Poets' Corner

A PROPHECY

In Science we shall find a way
To send our messages afar
That yet shall reach some people
We shall in some enlightened day
Commune with men in worlds
above;
And by the truths, which they shall give,
We shall through all the ages live,
In greater unity and love;
And poverty and war shall cease,
And Freedom then shall keep us
fured.

Her banner over all the world
Forever in unbroken peace.
—By Alden Harness.

POET'S CORNER

NATIONAL BROTHERHOOD

O beautiful, for spacious skies
For world-wide fields of grain
O'er oceans wide, a brotherhood
Its coming down the lane!

CHORUS

O, nations all, O, nations all,
God shed thy love o'er us,
And crown us good, with brotherhood,
And never more a fuss!

You people all, o'er nations wide,
Your hands we warmly clasp;
For evermore, true friendship soars,
God's kindness here at last.

—By F. N. Austin.

A brother for world-wide brotherhood.
