

INSURANCE MONEY MOTIVE ALLEGED IN GEORGIA SLAYING

Mother's Worry Over Lost Son Leads to Charges Against Three of Neighbors.

(Associated Press Special Wire)
OCHILGA, Ga., Aug. 27.—A mother's anxiety for her son that put the police on a dim trail which led to a grave has brought a tragic denouement in which three men face a fight for their lives against charges of murder.

In the cemetery the state of Georgia now contends the son, Harry Loving, 22, of Huntington, V. Va., was buried under the name of another.

Now the accused men, two brothers, Aubrey and James Carole Hoover, friends of Loving, and Harry K. Sligh, Irwin county farmer, have been indicted for murder, charged with causing the youth's death in a plot to obtain $50,000 insurance money.

Protesting their innocence, the three men await trial, and the hearing is expected to develop the truth of the weird plot.

Mother Urges Sheriff
Two years ago, Loving started with the two Hoovers to "hitch hike" to Florida. The last word of him was from Fitzgerald, Ga. Then he vanished.

A worried mother, Mrs. Maude Loving Powers, this summer enlisted the aid of Sheriff W. E. Tyler in the search for her son, Harry Loving. By thin clues Tyler traced Loving to the home of Sligh near here.

Sligh's home had burned in September, 1927, and a body recovered from the ruins had been buried at Seneca, S. C., as that of the farmer. Insurance companies had refused to pay the $50,000 insurance on his life and found Sligh in California.

Victim's Story
Returned, he was acquitted on a charge of arson after he told a strange story of struggling with a man who attempted to rob him.

Mrs. Knight Like New Woman Since She Took Sargon

"In just three short weeks, the Sargon treatment ended all my troubles. This wonderful medicine did more for me than all the other treatments I took during my three years of suffering. I've gained five pounds and feel like a different woman.

"Severe stomach trouble and rheumatism in my legs and arms made life intolerable for me. I was so nervous that restful sleep was impossible. I was also bilious and had a sallow complexion. Of course I always felt tired and listless.

"I began to feel better right from the first few doses of Sargon. Before I finished the fourth box all my stomach trouble disappeared and every sign of rheumatism left me. My nerves are steady now. I have a fine appetite and sleep just like a healthy child. Sargon Soft Mince Pills completely relieved my biliousness. I'm better in every way than I've been in years and can hardly find words to express my gratitude to Sargon."

The above statement was made by Mrs. Carrie A. Knight, 1198-14th avenue, Spokane.

Wants More Plane;

Thomas L. Hill (above), war flier, is leading a movement to have Congress appropriate $40,000,000 to provide aeroplanes free to clubs who give civilian flying instructions throughout the country. According to Hill's plan such action would make available 250,000 trained fliers for duty in case of war.

He said they overturned a lamp in a fight, setting fire to the house. He claimed his mind became blank and that he recovered his faculties in California.

That was in the court record when Tyler started his search. His investigation brought the arrest of the three men.

The Hoovers claimed they had left Loving in Georgia and gone to Florida. Changing his story, Sligh said he believed his attacker was Loving and that the latter had fallen unconscious and may not have escaped the flames.

But the state will attempt to prove that the three men plotted the murder of the youth; burned the house and identified the body as Sligh in a vain effort to collect the small fortune from the insurance company.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN BAND'S REQUEST PROGRAM

A great deal of interest has been shown in the request program to be played Thursday night by the Roseburg Municipal band. A great many requests have been received, but for the most part they are largely duplications, several persons requesting the same selection. Overtures, especially, are favored over marches, fox-trots and waltzes, as most of the requests were for overtures.

One request was for the "Pagan Love Song." This is not printed in band arrangement, but Director Straube ordered an orchestration. This did not arrive in time to be rearranged for the band, but will be presented at a later date as soon as it can be rewritten for band instruments.

Among the selections to be played Thursday night will be "Pagan Love Song," overture, "American Patrol," "Night in June," fox trot "Sunshine," "The Kiss Waltz," "Altair of Genoa," and "Basson on Rampage." Other numbers may be added to the program, as music lovers have until this evening to file additional requests.

PORTLAND COP IN "LOVE NEST" CASE REQUESTS LEAVE

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 27.—Police Lieutenant William Breunling has announced that he will ask the city council for a 30 days' leave of absence without pay so that he may be off duty when the case of Mrs. Anna Schrader, private detective, is arrested on a charge of assault with intent to kill him, is called in municipal court.

Breunling said he believes this move will eliminate the possibility of embarrassing the police department.

Following her arrest Mrs. Schrader told Breunling's superiors that he had been her ardent admirer for more than eight years. She declared she had not intended to kill Breunling but had merely carried her revolver for protection.

Breunling said she tried to shoot him twice as he parked his car in front of his home last Friday. Mrs. Schrader told police that the weapon was accidentally discharged when Breunling struggled with her on the sidewalk after alighting from his car.

LARGE CREW IS NOW EMPLOYED AT LOCAL CANNERY

The cannery is now packing tomatoes, putting up the largest pack of these vegetables to be canned since the plant was started here. Peas are coming in this week and as soon as they ripen the pea pack will be started. It is expected that the cannery will continue operations at full capacity until after the first of the year.

FORMER ROSEBURG BOY ON GROUND CREW FOR ZEPPELIN

George Webber, former Roseburg high school student, son of C. O. Webber of Eugene, who is at the naval training camp in San Diego, was selected as one of the 200 young men in the aviation camp to take charge of the Graf Zeppelin during its stay in Los Angeles. Mr. Webber was the only one selected from his county of 163. The cadets were taken from San Diego to Los Angeles to handle the Zeppelin and remained in that city until after the departure of the ship.

Mr. Webber enlisted in the navy July 1, and very soon afterwards was made chief petty officer. In his initial tests, he received an A, or perfect rating. He has just passed the elimination tests, with a grade of 94, and will begin his course of training in aviation at once. He will receive his ground school instruction at Great Lakes, and from there will be on a six months' cruise on an airplane carrier. His final training in war maneuvers will be at Pensacola, Florida.

Food sears quickly when you fry with Snowdrift

NEW

Why does food fried in Snowdrift look so tempting, so delicately brown? Why is it so tender and delicious inside? Why is it so wholesome and digestible?

Because you can allow Snowdrift to get so hot that it will sear the food almost at once—and yet there will be no smoking, no scorching . . . as the cooking experts say, Snowdrift does not "break down" at ordinary frying heat.

With Snowdrift you can prepare delicious piping hot French fried potatoes or croquettes, the outside lightly fried, the inside thoroughly cooked—and with reasonable care there'll be very little smoke in your kitchen. Snowdrift can be used over and over too, for it doesn't absorb odors.

The new three pound and six pound buckets are decidedly convenient, and easy to spoon from.
