Here on Business—
Among the out of city visitors here today from Lookingglass are Fred Chamberlain, W. F. Hodge and J. G. Hodges.

Visits on Business—
George W. Croisan of Salem, representing the World war veterans state aid commission, was a business visitor here yesterday.

To Return—
Harry G. Rapp is expected to return to Roseburg this week-end after enjoying a business and pleasure trip in California for the past several weeks.

Returns to City—
Mrs. Glenn McAllister returned to Roseburg yesterday after spending several weeks as the guest of her parents in Grays River, Washington.

Roses at Office—
The chamber of commerce is again beautified by two large baskets of roses from the Roseburg rose gardens presented this morning by E. Reynier, operator of the industry.

Recovering From Accident—
J. M. Burkhardt was in town Friday afternoon, visiting with friends. Mr. Burkhardt was accidentally shot in the leg a short time ago and has been confined to his home at the Curry estate until this time.

Expected Here—
Mrs. Paul Olson is expected to arrive in Roseburg today from Portland to spend the week-end with Mr. Olson, local manager of the Woolworth store. Mrs. Olson is an instructor in the Portland schools.

Leedy at Salem—
Mr. J. C. Leedy, county agent, left for Salem yesterday in company with C. O. Garrett. They will visit the Douglas county exhibits in place for the State fair next week. Mr. Leedy will remain in Salem the entire week.

Arrive Today—
Mrs. C. F. Kennedy and son, Bobby, arrived in Roseburg this morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. Kennedy's mother, Mrs. M. E. Sinnott. Miss Florence Sinnott arrived last night from Sacramento, where she is an instructor of music in the city school. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kelly are here from Everett, Wash., also to attend the services.

Leave for Marshfield—
Mr. and Mrs. John D. Goss of Marshfield, accompanied by their daughter and Mrs. Goss' mother, Mrs. Thomas Howard, left here yesterday for their home at the coast city. Enroute home their car was accidentally overturned in loose gravel and Mrs. Goss suffered injuries to her arm. Mr. Goss is a prominent attorney of the coast section.

Coal on Exhibit—
The cold snappy air of the fall mornings brings a chill and the large lump of coal on exhibit at the chamber of commerce gives promise of heat for winter mornings. The coal was hauled in from the new mine near Melrose and is indicative of progress in another industry recently established in Douglas county. Grant Bales brought the exhibit to the local office this morning.

Visitors Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Al Pierce of Corvallis were visitors in Roseburg yesterday. Mr. Pierce is manager of the Hotel Benton in the college city and a prominent figure in hotel circles. The couple visited here with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding and Mr. and Mrs. George Smith. They are enroute home after making a trip to Crescent City, Bend, Marshfield and other coast cities.

Visiting With Sister—
Mrs. C. C. Christie and Mrs. F. H. Marham, both of Los Angeles, arrived last night and are visiting Mrs. Christie's sister, Dr. Lucetta Smith. They stopped at Crater lake on their way to this city. They will go to Portland Monday for a short visit before returning home. Mrs. Christie resided in Roseburg for several years before going to Los Angeles.

Former Residents Visit—
Mrs. W. D. Watkins, accompanied by her son, Raymond, together with his wife and two children, Joe and Frances, arrived in Roseburg last night from their home at San Jose, California, and are visiting at the Barton Hillwell home in Laurelwood. Mrs. Watkins and her son were former residents of Yonahla, but left there 32 years ago for California. They are greatly delighted with the growth and development of the county during the time they have been away.

COACH McEWAN HAS UNTRIED MATERIAL FOR SUBSTITUTES

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 21.—The University of Oregon football team hasn't many weaknesses but the one which stands out most of all is its lack of reserve strength.

John J. McEwan, like all other coaches, is endeavoring to build a championship machine and barring injuries may accomplish the trick this year.

Coach McEwan will be able to send an all-experienced eleven on the field of battle but will be hard pressed for capable substitutes in cases of an emergency, especially at the guard and tackle positions.

The probable lineup against Pacific university next Saturday in Eugene will be Stadelman, center; Lillie and Shields, guards; Colbert and Christensen, tackles; Archer and Wood, ends; Klitzmiller, quarterback; Moeller, fullback and Mason and Donohue, halfbacks. Charles Williams, a negro veteran, may get the call over Donohue if he recovers sufficiently from a tonsil operation. All have had varsity experience except Moeller, who was out of school last year but who was considered an "ace in the hole" by McEwan.

PORTLAND WOMAN IN HOSPITAL AFTER ATTACK

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—Beaten and mauled until her left arm was broken, jaw possibly fractured, eyes blackened and badly bruised, Mrs. George Whetstone, 52, lay in a drowsy slumber throughout the night after four thugs attacked her and was found early today by passersby.

Police were questioning her in a hospital here today where she was taken after she was left in the apartment of an absent friend and other lodgers heard her moans. Because her husband, she said, was away fighting fire, she did not want to be taken to her home.

Authorities said Mrs. Whetstone told them she left an Eastside theatre and had walked a few blocks toward her home when she was attacked by the four men and beaten into unconsciousness.

MURDERED MAN'S BODY TAKEN FROM WILLAMETTE

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—Partial identification of the body of a man stabbed to death, taken from the Willamette river here today by harbor patrolmen, as Frank Kiernan, 30, Aberdeen, Wash., was made by police who traced him through a key to an obscure hotel room found in his pockets.

Police were seeking two other men, said to have been companions of the man who registered at the hotel as Kiernan.

No money was found in the clothing of the slain man and police advanced a motive of robbery.

Dorothy Mackail and Jack Mulhall in "Two Weeks Off."

What the ocean says to sad sea waves, or the frolicsome surf whispers to the bathin' beauty it loves will be revealed at last.

Love vibrations will be heard as well as seen. The mating call of the taxicab and the moans of the pedestrian, together with other noises innumerable, accompany a rollicking film adaptation of Kenyon Nicholson's play, "Two Weeks Off," which is coming to the Antlers theatre Sunday.

Dorothy Mackail and Jack Mulhall are co-featured, with Eddie Gibbon, Gertrude Astor, Kate Price, James Finlayson and other popular players in the supporting cast.

ATHLETICS WILL BEAT CUBS, BARNARD'S VIEW

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—The Athletics look like a real baseball outfit and the American league is not worrying over the probable outcome of the world series argument with the Chicago Cubs, declared E. S. Barnard, American league president, who dropped off here to see Connie Mack and a couple of ball games. He saw quite a few Mack rookies in action, but said he knew what the regulars could do.

"The Athletics made it a run-away race," Barnard said. "They have played such great ball we don't see how any other club can defeat them in a series."

"We look for the A's to beat the Cubs. Both are great ball clubs, but naturally I am backing my own league representatives. I think Mack has the best team in the business right now, and I believe I can safely say it will be the victor in the series."

M'CORMICK TAKES MALEY'S PLACE ON BOXING PROGRAM

Clyde Ward, local boxing promoter, announced today that he is making a slight change in the card to be offered next Friday, the first boxing program for the season. Joe Corbett, of Roseburg, who was paired with Kid Maley, of Sutherland, for the 4-round special event, will fight "Big Boy" McCormick, also of Sutherland. Maley, Corbett and McCormick have been working out regularly, and Corbett is showing up well. He has had considerably more experience than Maley, who is new at the game, and so the shift has been made to give fans a better match. Corbett will have to give away considerable weight to the Sutherland boy, but he still has the edge on professional experience.

Denny Lenhart, the army-navy light heavyweight champion for 1928, who is to meet Jack McGreer of Kansas City in the 10-round main event, is getting into excellent condition. He is working out every night, and has taken a vacation from his regular work as a lineman in order to devote his entire time to training. He has started his road work and is running six miles every day to get in shape for his bout.

Every bout, except one, on the card will be between fighters weighing 145 pounds or more so that the fans can be assured of some hard slugging. The only little men on the card are expected to furnish the fastest bout of the evening. Jimmy Saell of Portland, known as "Young Doc Saell," and "Shrimp" McDonald of Lakeview will fight the 4-round semifinal. Both boys are very clever and fast fighters.

Kid Maley, who was matched with Corbett for the semifinal, will be matched with a good local fighter in one of the preliminaries.

$512,000 WORTH OF SECURITIES GONE WITH MESSENGER

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—R. V. Hiacco and company, brokers at 111 Broadway, notified police today that one of their messengers had disappeared with securities valued at $512,000.

Police said the messenger, Milton Alter, was sent to the bank with a check for $400,000 to get the securities. He was to wait for other clerks to escort him back to the office.

low, has sent out wireless messages saying the ship has been captured by pirates and taken to Hainan. No further details are available. The Dell Maru was expected in Hong Kong late today.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 21.—The Norwegian steamer Botnia which was looted by pirates after going aground on a bar off Haichow last week has been refloated and all the officers except Chief Officer Westerman have been released. Captain Hansson, who was held with the chief officer, escaped and has reached Haichow safely.

clemency, and that there was no distinction between the cases of Sinclair and Day. He said he was convinced there was a sinister and ulterior purpose in shadowing the jury.

To grant executive clemency under the circumstances, Mr. Mitchell told the president, "would undermine the confidence of the people in the administration of justice."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The department of justice announced today that the petition of Harry F. Sinclair and Henry Mason Day for commutation of their jail sentences for jury shadowing had been forwarded to President Hoover with a strong recommendation from Attorney-General Mitchell that there be no executive interference with the sentences.

Parking Regulations

(Medford Mail-Tribune)
No auto parking regulations will be satisfactory to every one and the value of none can be demonstrated in a week or two weeks. The sensible thing to do regarding Medford's new program is what has been done—give it a fair test before jumping to any definite conclusions one way or the other. Thus when a reasonable period of time has elapsed, make only those changes the need of which experience has clearly demonstrated.
