Coos county, to make their home. Mrs. McKay was a former resident of Tenmile. She was Miss Jennie Bule before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howard and little son of Roseburg are visiting at the J. B. Howard home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tyler expect to leave for Eugene Saturday where they have employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byron and family of Olalla have returned from a trip to Spokane and Palouse and Moscow, Idaho. They report a fine trip.

YONCALLA

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
YONCALLA, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Arthur Hitchcock was hostess at a birthday party Monday afternoon, honoring the birthday of Mrs. Jerry Ferris. Delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ferris, Mrs. Ida Bunyon, Rev. and Mrs. Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hitchcock and Norman Hitchcock.

Mrs. Barnard had the misfortune to fall off a step Monday afternoon and sprained her ankle quite badly.

Mrs. Maude Applegate entertained members of the Yoncalla Embroidery club at her home in Scotts Valley Wednesday afternoon. A very pleasant afternoon was spent in doing fancy work and visiting, following which a delicious lunch was served to the following members: Mesdames Nellie Huan, Hazel Huan, Orel Huan, May Daugherty, Myrtle Applegate, Dorothy Brown, Maude Thiel, Ruth Edors and Maude Applegate.

Misses Leota and Velma Nelson returned home Monday from New Bellingham, Wash., where for two months they had been attending the national encampment of Camp Fire Girls.

Miss Sue Port is visiting at the Geo. Hedrick home at Drain for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. DuBell, Mrs. Jerry Ferris and Mrs. Arthur Hitchcock

SURPRISE COSTUME PARTY HELD FOR DRAIN PASTOR

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
DRAIN, Aug. 17.—A very pleasant surprise was given Rev. and Mrs. Dumas by the members and friends of the Methodist church on Tuesday evening who gathered in the city park, several of the party being dressed in the most elaborate of price and each person, or at least each family brought a generous donation of groceries or provisions to replenish the larder of the new pastor and his wife. A short time later the pastor and wife were brought over from the parsonage and, after introductions, a very pleasant evening was spent in social converse, games and singing songs.

Dr. McKalk reports a 7-pound boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hockins of Drain. The baby was born August 13.

Dr. McKalk reports a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Claire LaGrander on the 12th of August at Drain, Oregon.

Mrs. Eugene Smith and daughter, Donna May, of Cottage Grove are visiting at the Chas. Howes home a few days.

Mrs. W. E. Satchwell and son Wayne of Silverton are visiting friends here for a few days.

Will James of Reedsport returned home Friday after spending two weeks at the D. Guard home.

SOUTH DEER CREEK

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
SOUTH DEER CREEK, Aug. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bailey spent several days at Bandon last week. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cox and son, Wallace, of Roseburg, spent Thursday evening at the home of J. W. Cox of South Deer Creek.

Portland are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Trussell of Dixonville, also her sisters, the Mesdames Bailey, Melton and Cox of South Deer Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blood, Ray Blood, J. W. Cox and Agnes Weatherford spent the week end at Bandon.

Mrs. Roy Kelly and two sons are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Kelly of South Deer Creek.

F. P. Betts spent the week end with his son, J. J. Betts of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blood were callers at the home of Dee Kelly Wednesday evening.

CANYONVILLE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
CANYONVILLE, Aug. 17.—The combine threshing crew has been working up in the Days Creek vicinity this week. They are binding grain on their way up and will through the grain already in stacks on their way back.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heis were visiting in Canyonville last week.

Mrs. V. J. Buraker and children and Mrs. L. Buraker visited the latter's daughter, Mrs. H. Bellows in Roseburg Thursday. On their return home, they brought Miss Lavada Newton home from the hospital where she has been since last Friday. She is feeling a great deal better although still quite weak.

The deer near here are getting quite bold, coming right down into people's gardens and helping themselves.

WILBUR

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
WILBUR, Aug. 17.—Elin Grubbe and wife of Shelton, Washington and Elmer Grubbe of Chehalis, Washington, are visiting their mother and sisters, Mrs. Nolan Grubbe, Mrs. Stanfield and Mrs. Thompson.

Miss Lois Irving went to Tye's for a week's visit with Miss Evelyn Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Brown of Portland are visiting Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and two daughters of Newton, Iowa, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strange of Sacramento, California, were calling on friends here this week. Mr. Strange was formerly a student of Union academy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scholz of Portland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters.

Miss Pearl Welker and Ross Horney, both of Portland, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Horney.

Will Howard and family of Corvallis have been visiting Mr. Howard's sister, Mrs. W. R. Kinzel.

George W. Dimmick was called to Eugene by the illness of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Staton.

Mrs. W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McMichael and C. T. Grubbe went to Albany last Friday to visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Holmes of Newton, Iowa, are visiting Mr. Holmes' aunt, Mrs. C. Horney.

GLENDALE COUPLE WED

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GLENDALE, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Edith H. Hayes and William L. Regis, who live at Lyall siding about two miles west of this city, were quietly married at Grants Pass by Judge C. G. Gillette, Tuesday. They left for a brief honeymoon trip immediately and expect to visit at Portland and other points.

Mrs. Regis has made her home on a small ranch west of this city. Mr. Regis is a blacksmith employed by the Glendale Lumber company. They will make their home at Lyall siding.

RIDDLE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
RIDDLE, Aug. 17.—Last Sunday services were held in the local Baptist church both morning and evening.

Rev. Carl Hollenbach preached and was assisted by Otto Schmidt and Mrs. Spurlin and her daughter, Winnifred.

The local theater opens again this week after having been closed for a month.

Mrs. Carl Fisher has come in from the Tillamook district where she has been working in the government forest service camp. She reports that a number of the men have been moved to Washington to assist in the fire fighting there.

Mrs. Fisher and little daughter, Mable Jane, will spend the rest of the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Nichols.

Friends of Mrs. Johnnie Cornutt are glad to hear that she has returned from the hospital at Salem, and is now convalescing at her home here.

Mrs. Elbert Ball and daughter, Marguerite, entertained a number of friends at a swimming party Tuesday evening. After the swim everyone enjoyed a good "feed" of roasted wieners and marshmallows.

Felena Riddle and Bernice Turpen are spending the week in Bandon. G. L. Grant took them over Monday in his car, returning the same day. During their absence, Marie Willis is staying with Evelyn Raymond at Miss Riddle's home.

Among Sunday visitors to Bandon were Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Kimmel and son, Karl, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Willis and daughter, Evelyn, of Canyonville, and Mrs. F. Kimmel of Canyonville.

A. F. Becker, local druggist, and Geo. Van Kester report that they had a very good time at the American Legion convention in Salem last week. They arrived home Sunday.

The directors of the Riddle State Bank, J. M. Thorne, B. W. Strong, A. F. Kent and H. Ferguson, came out from Roseburg last Friday afternoon for their regular meeting.

Elmer Worley of Eugene visited at the Johnnie Cornutt home the forepart of the week.

Evelyn Willis of Canyonville spent the day at the M. W. Kimmel home Wednesday.

Monday morning, E. F. Nichols and Sibby Nichols left for their ranch above Tillamook to be gone several days.

Mrs. P. A. Wilson had as her guests recently two of her grand children, Dewey and Wilma Jean Wilson, of Marshfield. After having spent a few days in Salem attending the convention, Dr. and Mrs. Dewey Wilson came Sunday after their children, returning to Marshfield Monday.

Margaret Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Atterbury of Roseburg also spent Sunday at Mrs. Wilson's home.

Miss Janice Atkins, who is employed at the Umpqua Valley Bank in Roseburg, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Atkins.

Mrs. F. J. Congrove's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg, are here from California.

Abbie Arner, Ted Arner and their father, John Arner, motored to Diamond Lake the first of the week. Miss Arner returned at once, while her father and brother remained at the lake for a short vacation.

Mrs. J. E. Reeves left Sunday night for Hillsboro for a short visit. She has been spending the summer here with Mr. Reeves, manager of the Silver Peak Mining and Milling company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertell Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ford, all of Lindsay, Calif., and Mrs. Hoover, Bousier and Kenneth Hervey enjoyed a "short trip to the coast" last week. They visited Bandon and Coos bay towns, then returned here Saturday by way of Dr. and Mrs. Orville Ford left for their home in California Saturday, while Mr. and Mrs. Bertell Ford visited here until Thursday.

I. H. Smith of Glendale was in town for a short time Monday transacting business.

Rossmond and Abner Logsdon and Hess Redburn motored out from Roseburg Sunday to spend the day at the O. W. Logsdon home. Mr. Logsdon remained here until Tuesday morning when she returned to Roseburg where she is employed in the telephone exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Froegart of Portland are visiting at the home of Mrs. Froegart's mother, Mrs. O. L. Willis. Mr. and Mrs. Froegart accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Riddle to Crater and Diamond lakes the forepart of the week, enjoying a very pleasant trip.

Gladys Nam of Milo visited with her friend, Pearl Weitzel, several days last week.

Jim Cripps returned to his home here Tuesday night from Lakeview where he has been working.

Mrs. Leiflore and children, Edith and Margaret, and Roy Strong, all of St. Helena, and Grace Matthews of St. Helena are visiting with the Mat theses families near town.

Elmer Love, truck driver for the

DRAIN

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
DRAIN, Aug. 17.—Harry Cool and family, accompanied by Mrs. Rosanna Williams, left Monday morning for a week's vacation at the beach in the Tillamook vicinity.

John Wisegarver and wife came up from their home at Portland the first of the week to spend a week visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Margaret Wisegarver and sister, Miss Elsie, and brother, Will. They all spent about three days during the week at Bandon beach.

W. M. Moore went to Portland on Thursday to visit several days with friends there and on his return will bring his wife, who has been visiting for a couple of weeks, home with him.

Dr. Bertha Devere made a flying business trip to Portland the forepart of the week.

Mrs. Wm. Weaver and little son, James, all of Corbett in the vicinity of Portland, are here this week visiting at the home of Mrs. Deaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hedrick, in Sunnydale valley.

Miss Sue Hart of Yoncalla is making an indefinite stay at the George Hedrick home in Sunnydale valley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Irwin (formerly Miss Floy Johnson) of Astoria recently made a visit of several days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Johnson, who reside a couple of miles north of town, also other relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Alvin H. Lowe, an attorney of Los Angeles, is here for an extended visit and is the guest of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Lowe, in North Drain. Mr. Lowe sustained injuries when struck by an automobile recently but is making gradual recovery.

Mrs. Julia Ellenburg of Portland was here the forepart of the week visiting with her sisters, Mrs. John Hedrick and Miss Emma Wagner. Mrs. Ellenburg formerly resided in this vicinity for several years and has numerous friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Urbank had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Owen of Elkhorn, California, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Daniels of Oakland, Calif., the latter a niece of Mrs. Urbank. These people were seeing the wonders of this great northwest region.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bendele of the city market are enjoying a visit from their friend, Mrs. Fred Arndt, of Camas, Wash., this week. Mrs. Arndt suffered a broken ankle some time back and is convalescing from the injury.

Franklin, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Loomis, underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids at a Eugene hospital one day last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Ira Dumas, of Salem, who have been appointed to take the place of Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Wood in the pastorate of the local Methodist church for the remainder of the conference year, arrived here Tuesday of this week and are installed in the parsonage. Rev. and Mrs. Wood received word recently to prepare for return to their former mission field in India.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barker visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Burdett, at their home at Phoenix, Oregon, one day last week, taking their grandson, Robert Burdett, home and bringing their granddaughter, Elizabeth Burdett, back with them.

J. T. Rodford, the local grocer, who has occupied one of Walter Kent's store building for several years past, is moving into the adjoining store room also owned by Mr. Kent, which has just been repaired and repainted.

A very fine sample of wheat, grown by Warren Spaulding on the Fred Applegate farm in Scotts valley, is on display at Benton Mires store and it is believed that the yield of the field will run close to 50 bushels per acre.

Dr. Bertha Devere reports the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Claire LaGrander at their home in South Drain on August 12, 1929.

BLACKBERRY PICKING STARTING AT DRAIN

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
DRAIN, Aug. 17.—Blackberry picking will begin in this vicinity next week and Rufus Pfister, who does the buying for the Southern cannery, has announced that he will distribute berry boxes to those wanting them on Saturday.

CHICKEN DINNER
On Umpqua at Glendale, Saturday night, Aug. 17, from 6 to 11 p. m., 50c. Benefit Glendale Baptist church.

Get your shingles and roofing supplies from C. L. Claster and Son, Coos Junction. Phone 2215.

OLD GLENDALE MILL TO BE RESTORED

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GLENDALE, Aug. 17.—Articles of incorporation were recently filed at Salem with the state corporation commissioner for the Valley Sawmill company by C. Hagen, Nels E. Skjovland and J. O. Lyall, incorporators.

This new company will operate the old mill on McCallough creek about two miles from Lyall siding. This mill has been operated for 12 periods at various times during the past ten years by at least a half dozen different concerns. Prior to 1913 this mill was operated intermittently by a company of which two of the present incorporators were the principal owners.

GLENDALE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GLENDALE, Aug. 17.—Mrs. R. V. Mosier of Roseburg is visiting this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins, who reside just a short way out of the city on the Coos Creek highway. Mrs. Mosier was formerly Miss Avis Jenkins and as a young girl lived at Fervale, attending school there and at Glendale.

F. I. Smith transacted business at Roseburg last Monday. He was accompanied to Roseburg by his daughter, Miss Ethel M. Smith, who had been spending the week-end with her parents here.

Fred Hargis, representative of Ott's Music Store at Roseburg, was a business caller here Tuesday.

Miss Sarah M. Jackson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jackson, who reside on a ranch near Astoria, and Delbert R. Jennings of Grants Pass were recently married here by Judge Wm. B. Lesh. They are making their home at Grants Pass.

Mrs. Lyle Davis of Medford is visiting this week at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith, who reside near Fervale.

Wednesday morning when Chas. B. Austin went to open up the meat market he found the lock jammed with a broken-off key inside. Evidently someone tried to force the lock with a key that did not fit but failed of their purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. "Jack" Hanel of San Luis Obispo, Calif., are visiting with friends here this week. Mr. Hanel was formerly Western Union maintainer here and had the job now held by Geo. H. Matthews. They swapped jobs so that Hanel now is employed by the telephone company on the job formerly held by Matthews in the California city.

Mr. Ivan Lynden of Oregon City is visiting her son Clarence Dudley and her mother, Mrs. Fred Smith this week. Mrs. Lynden intends to leave for an extended visit at Weller, Idaho, soon, and she will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Smith.

Miss Julia Eakin returned Monday from Los Angeles, where she had been attending a summer school for the past two months. She will spend the remaining portion of her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Eakin, at their ranch home on Quines creek. Miss Eakin is a school teacher and taught at Klamath Falls last year, where she has been re-engaged to teach this coming school year.

Allen Smith, who is employed in a logging camp near Powers, arrived here Thursday for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

J. H. Moore of Medford transacted business here Wednesday and took the time to say hello to a few of his many friends here. Jack was at one time owner of the Glendale electric light system and was local manager for the California Oregon Power company for several years after this company bought him out.

GLENDALE, Aug. 17.—Miss Sylvia Converse of Canyonville and Wm. Stewart of Wolf Creek were married at Roseburg Tuesday of this week. A number of their friends paraded the young couple up and down some of Glendale's streets on a truck Wednesday evening, accompanied by a lot of racket on cans and tin pans. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will reside at Wolf Creek.

Mrs. Andrew Pete returned Sunday from Grants Pass, where she recently underwent an operation in the hospital. Mrs. Pete is getting along nicely. Her daughter, Mrs. Cal Herman, who had been at the parental home since Mrs. Pete was taken ill, left for Boise, Idaho, Thursday evening. Herman, who is a well known wrestler and boxer, is promoting fight cards in the Idaho metropolises.

A fire of undetermined origin swept on the hillside across Coos creek from the Gail Hamilton place Tuesday. The burned over area was mostly an old slashings, so no material damage was done.

A. T. Sothar and family moved into their new home recently built on the Witherby road, a short distance west of this city, the forepart of the week. The A. Hagen house on the corner of Second street and Montgomery avenue, which the Sothars just vacated, has been leased by Chas. J. Kafer, who will use it as an annex to the Glendale hotel in order to provide sleeping quarters for some of the men employed on the extra line gangs working near this city.

A number of young people belonging to the Christian Endeavor society in this city enjoyed a swimming party and a marshmallow and wicker roast near Reuben Friday evening. Rev. and Mrs. J. K. Howard chaperoned the party.

Mrs. Harry Oiler, who recently underwent an operation at the Grants Pass hospital, returned to her home in this city last Friday.

Contract for the erection of the new Glendale garage has been let to Miller & Fritz of Grants Pass, by W. A. Madsen. Work was begun Thursday clearing up the lot and staking out building lines.

LaVell Higgins, who had been visiting with his uncle, Lee Lewis, at Medford, returned to his home in this city Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Clarke and Edward Lawson motored to Grants Pass Thursday, where Mr. Clarke had business matters to attend to.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lee are the young parents of an eight-pound boy, born to them Thursday. Mrs. Lee was formerly Miss Lottie Smith and her parents resided near Reuben.

Juel Beutl, manager of the Valley Lumber company at Grants Pass, was a business caller here Thursday in connection with material for the new Glendale garage which Miller & Fritz have the contract to build.

George Taylor and children of North Yakima, Wash., are visiting at the John Jenkins home near this city this week. John is grandpa to these children and is mighty proud of the fact.

Paul Hicks, of Longview, Wash., arrived here Wednesday for a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Alia Cunningham on Gilbertson avenue. Hicks is a brother of Miss Mary Hicks, who taught school here two years ago.

Ralph Quinn, former manager here of the clothing store now en-

Men Wanted FOR CANTALOUPE HARVEST

Call 46-F21 or inquire at Williams' Dillard Gardens Eight Miles South of Roseburg

It is sometimes surprising in how many ways this Bank can help you in your career. You are cordially invited to use all of our departments.

The Roseburg National Bank Roseburg, Ore.

NEW LOCATION

Mat's Auto Shop

NOW LOCATED AT THE USED CAR EXCHANGE

We Do All Kinds of Auto Repairing

Special department for Model T and A Fords—Brakes relined on all makes of cars.

We use the "Ideal Electric Brake and Clutch Relining Machine"

Battery Charging

A service battery will always be ready for you.

Ford coils tested and adjusted free

Radio battery charging.

The battery department also has a service battery for your radio.

Will carry the famous India tires.

All sizes of the high pressure and balloon type.

BATTERY SERVICE FREE

Greasing, Washing and Vulcanizing

Mat's Auto Shop

Near Deer Creek Bridge

No Job Too Small, No Job Too Large

Phone 468

Dr. J. E. Snyder

"The Moral Phenomena of the Age"

at the Presbyterian Church

Next Sunday Morning 11 o'clock

Music by the Yellow-jackets

Dr. Snyder is moderator of the Southwest Oregon Presbytery and a gifted platform speaker. You will miss something if you fail to hear him.