TODAY'S MARKETS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 12.—Egg and butter prices were steady today with no changes announced.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture says:

"Trading was active, following the week-end and Armistice holidays. Jonathan apples are showing smaller sizes than earlier offerings, and prices for all grades of Jonathans are lower. Other apple prices are steady.

"Cauliflower production will benefit materially as a result of Saturday's and Sunday's rain, and quality is excellent. Carlot sales have been made as high as $1.60 per crate, and local values have increased accordingly.

"Celery is stronger, with sales to retailers generally 10 to 15c higher per dozen stalks than last week's levels. Carlot demand is good, and sales are being effected at $2.00@2.25 per crate, in the rough.

"Grapefruit fluctuations show a slightly lower trend today."
