

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personalities—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

THIS week marks the return of several prominent Roseburg people from a trip abroad and distant cities and many interesting affairs have been planned that they might relate their experiences to those who remained at home.

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Stewart have returned from a trip with the American Legion convention, which spent several months traveling in Europe this summer. Dr. Stewart gave a very interesting talk at the American Legion the first of the week and Mrs. Stewart has been asked to give talks before several clubs of this city.

Mrs. and Mrs. August Heck arrived on Wednesday from a four month trip spent in Germany. Mrs. Carl Wimberly has returned to her home here after enjoying the American Legion convention in Louisville, Kentucky.

Luncheon, bridge parties, club affairs and many interesting events have been enjoyed by the city folk during the past week and several are scheduled for the coming week.

The courtesan celebration of day will mark the final climax of a busy and enjoyable week. Considerable time has been spent on the day's program and many interesting events will take place during the day.

Mrs. Morgan Honor Guest at Bridge Party Monday Night

One of the loveliest affairs of the week was a bridge party Monday evening, when Mrs. Maurice Newland entertained in honor of Mrs. Chester Morgan, a recent bride. The rooms were beautiful with huge bouquets of red and yellow gladiolus and greenery. Bridge was enjoyed during the evening with Mrs. Albert McMillin winning first prize, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, second prize and Mrs. C. Morgan, guest prize. Covers were laid for: Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. Donald McMillin, Mrs. Edward Kohlhaas, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. Richard Coon, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mrs. Fred Harsh, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Harrie Ellsworth, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Leon McMillin, Mrs. John McMillin, Mrs. L. C. Church, Mrs. John Kohlhaas, Mrs. Charles Wade, Mrs. Countess, Mrs. Charles McMillin, Mrs. Jack Whitman, Mrs. Dricker, Mrs. Thomas McKenzie, Mrs. Paul Helwig, Mrs. Albert McMillin, Mrs. Edward Bauer, Mrs. Leo Connolly, Mrs. Allen Hewitt, Mrs. Naomi Scott, and Miss Eva Rice and the hostess Mrs. Maurice Newland. A dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Newland in the evening.

Young Married Peoples Class Enjoys Chicken Dinner Thursday Night

The Young Married Peoples class of the Baptist church enjoyed a 6:30 o'clock dinner in the church parlors on Thursday evening. The table was beautifully decorated with bright and fragrant flowers. The evening was spent enjoying music and social conversation. Those enjoying the dinner and evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. John Lattrell, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Vidupis, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boer, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Spangh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cioake, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coon, Mr. and Mrs. W. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Piveter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard, Mr. and Mrs. B. Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Garity, Mr. and Mrs. George Caskey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Caskey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Green, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Croft, Mrs. May Peon, Rev. and Mrs. Frank B. Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. E. Crawford.

Eldress Judd, Roseburg Student at U. of O. Again Honored

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene—Eldress V. Judd, prominent Roseburg student on the University of Oregon campus, who is also a senior and a member of Delta Zeta sorority, was elected chairman of the nation's eighth training conference of Oregon at the Y. W. C. A. division meeting at Rock creek over the past week end. Miss Judd, who is president of the Y. W. C. A. on the campus, has been a member of the Oregon representative attendance at the Thursday Rock creek session, participating in group study and discussion of northwest division programs for the coming year.

Thimble Club Met at Owens Home First of This Week

The Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. W. Owens on Monday evening of this week and Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Sylvia Williams as hostesses. The evening was spent playing games and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. John Johnson and Mrs. Banning who were the prizes. Covers were laid at small tables and were decorated with white orange and black. The prizes were: Mrs. T. J. Brown, Mrs. S. E. Fennell, Mrs. Oliver John, Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. Elsie Williams, Mrs. John Aldrich, Mrs. J. B. Hughes, Mrs. Charles Langston, Mrs. Max Hall, Mrs. C. W. Owens, Mrs. Helen Weaver, Mrs. William Williams, Mrs. John Max Weaver, Mrs. Yvonne French, Mrs. Virginia French, Mrs. Bernice Debra, Mrs. Miriam Blough, Miss Rose Neal, Miss Mary Bonding and Mrs. H. A. Canaday. The next meeting will be on November 19th at the home of Mrs. Max Ruff.

Mothers of U. of O. Students Will Hold Meeting Here, October 29

Mothers of University of Oregon students from Roseburg will meet with Mrs. Walter M. Cook, president of the Oregon Mothers, and with other officers of the organization here the evening of October 29th. It is announced by Mrs. John Ruyman, who is in charge of arrangements for the session. Accompanying Mrs. Cook will be Mrs. F. J. Hill, president of the Portland group of mothers, and Miss Marion Thy, Eugene, who is executive secretary for the state organization.

Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the university, and Alfred Powers, dean of the extension division, will accompany the officers and will take part in the meeting here. It is announced, Dr. Hall will talk on university work and policies during the session.

Both Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Hill will be speakers at the meeting. Mrs. Hill will deliver the principal address and will outline the objectives and aims of the statewide club. Mrs. Hill is known as a brilliant public speaker and she and Mrs. Cook have hundreds of friends throughout the state.

The officers and Dr. Hall and Dean Powers are planning an extensive tour throughout the state for the purpose of assisting Mothers' clubs in organization. It is the hope of Dr. Hall that every community of any size will have an active club formed for the purpose of maintaining greater interest and closer contact with the work now being done on the campus.

St. George's Guild Has Pleasant Evening at Nathan Fullerton Home

St. George's Guild met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Nathan Fullerton with Mrs. Fullerton and Mrs. E. B. Kenny as joint hostesses. Large bouquets of fall flowers were used in the living room, where the business meeting was held with Mrs. E. V. Hoover, president, in charge. The winter program and coming events were discussed by the members. The table was beautifully decorated with red and white flowers and a large bowl of fruit. Those seated at the table were: Mrs. E. V. Hoover, Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mrs. William Gerretsen, Mrs. J. A. Soles, Mrs. C. Merrill, Mrs. J. C. Humes, Mrs. Sam Ryan, Mrs. Polly Smith, Mrs. Charles Russell, Mrs. P. Henry, Mrs. Roy Entler, Mrs. C. H. Davies, Mrs. Ted Post, Mrs. Lauren McCulloch, Mrs. J. K. Falbe, Mrs. M. E. Pearce, Mrs. E. F. Middleberg, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Rev. Perry Smith, Miss Myrtle Nelson and Miss Myrtle Davies. Mrs. Kenny and Mrs. Fullerton served dainty refreshments.

Fullerton P. T. A. Holds Regular Meeting Monday

The Fullerton Parent-Teacher association held its regular meeting at the school Monday evening, October 14, with Mrs. Leo Wells, vice-president, presiding. It was decided that Mrs. C. D. Fies, the president, should present the school at the state P. T. A. convention at Grants Pass. After a brief business meeting, Mrs. W. R. Baird, the program chairman, introduced the principle speaker of the evening, Mrs. Richard Williams. Mrs. Williams spoke on "What the P. T. A. may do for the school and what the school may do for the P. T. A." Mrs. Archie Taylor sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Carstens. A reading was given by Miss Maxine Smith, who responded with an epilogue.

W. C. T. U. Has Interesting Program Wednesday

The W. C. T. U. members met in the Women's club rooms Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. E. Willis, president, in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Fred Fisher conducted the devotional which were very interesting and impressive. The program followed with Mrs. H. L. Landers singing two solos, "The Spirit of God" and "Frees," accompanied by Mrs. Charles S. Bell. Mrs. Lillian Davis gave a very interesting report of the national W. C. T. U. convention which was held at Indianapolis, Ind. A report of the trip of Mrs. E. Willis was then unveiled. It was just fifty years ago that Mrs. Willis was elected national W. C. T. U. leader at Indianapolis. Mrs. G. W. Young gave a short outline of the duties of the directors of the departments.

Parents Announce Coming Marriage of Their Son

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Morris of this city wish to announce the coming marriage of their son, Joseph Richard to Miss Bernice Lemmon, formerly of Kansas City and now of San Diego, which will take place at her home on October 27th. They will leave immediately after the wedding for Phoenix, Arizona, where they will spend their honeymoon, returning to San Diego the first of November to begin their home, at 2834 Columbia Avenue. Mr. Morris was a former Roseburg boy, having attended the local schools in this city. He has been employed with the Cadogan Packing company in San Diego for the past three years.

Local Unit of American Legion Auxiliary enjoys Evening This Week

The local unit of the American Legion auxiliary enjoyed a business meeting on Tuesday night with a social hour following. The unit is now working hard on their membership drive and it is hoped that all members or persons eligible for membership will pay their dues as soon as possible to that Roseburg will still hold the title of being the strongest unit in the state. Several new activities are being entered into this year by the unit and considerable time and effort is being spent by all members. After the meeting refreshments were served by a committee in charge.

Surprise Party Given for Sandy McDonald on His Birthday

Sandy McDonald was happily surprised on his birthday anniversary last weekend, when a group of his friends came to his home to enjoy the evening. Cards and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour, when a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. McDonald. The guest list included: Miss Nellie Rust, Miss Margaret Horner, Miss Thelma Critzer, Miss Frances Sellick, Miss Lorena Ison, Miss Opal Horner, Miss Helen McEwen, George Ralph, Robert Kidder, Robert Spancake, Clyde Palm and Sandy McDonald.

Entertains With Informal Luncheon for Salem Visitor

Mrs. John Porter, of Edenbever, entertained with an informal luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at her home for Mrs. S. D. Cooley, a visitor from Salem. Those enjoying the luncheon were: Mrs. S. D. Cooley, Mrs. Frank Galkins, Mrs. F. A. Clemens and the hostess.

Enjoyable Evening Spent at Hamilton Home

Mrs. Frederick Hamilton entertained at an informal bridge party on Wednesday evening at her home on South Main street. Those present were: Miss Blanche Reed, Dr. Lucretia Smith, Mrs. Floyd Frear and the hostess Mrs. Hamilton.

Junior High P. T. A. Has Very Enthusiastic and Enjoyable Meeting

The Junior High School P. T. A. enjoyed Tuesday evening when they met at the junior high school auditorium for their first regular meeting. Mr. Lou Metzger, president, had charge of the meeting. A delightful program was arranged and presented with Roy Goodman, prominent Roseburg musician, playing two piano solos, Louis Langenberg played two saxophone solos accompanied by his sister, Miss Marie Langenberg, Mrs. Elsie Carleton Strang and Mrs. Grace Jacobs sang two duets which were accompanied by Mrs. Frances Linn.

Tri-Square Club Has Enjoyable Afternoon at Williams Home

The Tri-Square club met at the home of Mrs. Leo Williams on South Stephens on Wednesday afternoon.

Northside Sunshine Club Enjoys Thursday Afternoon

The Northside Sunshine club enjoyed Thursday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. Edward Marsters, who entertained the club at the home of Mrs. Fred Bowen. After the regular business meeting a delightful social affair in honor of Mrs. S. E. Fisher, of Kelley's Corner, was enjoyed. Each guest was presented with a walnut which they had to crack and placed in the inside of the nut was a small note telling each one what they must do to amuse the other members. Much amusement and enjoyment was derived of this novel method of having an interesting program. The rooms were decorated with large bowls of colorful autumn leaves and fall flowers. The guests for the afternoon were: Mrs. Norman Rothacher, Mrs. Frank Kent, Mrs. Mable Randolph and Miss Vivian Gilkison. The members there were: Mrs. George Marsters, Mrs. N. R. Fisher, Mrs. Walter Kurtz, Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. R. W. Chilton, Mrs. Vicell Busch, Mrs. L. W. Engles, Mrs. R. P. Chilton, Mrs. Frew Bowen, Mrs. L. L. Marsters, Mrs. S. C. Durland, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Lee Goodman and the hostess, Mrs. Edward Marsters.

Miss Wright Inspiration for Birthday Dinner at Her Home on Monday

Miss Esther Wright was the inspiration of a 6:00 o'clock birthday dinner given by her mother on Monday evening of this week. The centerpiece on the table contained beautiful orchids and yellow flowers, while the place cards and favors were in shades of rose. Those enjoying the dinner were: Miss Esther Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Webber and Morgan Russell.

Daughters of American Revolution Will Have Dinner at Umpqua Monday

The Daughters of the American Revolution will have a luncheon at the Hotel Umpqua Monday noon at 12:00 o'clock. Mrs. E. C. Agnew of McManisville, who is state president, will be at the luncheon immediately following the luncheon. There will be a business meeting at the home of Mrs. F. H. Churchill.

Head University of Oregon Mothers

Here are the officers of the University of Oregon Mothers, who will tour the state, conferring with Mothers organizations, and discussing educational problems. They will meet with mothers of U. of O. students from Roseburg on the evening of October 29. Mrs. John Ruyman is in charge of local arrangements. Plans will be discussed for the annual conference to be held at the University in the spring. Left to right: Mrs. J. F. Hill, president, Portland group; Mrs. Walter M. Cook, Portland, president; and Miss Marian Thy, Eugene, executive secretary.

Panels and Trains Favored for Fall

That panels and trains will find favor on evening gowns for fall and winter functions is well expressed by the eggshell chiffon evening gown worn by Kay Francis, screen star. Two panels at the front of the gown break the silhouette at the knee, while three at the back, each a step lower than the other, terminate in a train.

Junior High P. T. A. Has Very Enthusiastic and Enjoyable Meeting

The Junior High School P. T. A. enjoyed Tuesday evening when they met at the junior high school auditorium for their first regular meeting. Mr. Lou Metzger, president, had charge of the meeting. A delightful program was arranged and presented with Roy Goodman, prominent Roseburg musician, playing two piano solos, Louis Langenberg played two saxophone solos accompanied by his sister, Miss Marie Langenberg, Mrs. Elsie Carleton Strang and Mrs. Grace Jacobs sang two duets which were accompanied by Mrs. Frances Linn.

Tri-Square Club Has Enjoyable Afternoon at Williams Home

The Tri-Square club met at the home of Mrs. Leo Williams on South Stephens on Wednesday afternoon.

Northside Sunshine Club Enjoys Thursday Afternoon

The Northside Sunshine club enjoyed Thursday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. Edward Marsters, who entertained the club at the home of Mrs. Fred Bowen. After the regular business meeting a delightful social affair in honor of Mrs. S. E. Fisher, of Kelley's Corner, was enjoyed. Each guest was presented with a walnut which they had to crack and placed in the inside of the nut was a small note telling each one what they must do to amuse the other members. Much amusement and enjoyment was derived of this novel method of having an interesting program. The rooms were decorated with large bowls of colorful autumn leaves and fall flowers. The guests for the afternoon were: Mrs. Norman Rothacher, Mrs. Frank Kent, Mrs. Mable Randolph and Miss Vivian Gilkison. The members there were: Mrs. George Marsters, Mrs. N. R. Fisher, Mrs. Walter Kurtz, Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. R. W. Chilton, Mrs. Vicell Busch, Mrs. L. W. Engles, Mrs. R. P. Chilton, Mrs. Frew Bowen, Mrs. L. L. Marsters, Mrs. S. C. Durland, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Lee Goodman and the hostess, Mrs. Edward Marsters.

Miss Wright Inspiration for Birthday Dinner at Her Home on Monday

Miss Esther Wright was the inspiration of a 6:00 o'clock birthday dinner given by her mother on Monday evening of this week. The centerpiece on the table contained beautiful orchids and yellow flowers, while the place cards and favors were in shades of rose. Those enjoying the dinner were: Miss Esther Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Webber and Morgan Russell.

Eastern Star Members Enjoy Thursday Evening at Masonic Temple

Nearly 150 members of the Eastern Star enjoyed Thursday evening at the Masonic temple when they met in honor of their past matrons and patrons home-coming. A splendid program, in charge of Elsie Carleton Strang, was presented by Roy Goodman, pianist of the Goodman Conservatory, and Miss Ida Frank, soloist of the Goodman Conservatory, whose numbers delighted those present. After the program the guests were escorted to the dining room where four long tables were beautifully decorated and a delicious lunch served. Mrs. Alvo Williams was chairman of the refreshment committee. The past matrons present were: Miss Frances Howell, Mrs. George Kohlhaas, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. J. L. Shambrook, Mrs. G. E. Houck, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. John Ruyman, Mrs. Paul Bubar, Mrs. Vivian French, Mrs. Warren Burt and Miss Ethel Webb. The visiting past matrons were: Mrs. W. F. Harris, of Canyonville chapter; Mrs. Hartzell, of the Rose Croix chapter in Portland; Mrs. W. E. Clingenpeel, Carbondale chapter; Mrs. J. E. Clark, Glendale chapter; Mrs. Ruth Conke, Ada chapter. Each past matron was presented with a large chrysanthemum.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Enjoyable Meeting on Tuesday Afternoon

The Roseburg Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the club house with a fine attendance. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. A. G. McMillin. After the usual business session, the program was opened with community singing led by Mrs. McMillin with Mrs. Leo Wells at the piano. Mrs. William Bell gave the correct use and history of the American flag. Mrs. Charles Brand sang "My Own United States" and "The Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Beard. Refreshments were served at candle lighted tables, which were bedecked with zinnias and ferns. The patriotic program was carried out in the refreshments also. The ice cream was served with tiny silk flags in the center and the napkins were colorfully with red, white and blue designs. The meeting was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Enjoyable Meeting on Tuesday Afternoon

The Roseburg Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the club house with a fine attendance. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. A. G. McMillin. After the usual business session, the program was opened with community singing led by Mrs. McMillin with Mrs. Leo Wells at the piano. Mrs. William Bell gave the correct use and history of the American flag. Mrs. Charles Brand sang "My Own United States" and "The Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Beard. Refreshments were served at candle lighted tables, which were bedecked with zinnias and ferns. The patriotic program was carried out in the refreshments also. The ice cream was served with tiny silk flags in the center and the napkins were colorfully with red, white and blue designs. The meeting was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Enjoyable Meeting on Tuesday Afternoon

The Roseburg Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the club house with a fine attendance. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. A. G. McMillin. After the usual business session, the program was opened with community singing led by Mrs. McMillin with Mrs. Leo Wells at the piano. Mrs. William Bell gave the correct use and history of the American flag. Mrs. Charles Brand sang "My Own United States" and "The Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Beard. Refreshments were served at candle lighted tables, which were bedecked with zinnias and ferns. The patriotic program was carried out in the refreshments also. The ice cream was served with tiny silk flags in the center and the napkins were colorfully with red, white and blue designs. The meeting was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

Roseburg Woman's Club Holds Open House Today for Women Visitors

The Roseburg Woman's club held open house for all women visitors in Roseburg who attended the courtesan celebration. Light refreshments were served by a committee in charge and the following women were hostesses for the day: Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mrs. A. G. McMillin, Mrs. G. A. Bradburn, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. Fred Green, Mrs. W. C. Winston, Mrs. W. R. Willis, Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft and Mrs. Foster Butler.

Surprised by Friends in Honor of Birthday

Donald Young was delightfully surprised last evening when several of his friends gathered at his home in honor of his birthday. A pot luck supper was enjoyed after which 500 was played with Mrs. R. W. Chilton winning first prize for the ladies and Mrs. Nicholas Andrieff, second prize. Bert Kruse won first prize for the men, and L. L. Marsters won consolation prize. Those enjoying the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Marsters, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Chilton, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Chilton, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. William Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Andrieff and Mrs. B. Durland. Everyone reported an unusually fine evening.

Thursday Ladies Day at Country Club

The Ladies' Golf club enjoyed a beautiful day Thursday at the Country club. Those who played golf were: Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. Charles McMillin, who was guest of the day from Salem, Mrs. Kenneth Quinn, Mrs. W. E. Ott, Mrs. Edward Kohlhaas, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. H. Stearns, Naomi Scott and Mrs. Edith Pickens who won the prize for the day on low handicap score. Luncheon was served at the Country club and many stayed and enjoyed another game in the afternoon.

Enjoy Venison Dinner on Wednesday Evening

A venison dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell at their home just south of Roseburg, last Wednesday night to a few of their friends. Those enjoying the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor and daughter, Athalie, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Meyers and daughter, Jessie, and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell.

Smart Coat for Winter

Dorothy Sebastian steps forth in this chic coat of Nutria Lapan fur duvetya trimmed at scarf and on cuffs. Her hat, shoes and hose match the color of the coat and make a charming ensemble.

Small Girl Has Birthday Party

Athalie Taylor was the inspiration for a birthday party at her home in Laurelwood when a number of her friends gathered to help celebrate her 5th birthday. The children played games until they were called to the table where delicious refreshments were served. Halloween decorations were used at the table, with favors and place cards in gay colors. Each little guest had a small birthday cake with candles on it. Those enjoying the party were: Edward and Jodie Smith, Jacqueline and Clyde Carsten, Tommy Hartung, Lois and Alvin Hill, Johnny Ness, Charlotte and Tommy Lockwood, Maxine Erickson, Madeline Moore, Tommy McMillin, Deen Harris, Bobbie Matthews, Gene Meyers, Mary Lee Strang, Jimmy Goodman and Athalie Taylor.

Enjoyable Venison Dinner at Gerretsen Home Sunday

A delightful dinner and evening was enjoyed last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. William Gerretsen, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pargeter and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Falbe entertained with a 6:30 o'clock venison dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gerretsen for their club. The table was attractive with a bouquet of red zinnias as a centerpiece with red napkins at each side. Place cards with bright autumn leaves were in harmony with the fall setting. The venison was from the deer that Dr. Church brought in from his hunting trip. After the dinner the remainder of the evening was spent in social conversation. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Denn, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Ness, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler, Mrs. Edith Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. William Gerretsen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pargeter, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Falbe and Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church. Instead of giving prizes at each club meeting for bridge honors, the score is kept and the four couples holding the lowest score entertain the four high couples at the next club meeting.

University Guild Meets on Monday Evening

The University Guild held their regular meeting on Monday evening at the Women's club building with a fine attendance. Several interesting book reviews were given during the evening. Lois Woodruff gave a review on "Silva Marner," Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft gave "George Elliott's Life," Margaret Hewitt gave "The Life of Pedro Dostoevsky," Adeline Stewart gave "Point Counter, Point," by Huxley. The remainder of the evening was spent in discussion.

Former Roseburg Girl Wed in San Francisco

The marriage of Miss Isabelle Smith to Ray Hurley in San Francisco on October 14th, is of interest to Roseburg friends of Miss Smith. She was a former Roseburg girl and was employed at the local telephone office, until her departure for Salem where she has been making her home. Mr. Hurley is a Salem resident also.

Lovely Bridge Luncheon Given by Mrs. Perrin Thursday in West Roseburg

Mrs. A. H. Perrin was a charming hostess on Thursday afternoon at a bridge party at her home in West Roseburg. Astors and carnations in large bouquets, provided a most attractive setting for the living room where bridge was enjoyed, with Mrs. Grant Osborne winning first prize and Mrs. L. W. Metzger winning second prize. Those hidden to the affair were: Mrs. A. H. Taylor, Mrs. Grant Osborne, Mrs. H. Stearns, Mrs. Clinger, Mrs. Victor Short, Mrs. William M. Strohmeier, Mrs. A. A. Stephenson, Mrs. L. M. Metzger and Mrs. A. H. Perrin. A two course luncheon was served at small tables, which were gaily decorated with Halloween favors and place cards. Mrs. E. A. Perrin assisted Mrs. A. H. Perrin with the serving.

Art and Embroidery Club Meets Wednesday

The Art and Embroidery club spent a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Stephenson on Wednesday of this week. The living room was attractive with fall flowers and the guests spent the afternoon sewing, after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Those attending the meeting were: Mrs. Walter Stubbsfield, Mrs. Bertha Palm, Mrs. Edith Palm, Mrs. Mary Decker, Mrs. L. Engles, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Alice Rhodes, Mrs. Henry Snyder, Mrs. James Byrd, Mrs. A. H. Perrin, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mrs. Carstens and the hostess, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. Carsten on the evening of November 6th at 7:00 o'clock. It will be a hard time party.

Interesting Visitor Here During the Past Week

Mrs. Chessor Bowles, of New York City, was an interesting visitor at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Wainwright this past week. Mrs. Bowles is a niece of Mrs. Wainwright and is a graduate of the University of Oregon and Columbia University in New York. She was a former Bend girl and has been visiting relatives and friends in Oregon and Washington for the past month. Mrs. Florence Shaw, a university chum of Mrs. Bowles, came to Roseburg to visit her. Mrs. Wainwright and daughter, Bernice, met Mrs. Bowles in Eugene and brought her to Roseburg by auto. Mrs. Bowles and Mrs. Shaw left the latter part of the week for Portland where they will visit a short time before Mrs. Bowles leaves for her home in New York City.

Badoura Club, Daughters of the Nile Will Meet Tuesday Evening With Mrs. Sellick

A regular meeting of the Badoura club, Daughters of the Nile, will be held at the home of Mrs. S. G. Sellick in North Roseburg on next Tuesday evening. All members are invited to be present, as a most enjoyable evening has been planned.

Smart Coat for Winter

Dorothy Sebastian steps forth in this chic coat of Nutria Lapan fur duvetya trimmed at scarf and on cuffs. Her hat, shoes and hose match the color of the coat and make a charming ensemble.

Small Girl Has Birthday Party

Athalie Taylor was the inspiration for a birthday party at her home in Laurelwood when a number of her friends gathered to help celebrate her 5th birthday. The children played games until they were called to the table where delicious refreshments were served. Halloween decorations were used at the table, with favors and place cards in gay colors. Each little guest had a small birthday cake with candles on it. Those enjoying the party were: Edward and Jodie Smith, Jacqueline and Clyde Carsten, Tommy Hartung, Lois and Alvin Hill, Johnny Ness, Charlotte and Tommy Lockwood, Maxine Erickson, Madeline Moore, Tommy McMillin, Deen Harris, Bobbie Matthews, Gene Meyers, Mary Lee Strang, Jimmy Goodman and Athalie Taylor.

Enjoyable Venison Dinner at Gerretsen Home Sunday

A delightful dinner and evening was enjoyed last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. William Gerretsen, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pargeter and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Falbe entertained with a 6:30 o'clock venison dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gerretsen for their club. The table was attractive with a bouquet of red zinnias as a centerpiece with red napkins at each side. Place cards with bright autumn leaves were in harmony with the fall setting. The venison was from the deer that Dr. Church brought in from his hunting trip. After the dinner the remainder of the evening was spent in social conversation. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Denn, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Ness, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler, Mrs. Edith Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. William Gerretsen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pargeter, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Falbe and Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church. Instead of giving prizes at each club meeting for bridge honors, the score is kept and the four couples holding the lowest score entertain the four high couples at the next club meeting.

University Guild Meets on Monday Evening

The University Guild held their regular meeting on Monday evening at the Women's club building with a fine attendance. Several interesting book reviews were given during the evening. Lois Woodruff gave a review on "Silva Marner," Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft gave "George Elliott's Life," Margaret Hewitt gave "The Life of Pedro Dostoevsky," Adeline Stewart gave "Point Counter, Point," by Huxley. The remainder of the evening was spent in discussion.

Former Roseburg Girl Wed in San Francisco

The marriage of Miss Isabelle Smith to Ray Hurley in San Francisco on October 14th, is of interest to Roseburg friends of Miss Smith. She was a former Roseburg girl and was employed at the local telephone office, until her departure for Salem where she has been making her home. Mr. Hurley is a Salem resident also.

PECO PLANTING POT
FREE
U.S.

1 Controls supply of moisture at plant roots.
2 Conditions soil for air and root development.
3 Prevents heavy rains from "leaching" out loam or fertilizer in sandy soils.
4 As a top dressing, burns unwanted lawn from burning and soil from baking.
5 Splendid for the winter storage of bulbs.
6 Unequaled as a mulch for Roses, other flowers, Fruit trees, Evergreens and Strawberries.

For sale by
Wharton Bros.
Roseburg, Ore.

Maillard & Schmiedell
Board of Trade Bldg.,
PORTLAND, ORE.