

Local News

Camas Valley Man Here— A. L. Thrush, Camas Valley stockman, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

Visiting Here— Mrs. K. P. Hamilton of Eugene is visiting relatives and friends in this city this week.

Glide People In— Miss Agnes Blakeley and L. A. Daly of Glide were out of town visitors in this city Tuesday.

Transacts Business Here— Earl Sumner of Days Creek spent yesterday afternoon in this city transacting business.

Glendale Rancher Here— Galt Hamilton, of Glendale, spent Tuesday in this city on business.

From Cottage Grove— Mrs. George Boak of Cottage Grove spent yesterday in this city shopping and visiting friends.

Mrs. Davis Visits— Mrs. C. R. Davis of Sutherlin spent Tuesday afternoon in this city, visiting friends and shopping.

Has Tonsils Out— L. E. Gerretsen of Oakland was in this city Saturday and underwent a minor operation for tonsils.

Has Tonsils Removed— Wade Worthington of Canyonville had his tonsils removed yesterday morning. He is reported to be doing fine.

Mrs. Brown Here— Mrs. Winifred Brown of Drain is spending today in this city, visiting friends and enjoying a shopping trip.

Will Spend Winter at Coast— Mrs. Addie Nichols, of Kiddle, who is also well known here, left Monday for Reedsport, where she intends to spend the winter.

Spends Few Days in Salem— Miss Myrtle Knowland, daughter of Ott's Music store spent the week-end and Armistice day visiting relatives and friends in Salem.

Returns Home— Mrs. John A. C. King of Coos Junction has returned to her home after spending the past several weeks visiting relatives and friends in Medford.

Fractures Wrist— The small son of E. N. Garbut of Dillard fell from his bicycle Armistice day and suffered a fracture of his right wrist. He was brought to Roseburg for medical treatment.

Glendale People Visit— Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gilman and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Gilman, of Glendale, spent Tuesday in this city visiting friends and transacting business.

Fisher Home Few Days— Adrian Fisher, son of W. H. Fisher, of this city, returned to his work with the Northwestern Electric company in Portland Monday night after visiting relatives and friends here for several days.

Mrs. Beard in Town— Mrs. F. L. Beard, of Eugene, spent yesterday in this city visiting friends and looking after business matters. She is proprietor of the Ladha Furnishing store in Eugene.

Reedsport Judge Here— Judge J. H. Austin, of Reedsport, was in this city yesterday. He is well known here.

Has Operation— Mrs. T. McAlbee, of Roseburg, underwent a minor operation at Roseburg General hospital this morning.

Spends Day at Myrtle Creek— Miss Venora Bates, of this city, spent Armistice day visiting her parents in Myrtle Creek. Miss Bates is the teacher at the Edenbover school.

Visits Friends Here— James E. Fielder, of Medford, stopped here a short time yesterday to visit friends. He was on his way home from Seattle where he was called a few weeks ago by the sudden illness of his mother. Mr. Fielder is well known in Roseburg.

Bert Bates Leaves— Bert G. Bates, of Hollywood, left Roseburg yesterday afternoon for Portland to attend to business matters. He intends to go to Klamath Falls to visit his father, B. W. Bates, before returning to California. Mr. Bates enjoyed several days in this city visiting his many friends.

Harris' Leave Roseburg— Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Harris, residents of Roseburg for the past 14 years, left yesterday for their new home in San Jose, California. Mr. Harris is an employee of the Southern Pacific railway company. Both he and Mrs. Harris are very well known here.

Leaves Today for East— R. Branson, local Southern Pacific employee, left today for his home town in Missouri to spend three weeks visiting his parents and friends. O. F. Fredrickson will take his place while he is gone.

Here From Ashland— Stauford Jones, of Ashland, and a former Roseburg resident, is spending several days in this city. Mrs. Jones has been ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Wills, of this city, for the past week. She is now somewhat improved.

Leave for Home— Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Hulham, of Walka, Wash., left today for their home after spending the past two weeks visiting their sons, Paul and Roy Hulham of this city. They have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hulham in Laurelwood.

Here Over Week-End— Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cameron and baby of Eugene spent the week-end in this city visiting Mrs. Cameron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cobb. They returned home late Monday evening. They are both well known here, having been graduated from the local high school.

Return to Portland— Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Peters and Miss Irene Boone, of Portland, returned to their home yesterday after spending the past several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gross, of this city. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Cochran of Drivers valley. Mr. Peters is assistant cashier of the U. S. National bank of Portland.

Move to California— Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cachelin, of this city, have moved to California and will make their home near Dimsumir. Mr. Cachelin has accepted a position with the Richfield Oil company. He formerly worked as mechanic for the late Stephens garage of this city. Mrs. Cachelin is also well known here, having been employed by the Palace of Sweets and by the Terminal cafe.

Visit Friends Monday— Mr. and Mrs. Kilt Ackert and daughter, Miss Carol, of this city, and Miss Eva Ackert, of Winchester Bay, spent Armistice day visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Penny of Home River. Miss Eva Ackert returned to the coast on Monday evening to resume her teaching in the school of that place. Mrs. Ackert visited schools at coast points on Tuesday of this week.

Stop Here Short Time— Mr. and Mrs. William Wade of Klamath Falls stopped a short time Monday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Porter of this city. Mrs. Wade is a sister of Mr. Porter. They were returning to their home after spending the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Porter of Eugene. Mr. Wade is employed at the Montgomery Ward store in Klamath Falls. Both are well known in this city, having been former residents here.

Returns From Vacation— Mrs. J. A. Fulcher, of this city, returned home yesterday morning, after spending the past two weeks visiting friends and relatives in Portland, Aberdeen and Olympia. Mr. Fulcher accompanied her as far north as Portland and then returned to this city. He left last Saturday for Portland to meet Mrs. Fulcher, but had the misfortune of wrecking his car near Cottage Grove. He was uninjured. Mrs. Fulcher reports a fine vacation. She is a nurse in Dr. E. B. Stewart's office.

Shopping Here Yesterday— Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Raymond, from the Days creek section on the South Umpqua spent Tuesday in Roseburg shopping. The automobile brings the farming districts near to commercial centers these days, and Mr. Raymond, in speaking of the long, slow trips of former years, compared the present era of rapid transportation with older methods. These people remained here until nearly five o'clock and the automobile carried them nearly 40 miles to their home in time for supper.

Harth's TOGGERY

Has Tonsils Out— Mrs. Ralph Church, stenographer for Dr. Charles B. Wade, had her tonsils removed Saturday.

Enjoy Few Days at Coast— Mr. and Mrs. George Weber, of this city, have returned home after spending a few days visiting at the coast.

Visits Here— Mrs. Bulch, of Myrtle Creek, and a sister of Mrs. A. C. Seely of this city, spent Tuesday here visiting and shopping.

S. P. Auditor Here— W. W. Grindell, an auditor for the Southern Pacific Railway company with headquarters in Eugene, is spending a few days in this city on business.

Religious Class Started— J. Walter Richardson, principal of the Elkton city school, is establishing a specific course in religious instruction in the school system of Elkton, at the request of the patrons of the school.

Visiting Here— Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Goff, of Oakland, arrived in Roseburg yesterday to spend several days in this city visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hawn. Mrs. Hawn is a sister of Mr. Goff.

Houcks in Seattle— Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck, of this city, left yesterday for Seattle, where they expect to remain until Saturday of this week. They will visit relatives and friends.

Return From Visit— Mr. and Mrs. Earl Decker and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Palm, of this city, have returned to their home after spending the past several days visiting Mrs. Palm's brother, Jess Safley, in Albany.

Fractures Arm— Little Dale Carson, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean G. Carson, of Remote, fell off a woodshed on Armistice day and fractured his right arm. He was brought to Roseburg for medical aid.

Visiting Relatives Here— Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hull, of Weed, California, arrived in Roseburg the first of the week to visit friends and relatives for several days. Both are well known here, having been former residents.

Thompsons Return Home— Mr. and Mrs. E. Thompson and daughter, Mildred, of this city, have returned to their home after spending the past several days visiting relatives and friends in Portland.

Gives Chrysanthemums— Miss Sylvia Brown, of this city, presented the chamber of commerce with a beautiful bouquet of orchid chrysanthemums on Tuesday. They are on display at this time.

Keys on Display— Three of Douglas county's prize turkeys which are mounted, are on display at the local chamber of commerce. They have just been returned from the state fair at Salem, where they drew considerable attention.

Leave for Seattle— Mr. and Mrs. Tense Busenbark and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Thompson, all of Medrose, left this morning for Seattle, Washington, to attend the session of the National Grange, which commenced its annual convention in that city today.

Back From Trip— Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kronke, Mrs. B. F. Chilson, of Roseburg, and Mrs. Bert Stevens of Reedsport returned to this city late Monday night after enjoying the week-end and Armistice day visiting relatives and friends in Albany and Portland.

Coppo Man Visits— Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lench and Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas, of Coquille, were visitors in this city yesterday. Mr. Lench is with the Mountain States Power company in Coquille. He visited friends at the local California-Oregon Power company office.

Spends Day in Grants Pass— Mr. and Mrs. George Witters, of this city, spent Armistice day in Grants Pass visiting friends. Mr. Witters is manager of the local Skaggs store.

Doing Nicely at Hospital— Jimmy Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd of this city, is reported to be doing nicely at Mercy hospital. He underwent a major operation a few days ago.

Mrs. Fest Returns— Mrs. W. F. Fest of this city returned to her home last evening after spending the past week visiting friends in Portland and Silverton.

Lawsons Go Duck Hunting— Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lawson, of this city, spent several days at Forrest lake enjoying duck hunting. They returned here late Monday night with some fine ducks.

Eugene People Visit— Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Miles, of Eugene, spent the week-end in this city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harpster. They are former residents of Roseburg.

Miss Whitney Returns— Miss Jean Whitney, student at University of Oregon, has returned to Eugene after spending the week-end in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Shops in Roseburg— Mrs. Val Strong, of Myrtle Creek, was an out of town visitor in this city yesterday.

Oak Creek Woman Here— Mrs. W. Barker of Oak Creek spent Tuesday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Marriage License Issued— A marriage license has been issued to Ira Melton Irion and Anne Gerbett, both of Marshfield.

Return From Portland— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caraway of this city returned Monday evening from Portland, where they enjoyed a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Hembree, parents of Mrs. Caraway.

Visiting From Eugene— Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huffman and daughter, of Eugene, arrived in this city yesterday to spend a few days visiting friends. They are former Roseburg residents. Mr. Huffman is a Southern Pacific man.

Helliwells Return Home— Mr. and Mrs. Barton Helliwell, of this city, have returned home after spending a few days visiting at Boswell Springs and Yoncalla. While at Yoncalla they visited Mr. Helliwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Helliwell.

Arrives Here Today— Paul Brown, field secretary of Pacific coast state Christian Endeavor work with headquarters in Portland, arrived in this city this morning. He will have charge of the rally at the Presbyterian church this evening. All young people interested in this type of work, are invited to attend. The rally will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Brown is an accomplished musician on the mandolin and will entertain the young people with several selections this evening.

E. M. Seelye Here— E. M. Seelye, of Medrose, transacted business in this city yesterday afternoon.

Umpqua Visitor— Mrs. J. R. Clayton, of Umpqua, was in Roseburg today visiting friends and shopping.

Mrs. Ferguson Here— Mrs. J. J. Ferguson, of Days Creek, spent Tuesday in this city shopping and visiting relatives.

Attorney Brown Here— Attorney O. S. Brown, of Grants Pass, was a business visitor at the county courthouse on Tuesday.

Cottage Grove Attorney Here— Attorney O. W. Lombard, of Cottage Grove, spent yesterday at the county courthouse on business.

Called to Portland— H. W. Dewell, Southern Pacific man of Roseburg, was called to Portland the first of the week, by the serious illness of his brother.

Moves to California— Mrs. Gordon Fleming, of Arago, left yesterday afternoon on the Shasta for Los Angeles. Mr. Fleming will leave today via auto.

Enjoy Trip to Medford— Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen Brown, of this city, have returned to their home after spending the past few days visiting friends in Medford.

Leaves for California— Mrs. Ray Stearns, of Oakland, left Roseburg yesterday on the Shasta for Fresno, California, where she expects to spend the winter.

County Official Here— Miss Bees Clough and Huron Clough, of Canyonville, visited friends in Roseburg yesterday afternoon. Mr. Clough is county commissioner.

Building New Home— Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Matthews, of Reston, are building a home near the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Matthews, parents of Mr. Matthews.

Spent Day in Grants Pass— Mr. and Mrs. George Witters, of this city, spent Armistice day in Grants Pass visiting friends. Mr. Witters is manager of the local Skaggs store.

Doing Nicely at Hospital— Jimmy Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd of this city, is reported to be doing nicely at Mercy hospital. He underwent a major operation a few days ago.

Mrs. Fest Returns— Mrs. W. F. Fest of this city returned to her home last evening after spending the past week visiting friends in Portland and Silverton.

Lawsons Go Duck Hunting— Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lawson, of this city, spent several days at Forrest lake enjoying duck hunting. They returned here late Monday night with some fine ducks.

Eugene People Visit— Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Miles, of Eugene, spent the week-end in this city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harpster. They are former residents of Roseburg.

Miss Whitney Returns— Miss Jean Whitney, student at University of Oregon, has returned to Eugene after spending the week-end in this city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitney.

Shops in Roseburg— Mrs. Val Strong, of Myrtle Creek, was an out of town visitor in this city yesterday.

Oak Creek Woman Here— Mrs. W. Barker of Oak Creek spent Tuesday in this city visiting friends and shopping.

Marriage License Issued— A marriage license has been issued to Ira Melton Irion and Anne Gerbett, both of Marshfield.

Return From Portland— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caraway of this city returned Monday evening from Portland, where they enjoyed a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Hembree, parents of Mrs. Caraway.

Visiting From Eugene— Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huffman and daughter, of Eugene, arrived in this city yesterday to spend a few days visiting friends. They are former Roseburg residents. Mr. Huffman is a Southern Pacific man.

Helliwells Return Home— Mr. and Mrs. Barton Helliwell, of this city, have returned home after spending a few days visiting at Boswell Springs and Yoncalla. While at Yoncalla they visited Mr. Helliwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Helliwell.

Arrives Here Today— Paul Brown, field secretary of Pacific coast state Christian Endeavor work with headquarters in Portland, arrived in this city this morning. He will have charge of the rally at the Presbyterian church this evening. All young people interested in this type of work, are invited to attend. The rally will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Brown is an accomplished musician on the mandolin and will entertain the young people with several selections this evening.

Transact Business Here— Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Henninger of Oakland are in this city today transacting business and visiting friends.

Randolphs Back— Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Randolph and daughter, Miss Barbara, of this city, returned late Monday evening from Portland, where they enjoyed the week-end visiting relatives and friends.

Roseburg Boy Honored— Floyd Bowers, Roseburg student at University of Oregon, has been elected one of the five students from the university to be initiated into an accounting fraternity on the Eugene campus. Mr. Bowers is well known in Roseburg, having kept books for the Red Bull Freight company during the past summer. His home is also in Roseburg. He is a member of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

LIBERTY Today and Thursday 2 Shows Evening, 7:15-9:00 p. m.

"HARD BOILED ROSE" with Myrna Loy, Wm. Collier, Gladys Brockwell and FOX NEWS-COMEDY Admission 10c-25c

ANTLERS Popular Prices

STARTS THURSDAY For Three Big Days The Newest Miracle of the Talking Screen

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents HOLLYWOOD REVUE OF 1929 WITH JOHN GILBERT, JOAN CRAWFORD, MARION DAVIES, WILLIAM HAINES, NORMA SHEARER, BUSTER KEATON and a Galaxy of Vaudeville favorites!

A musical extravaganza of unbelievable magnificence... with an array of talent never even dreamed of before...

ANTLERS Popular Prices

The Community Chest Is For The Protection of Roseburg's Own

What you give to the Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, Roseburg Band, Corvallis Farm Home, the Louise Home, the Juvenile Hospital and Local Relief, through the Community Chest, is for the

Character Building and Citizenship Training

of our own boys and girls; for our own advertising and amusement; for the guaranteeing of good homes; for our own orphans; for hospitalization for our own crippled children; for the relief of Roseburg's own distressed.

The value of each of the above organizations has been proved time and again. "Tis more blessed to give than to receive." And every one of us can be thankful that we are able to give and not compelled to take from the Community Chest.

This Is a Seven-in-One Drive A Huge Saving Give Plenty---Give Willingly

Then the more you are bound to enjoy your golf, shooting, fishing or other amusements.

Advertisement for ANTLERS TODAY ONLY featuring MIDSTREAM and listing actors like RICARDO CORTEZ and CLAIRE WINDSOR.