STRIKE IDEA BECOMING TABOO IN GREAT BRITAIN

(Associated Press Local Wire)
MANCHESTER, Eng., Sept. 6.—England, recovering from a cotton mill strike and facing imminent problems of a similar nature in railways, mines and ship building, is showing a growing tendency to ban strikes and lockouts as instruments of industrial policy. Employers and workers generally are coming into agreement that force is an obsolete method settling trade disputes and arbitration is coming to the fore.

This tendency was greatly enhanced by the action in the Lancashire cotton trades trouble. Differences between cotton mill workers and employers were settled by arbitration.

The cotton dispute caused a stoppage in 1926 mills which lasted three weeks. A million pounds a week, $5,000,000 were lost in wages. The cotton mills lost about $7,000,000 a week in export trade, much of which must now be won back from foreign market.

DOUBLE MURDER LAID TO DICE GAME QUARREL

(Associated Press Local Wire)
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—John Stego, deputy commissioner of police, delivered himself today of some positive ideas in connection with Chicago gang murders—murders which he said were not really gang affairs at all. Stego said he has learned the motive behind the double execution of Frank (G.) Casey and Edward Westcott, west side hoodlums and gangsters who were slain early yesterday. That motive, he said, had nothing to do with gang vengeance or gang warfare. It evolved from a game of dice on a Sabbath afternoon.

still at Geneva, has been informed of the situation and his reply is awaited. Political circles here credit reports that Pletskaitis planned an attack on the train carrying the premier and it is predicted that extradition of the group of Lithuanians will be demanded from the German government despite the fact that political offenders would probably not be handed over by the German government. It is stated here that Pletskaitis' case is criminal and not political.

old friends are sick I'd like for them to know about this wonderful Sargon treatment and what it did for me.

"I was in pretty bad shape about five years. My stomach caused me all sorts of trouble after meals and I finally lost my appetite almost entirely. My liver and my kidneys were not functioning properly and I was losing both weight and strength.

"The way Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills built back my health strength is wonderful. My appetite came back and I began to eat plenty of good solid food. My old-time energy and vitality have come back and I get plenty of restful sleep. The pills regulated me perfectly and never upset me in the least. I'm glad to tell others what Sargon has done for me."

The enthusiastic statement above was recently made by M. M. Lawler, 1825 West Third Ave., Spokane. Sargon may be obtained in Roseburg at Nathan Fullerton's Rexall Drug Store.
