13 INDICTED IN JURY CLEAN UP OF LOS ANGELES

grand jury today involving two other lieutenants and a captain of the vice squad in the alleged bribery conspiracy.

All of the indicted and arrested officers have been members of the police force for periods ranging from four to eighteen years. Evans is the oldest man in point of service. He joined the department in 1911. All expressed surprise when informed of the indictments against them, and served notice they would fight the charges.

Several anonymous telephone threats last night caused District Attorney Pitts to arrange body guards for all grand jury witnesses. Special guards previously had been placed over Westman in his county jail cell, and over his home in Whittier, a suburb. Police and deputy sheriffs failed to trace a car reported twice seen in the downtown district, containing three men armed with machine guns, which caused an unusual mustering of guards yesterday.

nouncing the company would hold open positions in lieu of the union reconsidering its vote of rejection. This action was taken after William Green, president of the labor federation, talked over telephone from Indianapolis to A. B. Patterson, vice-president of public service. Mr. Green told Mr. Patterson he would communicate with W. D. Mahon, president of the Carmen's International union, and again urge acceptance of the settlement by the local union.

SEATTLE, Sept. 12.—W. D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Car and Electrical employees, said here today that striking street car men of New Orleans may be given definite assurance that all will be returned to work before he will urge them to accept the settlement agreement proposed by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Mahon attending the convention of the union here, yesterday had expressed the opinion that the refusal of the New Orleans strikers
