

AMAZING DISPLAY OF FOODS SHOWN FOR THE BUYERS

Everything is in readiness for buyers to make selections for their weekend needs, and the only trouble that may be encountered will be the perplexity caused by the housewives when they see what a wealth of prepared and manufactured foods, fresh vegetables and fruits has been put on display by those Roseburg distributors for "Ma" to select from. There is so much offered that it will be really a task to stop buying of the good things offered by the weekly advertiser, and Dad's pay check is apt was sick and run down and in eight years had health generally for eight years. During all that time I was continually taking one medicine after another and life was just a drag—until I started taking Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills. This treatment took right hold of my case and did more good than all the other medicines and treatments I had tried.

"My appetite was so far gone that even the odor of food made me sick. What little I just had to eat disagreed with me and I was terribly undernourished and weak. Constipation and biliousness added to my trouble and I was always tired and listless. I was so nervous that I hardly ever got a good night's sleep."

"The first few doses of Sargon made me feel a lot better and I'm now completely back on my feet. My appetite is fine, my food agrees with me, the old nervousness has gone and the pills just rid me of constipation and biliousness altogether. I'm just as glad as I can be to tell anybody how Sargon gave me back my old-time strength and cheer."

The above statement was recently made by George A. Ferguson, 422 West Emerson St., Portland, well known railroad engineer, now retired.

to look like "thirty cents" when "Ma" is through ordering. But one thing is sure, that no matter how flat Dad's pocketbook becomes in the affair of tonight and Saturday, the family will smile blandly and be happy when it comes to the "proof of the pudding". That these Roseburgers and the hosts of good people from all over the county are going to have a regular feast over the week-end and Sunday is assured, if the endless quantities advertised in today's issue of the News-Review is anything to go by.

A stroll around the town this morning was enough to satisfy the market editor that there will be a fact, everybody ought to be thankful for, everybody to enjoy, and, in fact for the blessings enjoyed by "our folks" throughout the county. Nature, coupled with a bit of industry, has been mighty kind, and everywhere gardens, orchards and fields demonstrate this fact. Fruits and such luscious locally grown fruits at that—greet the passers-by and invite them in to purchase. Peaches, apricots, grapes, plums, apples, berries, watermelons, cantaloupes, tomatoes, etc., it looks as though sunshine, soil and water have been doing more for us than we really deserve. Then the vegetables that these food dispensers are displaying for you make the picture complete. Coupled with all this demonstration of bounty are wonderful showings of manufactured foods that come in for a good deal of consideration when "Ma" begins her buying for the Sunday dinner or the lunch that will be prepared for the auto trip up river or to the coast. Of course there will be the meats to be considered, because a delicious roast of some sort helps to make a complete lunch or dinner menu, and readers will find the markets offering their specialties in these columns tonight.

The market editor's opinion is that "Ma" should read these messages and then she will be in a position to save time and work in her shopping. You'll find them all

DEMPSEY EXPLAINS MONEY PLIGHT OF MRS. RICKARD

(Associated Press Special Wire)

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion of the world and intimate of the late Tex Rickard, today characterized the financial plight of Mrs. Rickard as "the same old story" of a man who had too much confidence in his friends.

The former champion, who received more than a million and a half dollars from fight promoted by Rickard, was not surprised after reading Mrs. Rickard's statement made in New York.

"Tex had too much confidence in his friends," Dempsey said. "He trusted everybody. If Mrs. Rickard says she is broke, she must be. I knew things were in a mess. That is why I went to Miami last year full of interest and suggestions for helping you to save on shopping expenses.

winter to try and straighten out Tex's dog track there. The law stepped in, stopped betting and made the thing more of a mess than it was."

Dempsey is in Chicago to associate himself with the Chicago coliseum in the promotion of boxing.

The letter said his stand against prohibition as national secretary of the church temperance league had made him a lion in the side of the bishop and other good men and was one of the reasons for his resigning his Christian commission.

Charges Denied. He denied that he had practiced medicine in his health education society and asserted that the charges against him were fostered by some of a dozen surgeons who had discharged from the service of the society. He said he was coming to New York to face his accusers.

The letter also denied that he had gone to California to avoid payment of rent on quarters leased for the health society, but said he went there on advice of physicians because he was suffering from heart disease.

Bishop Manning is in Maine on a vacation. At his office it was said Dr. Empringham's letter would be forwarded to him.

It is asserted he had women diorobe for examinations. The charges were referred to the state medical authorities and to the attorney general's office.

Dr. Empringham was born in England. He is 54 years old. The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon him at Syracuse university. The only charge he has held was the rectorship of St. Paul's church in Syracuse. At one time he was superintendent of the New York Anti-Saloon league, and national superintendent of the temperance society of the Episcopal church.

It's nice for frying too, because it's so slow to smoke or scorch, and because food fried in Snowdrift is always wholesome.

Your grocer has Snowdrift now in two new large sizes, three pound and six pound.

You don't have to cream Snowdrift

It's a lot easier to make a cake on the spur of the moment than it used to be before you had Snowdrift.

For Snowdrift is all creamed ready to blend, and it stays that way. You don't have to set it out of the ice box to soften—it takes up the sugar just the way it is. Just put Snowdrift and sugar in the bowl together—whirl your spoon around a few times, and you're ready to stir in the other ingredients.

Creamy Snowdrift is unusually easy to measure too. And it's now packed in an attractive new
