Andrews, there will be representatives from all over the southern district to care for some arrangements necessary for the state convention to be held in Portland November 17-19. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. Charles A. Edwards, minister.

JUNIORS BUSY ON WHOOPEE PROGRAM

The junior high school "Whoopie" is expected to draw a large crowd tonight, and preparation is being made to accommodate the big audience. The students have been transformed into circus hands and are getting the "wild animals" ready for inspection. There will be a wild man, snake charmer and even "sharks" in the various side-shows. Clowns, soldiers, dancers and numerous other performers will frolic under the "big top" after the barkers have closed down their side-shows. Proceeds from the entertainment will go to the football fund.

$500,000 REQUEST TO MAKE HOME FOR CHORUS GIRLS

(Associated Press Leased Wire) NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A home for chorus girls out of work, ill or in need of a rest is to be established by Irene Franklin, actress, who recently inherited $500,000. She announced the purchase of four acres of land, including a fourteen-room house at Union, N. J., and expects to convert the place into a country estate.
