STEAMER'S FATE SHOWN BY FLOATING DODDIES
(Associated Press Local Wire)
MILWAUKEE, Oct. 25.—A dozen bodies marked the resting place of a Lake Michigan steamer and revealed the fate of her crew of 54.

Each encased in a life belt, they floated among wreckage from their ill-fated ship, the Grand Trunk car ferry Milwaukee on the lake, 16 miles southeast of Kenosha, Wis. The Milwaukee plunged to the bottom during Tuesday night's storm.

The story of the actual events leading up to the sinking seemed destined to remain locked in the bosom of Lake Michigan. The man who could have told its tale, He is Capt. Robert "Bad Weather" McKay, of Grand Haven, whose 59 years of battling the treacherous lake ended with defeat. He was the first body identified.

How Weak Nervous Women Grow Stronger
Feel Better, Look Younger and Have Steadier Nerves

If you only knew—your rundown, anemic, nervous—women—who are dragging yourself around on your "nerves"—what a wonderful increase in strength and health Tanlac will give you, you wouldn't hesitate a moment about going to your druggist and getting a big bottle of this splendid medicine.

Mrs. Minnie Huber, of 945 E. 26th St., Portland, Ore., says: "Ever since I was a girl I suffered from sick headaches and vomiting spells. I weakened so I had no strength for anything. After taking Tanlac, my headaches and sick spells disappeared altogether."

Tanlac is as free from harmful drugs as the water you drink—only Nature's own medicinal tonic herbs. Druggists know this and for the past 10 years have recommended it to men and women who need a quick "pick-up" that will put them on their feet and give them a new interest in life.

So confident are the makers of Tanlac that if you are not helped by it, you get your money back on request.
