

Local News

From Tennille—
J. G. Barnes, of Tennille, spent Saturday in this city on business.

Riddle Visitor—
Glen Riddle, of Riddle, spent Saturday in Roseburg transacting business.

Mrs. Lane Here—
Mrs. Mary Lane of Glendale was in this city Saturday visiting friends and shopping.

Lookingglass Man Here—
G. W. Finley, of Lookingglass, was in this city Saturday transacting business.

From Days Creek—
Victor Phelps, of Days creek, was here Saturday transacting business.

Dillard Rancher Here—
Grant Clayton, Dillard rancher, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Wilbur Visitor—
Charles Sands, of Wilbur, spent Saturday in Roseburg transacting business.

Tennille Visitor—
John Franklin Brown, of Tennille, spent Saturday in this city on business.

Shop Here—
Mrs. Ilean Dysert and Miss Lola Dysert of Lookingglass shopped in this city Saturday.

Here Saturday—
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Melton, of South Deer Creek, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Pinkertons Here—
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pinkerton, of South Deer Creek, spent Saturday here visiting friends and shopping.

Visits Relatives Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Al Redburn, of Klamath Falls, spent the week-end in Roseburg visiting relatives and friends.

Winston Teacher Shops—
Miss Vivian Logsdon, teacher of Winston school, was an out of town shopper in this city Saturday.

Dillard Visitors—
Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Thompson and J. P. Williams, of Dillard, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends and transacting business.

Visits Parents—
Mrs. Joe Matthews and small daughter, of Lookingglass, spent Saturday in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Perrin.

Mr. Milan in Town—
G. W. Milan, clerk of school district No. 49 of Brockway, was a business visitor in the county school superintendent's office Saturday.

Here Over Week-End—
Robert Gile, student at University of Oregon, spent the week-end in this city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gile, Sr., and friends.

Visits Relatives—
Miss Florence Fuller, who is attending Ashland normal school this winter, spent the past several days in Roseburg visiting relatives and friends.

Operated on This Morning—
Harold Walcott, son of Dr. E. J. Wainwright, of this city, entered Mercy hospital yesterday morning and underwent a major operation this morning. Dr. A. E. Sether of Eugene did the operating.

Miss Fisher Here—
Miss Marion Fisher, student at Oregon State college, was a visitor of the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, at their home near Edin bower.

Go to Washington—
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, of the Hotel Umpqua, left Roseburg Saturday morning for Bellingham, Washington, to attend the South-west Washington Hotel club meeting.

Enjoy Week-End Here—
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith and two daughters, Katie and Hazel, of Marshfield, arrived in Roseburg last Saturday evening to spend the week-end with Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, Sr.

Mr. Garrett Here—
C. O. Garrett, of Glendale, who has had charge of the state, county and district fair board, this year has asked all secretaries to have their reports in to him by November 15th. He visited here last Saturday.

Spend Week-End Here—
Mr. and Mrs. James Pelton, of Fort Klamath, spent the week-end in this city visiting relatives and friends. They were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClellan, Mrs. Pelton and Mrs. McClellan are sisters. The Peltons intend to spend the winter in Los Angeles.

Go to Portland Saturday—
Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hagarty, Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman and Mrs. Hubert Wright, of this city, left Saturday evening for Portland to visit relatives and friends. They intend to return to this city tomorrow. Mrs. Ritzman will visit her husband, who is a patient of the veterans' hospital. He is reported to be improving.

Former Resident Here—
Joe Campbell, of Eugene, was in this city visiting friends and looking after business matters Saturday. He was a Roseburg resident until a few months ago. He formerly worked for the Ford garage here. Mr. Campbell is now associated with his two brothers in a radio and used car business in Eugene.

From Brockway—
Dan Steen of Brockway spent Saturday in Roseburg transacting business.

From Tiller—
Mrs. M. A. Archambeau, of Tiller, was a Saturday visitor in this city.

Brockway Visitor—
Mrs. C. Cyrus of Brockway was a business visitor in this city last Saturday.

Mr. Goodburn Here—
L. E. Goodburn of Melrose spent Saturday in this city, visiting friends.

Here Saturday—
Mrs. Oscar Silenius, of Peel, spent Saturday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Eugene Visitor—
H. Kremmel, bakery owner of Eugene spent a few days last week in this city on business.

Here Shopping—
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Price and Mrs. Ruth Finley of Dixonville, were in this city shopping last Saturday.

Spend Day Here—
Mrs. M. H. Bauer and son, and Mrs. H. Weaver, of Myrtle Creek, were shoppers in this city Saturday.

Miss Judd Home—
Miss Edress Judd, student at University of Oregon, spent the week-end in this city visiting her parents and friends.

Mrs. Hebard Improving—
Mrs. S. L. Hebard, who recently underwent a major operation at Roseburg General hospital, is reported to be recovering nicely.

Visit at Coast—
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bollen, Mrs. Cora Baker and Stewart Baker of this city visited relatives and friends at Myrtle Point Saturday.

From Oakland—
Julius and Mrs. A. F. Stearns, Mrs. Harry Oakley and Miss Martha Davidson, of Oakland, were in Roseburg Saturday visiting relatives and friends.

Stopped Here Saturday—
C. C. Pace, prominent attorney of the state industrial accident commission, of Salem, stopped here Saturday to visit friends on his way to Ashland.

Leatherwoods Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leatherwood, of lower Calapooia, and Mrs. James Leatherwood, of Oakland, were out of town shoppers in this city last Saturday afternoon.

Cheever's Spend Day Here—
Mrs. Betty Cheever and William Cheever, of Elkton, were in this city Saturday visiting friends and shopping. Mrs. Cheever is a school teacher near Elkton.

Here Saturday and Sunday—
Frank and J. V. Long, students at University of Oregon, spent Saturday and Sunday with their father, John Long, at his home on East Douglas street.

Leave for Eight Days—
Mr. and Mrs. M. Gilbert Wood of this city left Sunday for Portland and Walla Walla, where they will spend the ensuing eight days visiting relatives and friends.

Visitors From Marshfield—
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cederstrom and their two children and Mrs. Cederstrom's mother, Mrs. J. E. Insley, all of Marshfield, were visitors in Roseburg over Armistice day.

Go to Beach—
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lockwood and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman of this city left Saturday for Portland, Tillamook and other beach points, where they will spend a few days' vacation.

Shops Here—
Mrs. Lee Goodman, of Lookingglass, was in Roseburg Saturday visiting relatives and friends and shopping. Mr. Goodman, who has been ill for the past several weeks, is reported to be slightly improved.

Mr. Houser Visits—
Roy Houser, of Albany, arrived in this city Saturday evening to spend several days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Houser, and friends. He is working in the Western Auto Supply store in Albany.

Back From Portland—
Miss Lucille Germond and Fred Royce, of this city, returned home from Portland on Friday night after accompanying Miss Ione Royce to the city. Miss Ione returned to Roseburg Saturday night to spend several weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Royce, of this city.

Enjoy Week-End—
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kronke and Mrs. B. F. Chilson, of this city, left Roseburg last Saturday night to spend the week-end visiting friends and relatives in the northern part of the state. Mrs. Chilson stopped at Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Kronke went on to Portland. They are expected to return to this city late this evening.

Planted Local Shrubbery—
One of the beauty spots along the highway just north of town will be seen in the grounds at the Richmond beacon light and station near Winchester, where the landscape gardener is planting ornamental trees and shrubbery and laying out flower beds. The shrubbery that is being used was locally grown by C. E. Moyer, of the Dillard garden section. The shrubbery for the plant near Grants Pass was also supplied from the Moyer place.

Glide Visitor—
H. Steller of Glide spent Saturday in this city visiting friends.

Mr. Goff Here—
R. O. Goff of Sutherlin was a visitor in this city yesterday.

Very Ill—
Little Betty Haynard of this city is still very ill at her home.

Dillard Rancher Here Monday—
James Lawrence, Dillard rancher, was an out of town visitor in this city yesterday.

From Brockway—
H. E. Kennedy of Brockway spent Monday in this city enjoying the Armistice celebration.

Tye Visitor—
E. Emmett, rancher of Tye, enjoyed Armistice day in Roseburg, visiting friends and celebrating.

Senator Eddy Back—
Senator B. L. Eddy has returned to his home here after spending several days on business in McMinnville.

Garden Valley Visitors—
Jay Epperly and Harry Schneider of Garden Valley spent Monday in Roseburg enjoying the celebration.

Coles Valley Man in Town—
William Long, a resident of Coles Valley, spent yesterday in this city enjoying the Armistice celebration.

Here Monday—
Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Milton of South Deer Creek spent Monday in Roseburg enjoying the Armistice celebration.

Visiting Grandparents Here—
Kenneth McCurdy, of Portland, is spending a week in this city visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William McCurdy.

Enjoy Celebration Here—
Fred, Raymond and Maynard McCormack of South Deer Creek spent Armistice day in this city, enjoying the celebration.

Mr. McKay Here—
C. P. McKay, of Wilbur, spent Monday in this city celebrating Armistice day. He is a brother of Harold McKay of this city.

Go to Grants Pass—
Marshall Hunt, News-Review collector, spent the week-end visiting relatives and friends in Grants Pass. He returned to his home here last evening.

Mr. Ness Here—
Thomas H. Ness, manager of the California Oregon Power company of Coos Bay, spent the week-end in this city visiting with his family. He expects to return to Marshfield tonight.

Visit Here—
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Naylor and small son, of Eugene, spent the week-end in this city at the home of Mrs. Naylor's mother, Mrs. Lena McElhinny. They returned to their home last evening.

Enjoy Armistice Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Nichols and daughter, Patricia, and Mrs. J. Harold Nichols and children, of Brockway, spent Monday here visiting relatives and friends, and enjoying the Armistice celebration.

From Round Prairie—
George and Gordon Burnett, of Round Prairie, spent Armistice day in this city visiting their sister, Mrs. Herbert Britt, on South Stephens street. They are both well known in this city.

Enjoying Visit—
Mrs. Loren Britt and mother, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

Visitors From Marshfield—
Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

From Round Prairie—
George and Gordon Burnett, of Round Prairie, spent Armistice day in this city visiting their sister, Mrs. Herbert Britt, on South Stephens street. They are both well known in this city.

Enjoying Visit—
Mrs. Loren Britt and mother, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

Visitors From Marshfield—
Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

From Round Prairie—
George and Gordon Burnett, of Round Prairie, spent Armistice day in this city visiting their sister, Mrs. Herbert Britt, on South Stephens street. They are both well known in this city.

Enjoying Visit—
Mrs. Loren Britt and mother, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

Visitors From Marshfield—
Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

From Round Prairie—
George and Gordon Burnett, of Round Prairie, spent Armistice day in this city visiting their sister, Mrs. Herbert Britt, on South Stephens street. They are both well known in this city.

Enjoying Visit—
Mrs. Loren Britt and mother, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

Visitors From Marshfield—
Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

From Round Prairie—
George and Gordon Burnett, of Round Prairie, spent Armistice day in this city visiting their sister, Mrs. Herbert Britt, on South Stephens street. They are both well known in this city.

Enjoying Visit—
Mrs. Loren Britt and mother, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

Visitors From Marshfield—
Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

From Round Prairie—
George and Gordon Burnett, of Round Prairie, spent Armistice day in this city visiting their sister, Mrs. Herbert Britt, on South Stephens street. They are both well known in this city.

Enjoying Visit—
Mrs. Loren Britt and mother, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

Visitors From Marshfield—
Mrs. F. A. Bemis, of this city, are enjoying a vacation of several days in Seattle, where they are visiting relatives and friends. They left here last Thursday and intend to return the middle of this week.

From Round Prairie—
George and Gordon Burnett, of Round Prairie, spent Armistice day in this city visiting their sister, Mrs. Herbert Britt, on South Stephens street. They are both well known in this city.

Takes Lessons Here—
Miss Margaret Cochran, stenographer in the Myrtle Creek bank, is in this city today. She is taking a course of violin instruction.

Portland Visitors—
Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Schemere and C. C. Collins, of Portland, were visitors in this city over the week-end.

Visit Parents—
Mr. and Mrs. Morrill E. Ritter, Jr., of Portland, spent Armistice day in this city visiting Mr. Ritter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ritter, Sr., and friends.

Visiting in California—
Mrs. J. B. York, a resident of West Roseburg, is visiting relatives and friends in Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. She left Roseburg about two weeks ago and expects to return to this city in ten days.

Gone to Eugene—
Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Knight of this city spent Armistice day with their son, William, in Eugene. They returned to their home last evening. William Knight is a student of the law school at University of Oregon.

Leaves for California—
Maynard Belling of this city left for Hollywood today to remain permanently. He has been employed as barber at the Elite shop for the past two months. He was also a radio salesman of this city.

Portland Visitors—
Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fields, of Portland, spent the week-end in this city visiting friends and enjoying Armistice day. Mr. Fields is well known here, having formerly been employed by the Umpqua garage.

Visits Parents—
Alfred Elliott of Eugene spent several days in this city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Elliott. He is a former Roseburg boy and now employed by the Zellerbach paper company with headquarters in Eugene. He returned to his work last evening.

Return Home—
Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and daughters, Miss Vernita and Miss Elza, returned to their home in this city last evening after spending the week-end visiting in Albany, Molalla and Portland. Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen, who is teaching this year at Molalla, accompanied her mother and sisters to Portland.

Harley Marsters Here—
Harley Marsters, former Roseburg boy, and now training in the army aviation school near San Francisco, is spending several days in Roseburg visiting relatives and friends. He also spent a few days visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Bennett, in Marshfield. Mrs. Bennett was a former Roseburg resident.

Here for Armistice Day—
Frank White of Marshfield arrived in Roseburg Saturday evening to spend the week-end and attend the Armistice celebration. Mrs. White and baby, Doris Ann, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Jennings, the past two weeks, returned to Marshfield with Mr. White on Monday evening. Mr. White is connected with the MacMarr store in Marshfield.

Returns to Klamath Falls—
Miss Mable Schindler, of Klamath Falls, returned to her home last evening with Mr. and Mrs. Al Redburn and family. They have been visiting relatives and friends for the past several days in this city. Miss Schindler visited her mother, Mrs. Bell Schindler. She is well known here, having been employed at the local J. C. Penney store for several years before leaving for Klamath Falls, where she is now employed in the Golden Rule store.

Canyonville Visitor—
Dan Bollenbaugh of Canyonville spent Monday in this city celebrating Armistice day.

North Bend Mayor Here—
William Vaughn, mayor of North Bend, spent Armistice day in this city. He is well known here.

Enjoys Week-End—
Robert Cook of the News-Review spent the week-end in Medford visiting friends. He returned to Roseburg this morning.

New Mechanic at Garage—
Arnold H. Hoffmeister of this city has come to work as mechanic for the Ialo Stephens garage on Main street. He is well known here.

Mr. Pettey Back—
Brian Pettey of this city, who has been enjoying a several weeks' vacation in San Francisco, returned to his home Sunday evening. He is working in Pettey's Sweet Shop.

Here Monday—
Harold Olsen, musician of Marshfield, spent Armistice day in this city visiting relatives and friends. He played for the dance on Monday evening. He is well known here.

Visit Here Few Days—
Mr. and Mrs. Milton Murphy of Powers spent the week-end in this city visiting Mrs. Murphy's mother, Mrs. G. E. Davis, and her sister, Mrs. A. S. Stephens. They returned to their home last evening.

Return to Eugene—
Maynard and Raymond Bell and Truman Runyan, students at University of Oregon, returned last evening to Eugene to resume their studies, after spending the week-end visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Working at Terminal—
Leland Dunn of this city has accepted work in the Terminal cafe kitchen. He began work the first of the week.

Arrives to Visit Sisters—
Mrs. R. R. Davis of Los Angeles arrived in this city last evening, having accompanied friends who were returning by motor to their home in Seattle. Mrs. Davis will spend a week as a guest of her sisters, Mrs. D. C. Hamilton, Miss Ellen Crabtree and Mrs. G. S. Carroll. Her visit came as a most agreeable surprise to her sisters.

Leaves for Glendale—
Howard Helmboldt of this city, who has been working for the past several days at Knudsen's jewelry store, returned today to Glendale, where he has charge of the jewelry store. Mr. Knudsen has been ill at his home for the past several days, but is considerably improved and is able to be out again. Roy Pettey of this city, who has just completed work at the California Oregon Power company camp No. 1, has returned to this city and will work for Mr. Knudsen, beginning this week.

From Medford—
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kidd, of Medford, spent the week-end in Roseburg visiting friends.

Mrs. Buell Doing Nicely—
Mrs. Stancore Buell, of Dillard, is reported to be doing nicely at Roseburg General hospital.

Mr. Knapp Here—
E. L. Knapp, of the Eugene Register, arrived in Roseburg Monday to attend to business at the News-Review.

Here Short Time—
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rowley, of Portland, spent a short time in this city Sunday. They visited Miss Mattie Perry while here.

Return Home—
Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Perrin, of this city, have returned to their home after spending the past several days visiting relatives and friends in Portland.

DR. DEAN B. BUBAR
OPTOMETRIST
Specialist in the fitting of Glasses
116 Jackson St.

Notice to Eagles
Special Meeting Tonight
Initiation. Come, bring card. date. W. P.

LIBERTY
Last Time Today
MONTE BLUE
in
"From Headquarters"
COMING
WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY
"HARD BOILED ROSE"
Admission: 10c-25c

Return Home—
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Pearcy and small daughter, Miss Ruth Ann, of Salem, and Miss Dorothy Marsters, returned Sunday evening after spending a few days visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Marsters, of this city. Miss Dorothy is a student at Oregon State college.

CY COLOGY-SEZ:

ED PURDY SAYS
HIS WIFE'S THE
BEST LOUD SPEAKER
HE EVER HAD!

Loving lips are often tuned to foolishness. The married man who thoroughly insures his family's comfort engages our electrical service department.

J. S. McDonald
112 W. Douglas Phone 665

The Community Chest

Is For The Protection of Roseburg's Own

What you give to the Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, Roseburg Band, Corvallis Farm Home, the Louise Home, the Juvenile Hospital and Local Relief, through the Community Chest, is for the

Character Building and Citizenship Training of our own boys and girls; for our own advertising and amusement; for the guaranteeing of good homes; for our own orphans; for hospitalization for our own crippled children; for the relief of Roseburg's own distressed.

The value of each of the above organizations has been proved time and again. "Tis more blessed to give than to receive." And every one of us can be thankful that we are able to give and not compelled to take from the Community Chest.

This Is a Seven-in-One Drive A Huge Saving

Give Plenty---Give Willingly

Then the more you are bound to enjoy your golf, shooting, fishing or other amusements.

ANTLERS Last Time Today

Mat. 2:15—Eve. 7:15-9:00

Norma Shearer

in
The Last of Mrs. Cheney

COMING WEDNESDAY

One Day Only

"MIDSTREAM"

with

Claire Windsor—Montagu Love

Dialogue and Singing Production

Adm. Mat. 10-35; Eve. 10-50